City Workers OK Pay Plan, End Strike

FIRST 'FOURTH'. Lida Mae Hashman, daughter of Spec. 4 and Mrs. Edgar E. Hashman of W. 9th St., is literally wrapped in Old Glory as she celebrates her first birthday anniversary and the nation's 192nd today. Her father is serving with the 25th Infantry Division at Chu Chi, Vietnam.

BULLETIN!

Striking city employes, in an "almost unanimous" voice vote Wednesday night, voted to accept Council's latest wage proposal, and a back-to-work movement started almost immediately for those in critical jobs at the sewage treatment plant. Garbage and trash collections will resume on regular schedules Friday. The Ohio River downstream from the Newell Bridge will be safe again for recreational use after noon today, the Health Department said.

The end of a six - day walkout of municipal workers appeared near Wednesday night after Council made a new four-point proposal, topped with an offer of a general 5 per cent pay boost, and a district union representative replied that he would recommend acceptance by the 52 striking employes.

Council made the proposal through Solicitor J. Michael Kapp in a negotiating meeting with four representatives of Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes. The bargaining session ended at 8. The local then called a general meeting for 9 at City Hall to vote on the proposal.

JOHN KELLY of Youngstown, a district representative of Council 18 of the AFSCME, told Council he would recommend the local accept the offer, citing the possibility of still further gains in the future for the employes.

The biggest change in Council's offer made last night was that it was worded to grant the 5 per cent boost "across the board to all union employes, to the extent of available funds."

Previous offers also called for 5 per cent boosts, but specifically excluded the four "Meter Maids" and at least three clerical employes.

The union's membership is made up primarily of employes of the street, incinerator, sewage and water departments.

Council also offered the local:

2. — Time and a half pay for hourly - rated workers after 8 hours in any one day and the same premium pay for salaried employes after 40 hours in any week, if the overtime is worked at the direction of a department head.

3. — Any future wage increases to be granted only on the results of job evaluation studies.

4. — A job study of all departments to be made jointly by city and union representatives.

4. — The job study to be made in cities of a similar size and with a similar tax duplicate and not to include any rich suburban areas with excessively high real estate tax structures.

"THIS IS the final offer as far as Council is concerned," the union representatives were told by Councilman Floyd Murray. "Take it back to your people. This is the final offer."

The union also was represented by Lewis Campbell of Youngstown, another Council 18 spokesman, and James McKinnon, president, and Charles Masters, secretary, of Local 677.

All seven voting members of Council attended a caucus session in Mayor George E. Willshaw's office at 7 in which the details of the latest proposal were agreed upon. They were Councilmen Frank Duffy, Murray, Donal Burcham, John Wilson, Robert Sample, James Lowe and Edward Massey.

President Norman Bucher, Kapp and the mayor also were present. But the mayor did not attend the negotiating session, which was held in the Council caucus room. Lowe left the bargaining meeting before its conclusion, en route to a night shift at a mill.

Before Council spelled out its final offer, the union was asked to present a counter - proposition. Kelly said it would agree to settle for 5 per cent for all its members except the incinerator department workers. He said it was seeking a 7 per cent boost for the incinerator employes because of "greater inequities" in wages, compared with other Ohio cities.

THE UNION asked Kapp to explain the phrase "to the extent of available funds," that was tacked onto the offer of a 5 per cent boost. Kapp replied that the wage ordinance would call for a 5 per cent boost without reservations "but it means that if the city runs out of money in December there would have to be adjustments."

As the meeting concluded, Kelly said his recommendation of the union's acceptance would be based in part on the fact that "the job study will give us hope of eliminating further inequities."

THE CITY service employes' strike had its beginnings Thursday, June 27, when the incinerator department workers reported for duty, then went home a short time later, asserting they had been "ignored" the preceding night when Council granted $23-a-month raises to members of the police and fire departments.

The employes' local union held a special meeting that night and voted to act in sympathy with the incinerator workers. That spread the strike to the water, sewage and street departments, "Meter Maids," a

Pilot Injured In District Crash

A Chicago businessman was in "fair" condition Wednesday night at City Hospital with injuries suffered when his single - engine light plane crashed in a wooded area about two miles north of Wellsville in a landing attempt.

Steven Heineman of 1000 Lakeshore Dr. suffered a head injury and lacerations of the body in the crash about 3:45 p.m. off the runway of the Johnston Airport along Route 45.

Witnesses said Heineman was landing with a tailwind when the plane overshot the edge of the 1,575-foot north - east - southwest runway and partially floated into trees at a lower elevation, finally coming to a halt about 300 feet from the runway's edge.

Gene Johnston of 1305 Hillcrest Rd., owner of the small airfield, said, "The trees undoubtedly saved his life." Johnston said the trees cushioned the plane so as to soften the impact.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the plane came in from the northeast with a tailwind and the wheels actually only rolled some 100 yards on the runway before overshooting.

The 1968 Cessna "Cardinal" was a complete loss, the Patrol reported.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis says the four parcels comprising the site north of Glenmoor "have at least five encumbrances."

He and Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, chairman of the County Airport Authority, met Monday at the Courthouse with an attorney and engineer from the Federal Aviation Agency.

ON WEDNESDAY, Bettis forwarded to the FAA certificates of title to the four properties, setting out the various liens — coal, oil and gas rights, right-of-way for electric and gas lines, a producing gas well and even a federal tax claim.

The prosecutor said he has no idea how demanding the FAA's legal section will be about clearing the encumbrances or how long it will take to work things out.

Meanwhile, Roland A. Getz, Inc., the Mansfield contractor who bid the work at $355,018 April 15 is still waiting for a call to begin. His bid includes $325,886 for the airfield and $29,131 for lighting.

Rom Mosure of Mosure & Fok, Youngstown consulting engineers retained to supervise construction, says Getz calls him every day. He has no other job to go to, Mosure said, because he left the summer open for the airport work—a three-month project.

MOSURE said the work would have to be readvertised for bids if Getz withdraws his proposal. The engineer said he has hopes the FAA will make a "grant offer" some time next week.

This will state the amount the government will put into the project. Once the county commissioners accept the offer and pledge the county to its share of construction costs, Mosure will be able to tell Getz to begin work. The Ohio Department

U.S. Troops Locate Large Rocket Cache

Weapons Found In Bamboo Clump By First Infantry

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops sweeping around Saigon captured a cache of 56 Soviet and Red Chinese rockets in a bamboo thicket Wednesday after a skirmish with the Viet Cong.

The weapons obviously had been hidden for new rocket attacks on Saigon, which the enemy command repeatedly has asserted will come soon.

U.S. 1st Infantry Division troops were beating along the Rach Dia River when they came upon a Viet Cong force of unknown size six miles southeast of Saigon.

Light Skirmish

The following skirmish did not amount to much. There were no American casualties and the only confirmed Viet Cong casualty was one soldier wounded and captured.

Pressing on a little farther, however, the infantry came upon a real find in a clump of bamboo and reeds—43 Red Chinese 107mm rockets and 13 Soviet-made 122mms, the types that battered Saigon through most of May and June.

Also found were a Soviet aiming device and two crude wooden bipods, which the enemy had been using because regular rocket mounts are too heavy for easy transport.

Saigon has not been hit by a rocket or a mortar shell since June 21, but with the threat of renewed attacks, U.S. and South Vietnamese troops have been reinforced around the capital and have launched sweeps looking for enemy units and weapons.

Fighting Scattered

U.S. headquarters said there were scattered fighting from the Mekong Delta northward to the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam.

In the heaviest single action, South Vietnamese troops beat off a North Vietnamese attack near the old imperial capital of Hue in nearly three hours of hard fighting. The U.S. Com-

Two Shots Fired At Sirhan's Kin

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Two bullets fired from a mystery car Wednesday narrowly missed the oldest brother of the man accused of killing Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, police reported.

Saidallah B. Sirhan, 36, unemployed screw machine operator, told officers that two cars trailed him for miles along a freeway then, about 4:30 a.m., pulled alongside and from one came gunfire. Then they sped away.

Sirhan, unhurt, drove to police headquarters and made a report.

Sirhan's brother, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, 24, is in Los Angeles County Jail awaiting trial on a charge he murdered Kennedy.

The Sirhan family immigrated from Jordan and has lived here since 1957. The mother and two other brothers, Munir and Adel, share a house that is guarded by police. Saidallah lives alone. Police said they advised him to move into the guarded home.

Officers said Sirhan told this story:

—He drove to Los Angeles to talk to a writer for a weekly newspaper but was unable to make contact and was driving home along the Pasadena Freeway. Near Los Angeles' Chinatown, he noticed that a Volkswagen bus and a Chevrolet were trailing him.

—When they continued on his tail for some time, he moved into the center lane so they could pass. Instead, the bus pulled alongside on his right and the other car came up on his left.

—He saw a pistol poke out of the bus, which contained four men, and two shots were fired. Then the Chevrolet, with three men, and the bus quickly left the freeway.

Authorities say the Sirhan family—along with various others connected with the case—have received threats of harm. They declined to give details.

New York Girl Shot By Gunman

NEW YORK (AP) — A 20-year-old woman was shot to death in a Central Park restroom Wednesday, and her slayer then fought a wild gun duel with police until he was killed. Two officers and a bystander were wounded.

"He apparently was shooting at anyone in the vicinity, at anything that moved," said Asst. Chief Inspector Arthur L. Morgan, as the gunman's body lay in a pool of rainwater and blood atop the restroom building.

The gun battle terrified children in an adjoining playground, many of them from luxury apartments in the neighborhood of 85th Street and Fifth Avenue, three blocks north of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Mrs. John F. Kennedy lives on that corner, but she and her children were in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Protects Child

"There must have been 40 or 50 shots fired," said a man who witnessed the shooting from the roof of his apartment across from the park. Police used tear gas and bullet proof vests as they closed in on the gunman.

The crackle of gunfire, the whine of bullets in the heart of Manhattan, punctuated a national controversy over gun controls, which flared anew last month in the aftermath of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's assassination.

In Washington, President Johnson expressed horror and called anew for gun control laws "to protect the American people against insane and reckless murder by gunfire."

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, campaigning in Oregon for the Republican presidential nomination, said in a statement: "This shocking burst of violence by gunfire in the heart of our major city shouts its message to Congress. Give us sensible controls over guns."

New York City already has one of the nation's strictest hand gun registration laws, but it was not known whether the restroom killer had a permit for the .45 caliber revolver he used.

New Bomber Being Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy version of the controversial swing-wing F111 jet fighter - bomber has been all but junked by Congress in favor of a lighter, more maneuverable plane.

The House Armed Services Committee—approving a $21 billion defense procurement bill Tuesday—agreed to the Senate's cut of all current funds for the plane, the F111B. The full House is virtually certain to concur.

"Although the Air Force version of this plane (the F111A) appears to be satisfactory," said Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House committee, "it is obvious that the attempt at commonality between the Air Force and Navy versions has failed.

"We are now looking to a new lighter aircraft that will have the capability the Navy needs," Rivers said. "It is presently designated the VFX-1."

The chief complaint of Navy brass has been that the plane is too heavy for aircraft carrier use.

Former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara fought for the common basic plane, originally known as the TFX, over strong opposition from military officials. He said the common use could save $1 billion in development costs.

Lawrenceville Firemen Set Up Junior Division

The junior members will take basic training along with the firemen. Boys wishing to join may contact Chief George McDole.

Firemen also decided to improve the driveway in front of the station by installing either a brick or a slag surface. It was announced that bylaws will be distributed to all firemen and that they will be enforced. The bylaws contain rules for internal operations of the department.

Gary Carpenter was received as a new member on six months' probation. Buck McGaffic and Danny Wyke were proposed for membership. Ronnie Pugh, vice president, presided.

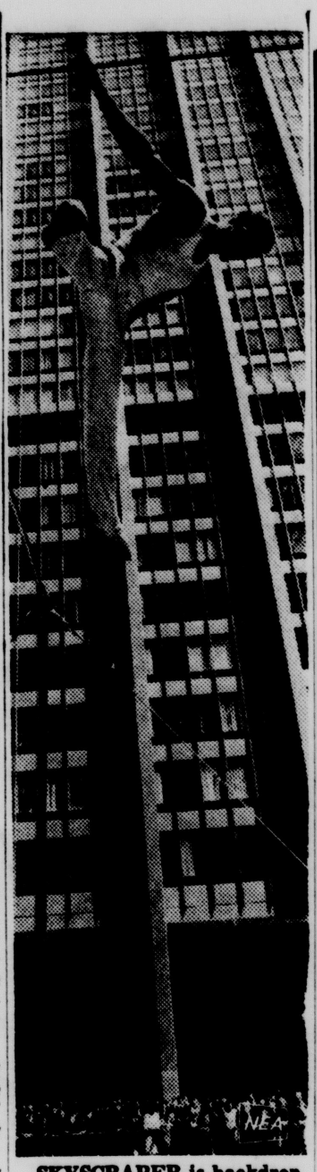

The next meetig will be Aug. 6.

Olympic Trials Set

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Olympic trials for white and nonwhite boxers are scheduled within a week of each other late in July. White selectors will grade white boxers and nonwhite judges will grade nonwhite fighters, officials said. A multiracial committee will then select the team to represent South Africa at Mexico City from the two lists.

Quite Some Change

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Veteran driver Paul Vineyard has driven horses to victory at Roosevelt Raceway that returned the highest and lowest payoffs in the history of the track. Highest payoff was $239.60 for $2 when Gilt Hanover won on July 2, 1941. Lowest payoff came on Sept. 5, 1944 when Singapore returned only $2.10 for $2.

SKYSCRAPER is backdrop for Mike Jacobson, assistant gymnastics coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, as he performs during a recent exhibition in New York's Chase Manhattan Plaza.

Officer Gets Reprimand

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police Dispatcher U. C. Menke was reprimanded Wednesday for "not pursuing" a telephone conversation that might have prevented the rape-stabbing of an 18-year-old encyclopedia sales girl, Police Chief R. M. Igleburger said.

Igleburger said Menke had taken a call from a woman who called police to say she saw the girl being led from a bus stop at about 10:30 p.m. the night before. The chief said Menke had a hard time understanding the woman.

Igleburger related, "the lady said the girl had left a suitcase and purse on a bench at the bus stop," and the dispatcher interpreted the report as one of abandoned property.

Miss Jones suffered stab wounds in the neck and chest and was reported in fair condition Wednesday in Miami Valley Hospital.

Man Charged In Fatal Shooting

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police held Henry M. Wooten, 41, Dayton, in jail Wednesday in the fatal shooting of Betty Helen Carver, 21, who was killed when she thrust her head out the window of her West Side home Sunday night.

Detective Sgt. William K. Mortimer said Wooten would be charged with first-degree manslaughter and the woman's husband, Sherman, who had been held for investigation, would be cleared of further police action.

Mortimer said detectives went with a search warrant to Wooten's home Tuesday after being informed he had a gun and "was near the Carver home that night."

Wooten was not at home, but he surrendered at police headquarters Wednesday morning. He gave police a .38 caliber pistol, the type of weapon used to kill Mrs. Carver.

City Workers OK Pay Plan, End Strike

FIRST 'FOURTH'. Lida Mae Hashman, daughter of Spec. 4 and Mrs. Edgar E. Hashman of W. 9th St., is literally wrapped in Old Glory as she celebrates her first birthday anniversary and the nation's 192nd today. Her father is serving with the 25th Infantry Division at Chu Chi, Vietnam.

BULLETIN!

Striking city employes, in an "almost unanimous" voice vote Wednesday night, voted to accept Council's latest wage proposal, and a back-to-work movement started almost immediately for those in critical jobs at the sewage treatment plant. Garbage and trash collections will resume on regular schedules Friday. The Ohio River downstream from the Newell Bridge will be safe again for recreational use after noon today, the Health Department said.

The end of a six - day walkout of municipal workers appeared near Wednesday night after Council made a new four-point proposal, topped with an offer of a general 5 per cent pay boost, and a district union representative replied that he would recommend acceptance by the 52 striking employes.

Council made the proposal through Solicitor J. Michael Kapp in a negotiating meeting with four representatives of Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes. The bargaining session ended at 8. The local then called a general meeting for 9 at City Hall to vote on the proposal.

JOHN KELLY of Youngstown, a district representative of Council 18 of the AFSCME, told Council he would recommend the local accept the offer, citing the possibility of still further gains in the future for the employes.

The biggest change in Council's offer made last night was that it was worded to grant the 5 per cent boost "across the board to all union employes, to the extent of available funds."

Previous offers also called for 5 per cent boosts, but specifically excluded the four "Meter Maids" and at least three clerical employes.

The union's membership is made up primarily of employes of the street, incinerator, sewage and water departments.

Council also offered the local:

2. — Time and a half pay for hourly - rated workers after 8 hours in any one day and the same premium pay for salaried employes after 40 hours in any week, if the overtime is worked at the direction of a department head.

3. — Any future wage increases to be granted only on the results of job evaluation studies.

4. — A job study of all departments to be made jointly by city and union representatives.

4. — The job study to be made in cities of a similar size and with a similar tax duplicate and not to include any rich suburban areas with excessively high real estate tax structures.

"THIS IS the final offer as far as Council is concerned," the union representatives were told by Councilman Floyd Murray. "Take it back to your people. This is the final offer."

The union also was represented by Lewis Campbell of Youngstown, another Council 18 spokesman, and James McKinnon, president, and Charles Masters, secretary, of Local 677.

All seven voting members of Council attended a caucus session in Mayor George E. Willshaw's office at 7 in which the details of the latest proposal were agreed upon. They were Councilmen Frank Duffy, Murray, Donal Burcham, John Wilson, Robert Sample, James Lowe and Edward Massey.

President Norman Bucher, Kapp and the mayor also were present. But the mayor did not attend the negotiating session, which was held in the Council caucus room. Lowe left the bargaining meeting before its conclusion, en route to a night shift at a mill.

Before Council spelled out its final offer, the union was asked to present a counter - proposition. Kelly said it would agree to settle for 5 per cent for all its members except the incinerator department workers. He said it was seeking a 7 per cent boost for the incinerator employes because of "greater inequities" in wages, compared with other Ohio cities.

THE UNION asked Kapp to explain the phrase "to the extent of available funds," that was tacked onto the offer of a 5 per cent boost. Kapp replied that the wage ordinance would call for a 5 per cent boost without reservations "but it means that if the city runs out of money in December there would have to be adjustments."

As the meeting concluded, Kelly said his recommendation of the union's acceptance would be based in part on the fact that "the job study will give us hope of eliminating further inequities."

THE CITY service employes' strike had its beginnings Thursday, June 27, when the incinerator department workers reported for duty, then went home a short time later, asserting they had been "ignored" the preceding night when Council granted $23-a-month raises to members of the police and fire departments.

The employes' local union held a special meeting that night and voted to act in sympathy with the incinerator workers. That spread the strike to the water, sewage and street departments, "Meter Maids," a

Pilot Injured In District Crash

A Chicago businessman was in "fair" condition Wednesday night at City Hospital with injuries suffered when his single - engine light plane crashed in a wooded area about two miles north of Wellsville in a landing attempt.

Steven Heineman of 1000 Lakeshore Dr. suffered a head injury and lacerations of the body in the crash about 3:45 p.m. off the runway of the Johnston Airport along Route 45.

Witnesses said Heineman was landing with a tailwind when the plane overshot the edge of the 1,575-foot north - east - southwest runway and partially floated into trees at a lower elevation, finally coming to a halt about 300 feet from the runway's edge.

Gene Johnston of 1305 Hillcrest Rd., owner of the small airfield, said, "The trees undoubtedly saved his life." Johnston said the trees cushioned the plane so as to soften the impact.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the plane came in from the northeast with a tailwind and the wheels actually only rolled some 100 yards on the runway before overshooting.

The 1968 Cessna "Cardinal" was a complete loss, the Patrol reported.

4 Land Parcels Hold Up Airport

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis says the four parcels comprising the site north of Glenmoor "have at least five encumbrances."

He and Vincent Laneve of East Liverpool, chairman of the County Airport Authority, met Monday at the Courthouse with an attorney and engineer from the Federal Aviation Agency.

ON WEDNESDAY, Bettis forwarded to the FAA certificates of title to the four properties, setting out the various liens — coal, oil and gas rights, right-of-way for electric and gas lines, a producing gas well and even a federal tax claim.

The prosecutor said he has no idea how demanding the FAA's legal section will be about clearing the encumbrances or how long it will take to work things out.

Meanwhile, Roland A. Getz, Inc., the Mansfield contractor who bid the work at $355,018 April 15 is still waiting for a call to begin. His bid includes $325,886 for the airfield and $29,131 for lighting.

Rom Mosure of Mosure & Fok, Youngstown consulting engineers retained to supervise construction, says Getz calls him every day. He has no other job to go to, Mosure said, because he left the summer open for the airport work—a three-month project.

MOSURE said the work would have to be readvertised for bids if Getz withdraws his proposal. The engineer said he has hopes the FAA will make a "grant offer" some time next week.

This will state the amount the government will put into the project. Once the county commissioners accept the offer and pledge the county to its share of construction costs, Mosure will be able to tell Getz to begin work. The Ohio Department

Richard King Appointed Director Of Kent Center

Richard Q. King, former head of the Mansfield Campus of Ohio State University, has been named director of Kent State University's Columbiana County Branch at East Liverpool.

He succeeds Jacob R. Urchek, who has been appointed the university's community relations director.

Both appointments are effective Aug. 1.

Named director of the Mansfield Campus in 1962, King played a major role in developing the new branch campus, second largest in Ohio. Largest is Kent's Stark County branch.

King, also appointed assistant professor of health and physical education, has been director of Ashland College's Mansfield extension program and director of adult education

U.S. Troops Locate Large Rocket Cache

Weapons Found In Bamboo Clump By First Infantry

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops sweeping around Saigon captured a cache of 56 Soviet and Red Chinese rockets in a bamboo thicket Wednesday after a skirmish with the Viet Cong.

The weapons obviously had been hidden for new rocket attacks on Saigon, which the enemy command repeatedly has asserted will come soon.

U.S. 1st Infantry Division troops were beating along the Rach Dia River when they came upon a Viet Cong force of unknown size six miles southeast of Saigon.

Light Skirmish

The following skirmish did not amount to much. There were no American casualties and the only confirmed Viet Cong casualty was one soldier wounded and captured.

Pressing on a little farther, however, the infantry came upon a real find in a clump of bamboo and reeds—43 Red Chinese 107mm rockets and 13 Soviet-made 122mms, the types that battered Saigon through most of May and June.

Also found were a Soviet aiming device and two crude wooden bipods, which the enemy had been using because regular rocket mounts are too heavy for easy transport.

Saigon has not been hit by a rocket or a mortar shell since June 21, but with the threat of renewed attacks, U.S. and South Vietnamese troops have been reinforced around the capital and have launched sweeps looking for enemy units and weapons.

Fighting Scattered

U.S. headquarters said there were scattered fighting from the Mekong Delta northward to the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam.

In the heaviest single action, South Vietnamese troops beat off a North Vietnamese attack near the old imperial capital of Hue in nearly three hours of hard fighting. The U.S. Com-

Two Shots Fired At Sirhan's Kin

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Two bullets fired from a mystery car Wednesday narrowly missed the oldest brother of the man accused of killing Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, police reported.

Saidallah B. Sirhan, 36, unemployed screw machine operator, told officers that two cars trailed him for miles along a freeway then, about 4:30 a.m., pulled alongside and from one came gunfire. Then they sped away.

Sirhan, unhurt, drove to police headquarters and made a report.

Sirhan's brother, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, 24, is in Los Angeles County Jail awaiting trial on a charge he murdered Kennedy.

The Sirhan family immigrated from Jordan and has lived here since 1957. The mother and two other brothers, Munir and Adel, share a house that is guarded by police. Saidallah lives alone. Police said they advised him to move into the guarded home.

Officers said Sirhan told this story:

—He drove to Los Angeles to talk to a writer for a weekly newspaper but was unable to make contact and was driving home along the Pasadena Freeway. Near Los Angeles' Chinatown, he noticed that a Volkswagen bus and a Chevrolet were trailing him.

—When they continued on his tail for some time, he moved into the center lane so they could pass. Instead, the bus pulled alongside on his right and the other car came up on his left.

—He saw a pistol poke out of the bus, which contained four men, and two shots were fired. Then the Chevrolet, with three men, and the bus quickly left the freeway.

Authorities say the Sirhan family—along with various others connected with the case—have received threats of harm. They declined to give details.

It's Glorious 'Fourth' On Many Fronts

By The Associated Press

Americans will celebrate the Fourth of July with pageantry harking back to their nation's youth, massive fireworks displays, speeches by politicians and coast to coast traffic jams.

Featured orator at a flag raising ceremony at the San Antonio, Tex., HemisFair will be President Johnson. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will be heard at the traditional Independence Hall ceremonies in Philadelphia.

At Gettysburg, Pa., Civil War buffs will don blue and gray uniforms for a re-enactment of one of the major battles in the War Between the States.

In the reconstructed colonial village of Williamsburg, Va., a unit in colonial militia costumes will fire a salute to the original 13 states from old-time muzzleloaders.

Re-enacting one of the American triumphs in the Revolutionary War, 16 men clad in buckskin toiled afoot across the southern tip of Illinois toward Kaskaskia, where on July 4, 1778, forces under George Rogers Clark captured Ft. Gage from the British. The marchers, members of the National Muzzle Loaders Association, started out

Wild Battle Follows

New York Girl Shot By Gunman

NEW YORK (AP) — A 20-year-old woman was shot to death in a Central Park restroom Wednesday, and her slayer then fought a wild gun duel with police until he was killed. Two officers and a bystander were wounded.

"He apparently was shooting at anyone in the vicinity, at anything that moved," said Asst. Chief Inspector Arthur L. Morgan, as the gunman's body lay in a pool of rainwater and blood atop the restroom building.

The gun battle terrified children in an adjoining playground, many of them from luxury apartments in the neighborhood of 85th Street and Fifth Avenue, three blocks north of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Mrs. John F. Kennedy lives on that corner, but she and her children were in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Protects Child

"There must have been 40 or 50 shots fired," said a man who witnessed the shooting from the roof of his apartment across from the park. Police used tear gas and bullet proof vests as they closed in on the gunman.

The crackle of gunfire, the whine of bullets in the heart of Manhattan, punctuated a national controversy over gun controls, which flared anew last month in the aftermath of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's assassination.

In Washington, President Johnson expressed horror and called anew for gun control laws "to protect the American people against insane and reckless murder by gunfire."

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, campaigning in Oregon for the Republican presidential nomination, said in a statement: "This shocking burst of violence by gunfire in the heart of our major city shouts its message to Congress. Give us sensible controls over guns."

New York City already has one of the nation's strictest hand gun registration laws, but it was not known whether the restroom killer had a permit for the .45 caliber revolver he used.

A Tradition Recalled

An early tradition of East Liverpool for observance of the Fourth of July was the reading of the Declaration of Independence, recalling the courage and united determination of the Colonial leaders to separate from the mother country.

One of the first recorded public events of this city was the "Independence Day" celebration of 1811 when William Larwell, an attorney, read the avowal of the creation of the new nation, its beliefs and the grievances which brought it to the radical break.

Despite the solemnity of the 1776 revolutionary proclamation, the awareness of the risk involved and the loss of life in the subsequent war, the "Fourth" has always been a gay and festive event, from the red-white-and-blue whisky - sparked blowouts of the 18th and early 19th Centuries, through the noisy daylong bombardments of later years, to the more casual outings of today.

The meaning of 1776 is no longer as close in time nor in simplicity of purpose to Americans of 1968 as it was when lawyer Larwell publicly read the Declaration, nor are the attitudes toward our nation's destiny quite so united nor seemingly deeply felt.

But our debts to those early times of bravery and sacrifice for individual rights and democratic ideals are not lessened, and our obligation to perpetuate them for the future generations is undiminished.

Perhaps not today — because of all the demands for hamburgers, potato chips and watermelons — but some time in the next week, it would be a good idea to look over that document which brought the nation into being, to recall again what it was Adams and Franklin and P. Henry decided to do "in the course of human events."

Rooting For Kosygin's Team

Whether or not there will be peace in the world hinges on many factors. One of these, of course, is the Soviet Union's policy toward the rest of the world and the free nations particularly.

There are indications, however, that there is a difference of opinion among top-level Russians as to what that policy should be.

IT SEEMS that Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, like Nikita Khrushchev before him, favors a policy of conducting serious diplomatic dialogue with the West while other members of the ruling Central Committee prefer to follow the Stalinist line of fostering world revolution.

Probably the most powerful proponent of the Stalinist philosophies among the Politburo members is Mikhail Suslov, whose name keeps popping up, linked to mysterious aggressive activities.

Although they are not certain, some observers in Moscow believe an article which appeared this week in the official paper of the Central Committee was authored by Suslov, the party's ideologist. The article appeared to be a direct rebuttal of arguments made earlier in a speech by Premier Kosygin.

The premier stressed that agreements have been made and can be made among countries with different social systems. He pointed specifically to the nuclear nonproliferation treaty.

THE ARTICLE believed to have originated with Suslov preached "world revolution" as the highest Soviet aim and extolled the world revolutionary forces of the "international proletariat."

In the battle between the opposing forces within the Russian hierarchy, it would seem the West clearly must support Premier Kosygin and so conduct itself as to strengthen his arguments with the Suslov Stalinists.

The Che Guevara Papers

The papers and a diary of the revolutionist's activities clearly reveal that the guerrilla movement was under the close personal supervision of Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba.

A number of the world's publishing houses have been trying for some time to make arrangements with the Bolivian government for publication of the blue notebook and other papers found in Guevara's knapsack when he was captured.

NOW THE CUBAN government without disclosing how it was obtained, says it will publish a copy of the diary. Ramparts magazine has obtained the U.S. publication rights from Premier Castro's official government publishing house.

Indications are that the Cuban copy is authentic although not authorized. Apparently the Cubans wanted Guevara's story published by people sympathetic to their cause and hurried to get it into print before other publishers reached an agreement with the Bolivian officials.

The Guevara story is a long one which reads like a modern TV spy story. But the major point is the clear and unmistakable revelation of the man behind the attempt to communize all of South and Central America, and create another Vietnam with the United States again the battlefield enemy.

Americans who profess to see no Communist threat to the United States would do well to read Che Guevara's messages to Castro — less they, too, miscalculate.

Underwater Cops And Robbers

Not much was said about the disappearance of the nuclear attack submarine Scorpion, possibly for a good reason.

From bits of information now being pieced together, it appears the sub may have been on a secret assignment which involved two Russian hunter-killer submarines.

IT HAS BEEN REPORTED that the two Soviet subs were tracking a deep-running Polaris submarine en route to take up a station in the Mediterranean from which its nuclear missiles could strike targets deep within Russia in the event of war.

The Scorpion apparently was assigned the task of breaking up this surveillance by the Russian subs by coming between the Polaris submarine and its pursuers, and deflecting sonar and radar signals.

According to the skipper of the Polaris submarine, the Scorpion succeeded. But there is much speculation now among Navy submarine officers that the Scorpion was then destroyed by one of the Russian hunter-killers.

U.S. intelligence indicates that Russian submarines, operating from a newly built naval base in Cuba, are maintaining a full-time patrol of both coasts of the United States and in the Gulf of Mexico. They also are known to ferry espionage agents from Cuba to U.S. shores.

THE OCEANS of the world are vast, but if this secret game of underwater "cops and robbers" continues to expand, we can look for more submarines to disappear mysteriously with their crews.

It is small consolation but now perhaps we, at least, will have a better understanding of what is happening and the reason for the deaths of our valiant seamen.

Smoke Gets In Your Eyes

Students Of '76

By Art Buchwald

PARIS — Ambassador and Mrs. Sargent Shriver are holding a July 4th party for 1,000 French students between the ages of 8 and 17. They asked me, as a personal favor, if I would explain the American Fourth of July in terms the French students would understand. So I'm going to try.

Art Buchwald

On July 4, 1776, a group of American students decided to overthrow the decadent colonial system of the bourgeois British. Called the "Enragees of '76," the students had been furious for some time at the British educational system, the rules concerning dormitory hours for coeds and the insistence of the Establishment that only British tea be served in student cafeterias.

THE YEAR BEFORE, a bunch of "Enragees" had taken the law into their own hands and, dressed as Indians, they had boarded a ship in Boston and dumped all the tea into the harbor. This infuriated the tea merchants, who accused the Boston colonial police of being too permissive for not immediately shooting the looters and restoring law and order at the harbor.

The British, reacting strongly to criticism, decided to put the students in their place at Lexington and Concord. But the students were tipped off by a student anarchist named Paul Revere who rode through the New England towns on a horse warning the people that the flicks were coming.

When the British gendarmes heard about it they trumped up charges against Revere for stealing a horse, but he escaped and became a hero of the revolution.

In the meantime, the students had set up barricades at Bunker Hill and occupied the administration building and the library. The British flicks, dubbed, "Red Coats," attacked Bunker Hill and, after much brutality, drove the "Enragees", out.

This act of stupidity on the part of the police turned the working class of the Colonies against the Establishment, and they sent a petition to King George III demanding that he resign.

GEORGE III REFUSED, saying if he went there would be no one to take his place and there would be chaos and disorder in the land.

When word was received that George III wouldn't give in on any of the "Enragees'" demands, though he did promise to appoint a commission to study the violence at Bunker Hill, the Committee of Revolutionists was formed with the express purpose of breaking off from the empire.

They met in the Student Union at Philadelphia. One of the leaders there, Thomas Jefferson, known as White Tom because the hair in his wig was all white, drafted a Declaration of Independence which was printed in the underground press of the time.

This made the British government officials so mad they called up the National Guard and vowed to wipe out the treasonous elements in the Colonies.

BUT BY THIS TIME the revolution had spead to all parts of the country and, under the leadership of a wide-eyed revolutionary named George Washington, the Americans defeated the British and threw them out of the country.

And so every July 4th the Americans celebrate the anniversary of the student revolution which changed the history of the world. The British don't talk about it, although Gen. Cornwallis, who commanded the "Red Coats," did say, when he got back to England after the war, "It would have never happened if they had invented tear gas in time."

Letter To The Editor

Thoughts On The '4th'

Remember how much fun the Fourth of July used to be? The air full with happy sounds the night before the big day, shouting and explosions, firecrackers and campfires, "Glory, Glory Halleluja" mixed with folk and pop tunes.

In the morning the wind blows only for the flags which wave proudly and happily wherever we turn. We celebrate everywhere in the country; beside the sea, on the hilltops and in the valleys; on the beaches and in the woods; in the back yards and picnic areas; in the cities and villages. Regardless of age, color, or different circles of society, the nation celebrates coast to coast its freedom and independence.

But do we have nerve enough to face the fact that most of the people do not know what happened in the year of 1776?

Who remembers the ones who fled from their native country in search of freedom and independence here, and how they almost lost the precious priviledge again? Who recalls how our ancestors worshipped, worked and worried, cried, fought and died for human rights? Few among us are truly thankful when we sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," few celebrate with the same depth of feeling which stirred the colonists when they rang the Liberty Bell.

The facts of the history with their treasured meanings grow older year by year. With the increased distance in time between past and present, the feeling and the importance is lost when we do not preserve the memories of our glorious past. This is what happened around and about us. Really the masses of people do not realize that our bountiful present is based on the sacrifice of the past.

Today another "4th of July" steps down to us from the future to the present, our newest "Independence Day" to be celebrated. We are trying to do it, but without real success. The veils of mourning are floating in the air. Where are the flags? Many of them have been burned, young America burned them with their draft cards.

Where are the people to celebrate the national holiday? A part of them are not interested. They are too busy surfing, motorbiking, watching the "happenings" or gulping pills. With burning eyes the other part of the nation is standing before the newly closed graves, thinking of the missing sons, fathers and husbands who had been killed while serving at home or on the battlefield.

"Glory, Glory Halleluja", rings the beloved song just as always on Independence Day, but now "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" does not bring the proud happiness and thanksgiving. This song has become a witness to the most recent tragedy of the nation. The young martyr was the third chosen one to be killed, the third who dedicated to the nation his life with all his talents, abundance and virtues. He witnessed his belief by his death, as if to put the seal of truth upon his beloved song.

On this Independence Day we still should celebrate. We should give thanks to the Lord for the three martyrs, for the three great Sons of the nation who worked in their different way for human rights and rightousness inspired by the laws of the Bible.

Our thanksgiving shall sound because we are able to call our own these devoted men, and to claim their lives as bright leading stars to follow. These three great martyrs of the United States and thousands of others just as bright stars who are victims of the war will give us the hope that here will come again the time to sing with pride and happiness "Glory, Glory Halleluja."

We must pray as a part of our solemn celebration to be better Americans. Let us walk hand in hand in Christian Truth creating a chain of love, law and rightousness, which is the only real assurance of Freedom.

Court Vacancies

Surprising as it may seem to many people, there is actually no "vacancy" today in the office of chief justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Nor is there any "vacancy" in the office of associate justice for which Judge Homer Thornberry of Texas has been slated.

These strange paradoxes reveal the need for a clarification of the present law. When Chief Justice Earl Warren recently wrote to President Johnson, he did not actually resign from the Supreme Court. What he did write was this statement: "I hereby advise you of my intention to retire as chief justice of the United States effeclive at your pleasure."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, in his reply, used similar language which also makes clear that there is no "vacancy" today in the office of chief justice. Mr. Johnson wrote to Mr. Warren as follows:

"In deference to your wishes, I will seek a replacement to fill the vacancy in the office of chief justice that will be occasioned when you depart. With your agreement, I will accept your decision to retire effective at such time as a successor is qualified."

The Supreme Court cannot, by statute, consist of any more than nine justices. If one justice announces that he "intends" to retire this is not a termination of his service. He actually must specify a date for his retirement so that a successor will than be able to take office.

What has happened thus far is that Chief Justice Warren has merely announced his "intention" to retire. President Johnson, in stating that Mr. Warren will "retire" at a time when "a successr is qualified," is, in effect, affirming that there is today no vacancy in the office of chief justice.

The position which Abe Fortas now occupies as associate justice is also not vacant. The Senate cannot act, therefore, on the nomination of Judge Thornberry as his successor until an actual vacancy has been created through the withdrawal of Mr. Fortas from his present post.

The present retirement law for judges is full of weaknesses. It gives the President of the United States a tremendous power. For the device of retirement can be utilized "at the pleasure of the President," and it permits him to dangle nominations before Congress.

If the Senate, for instance, doesn't currently confirm the nominees for the prospective vacancies, the President can acquiesce in Mr. Warren's stay in office indefinitely and thus can assure a continuance of a particular kind of judicial philosophy. Chief Justice Warren will not be relieved of his duties until the senate has actually confirmed a successor.

Another prevalent misconception is that a chief justice or an associate justice really severs all connection with the judicial system upon retirement. An existing statute, however, provides that the chief justice, after stepping down from the Supreme Court, may be asked at any time to serve as a judge in the U.S. Court of Appeals or in the Court of Claims. He cannot, however, be called upon to sit on the Supreme Court.

Even though a new chief justice takes office, Mr. Warren continues to be paid the same salary he received while serving on the Supreme Court. This compensation continues during the remainder of a justice's lifetime.

THE PROCEDURES prescribed by present law can have a far-reaching significance. Thus, there are many members of the Senate who do not wish to confirm Associate Justice Fortas for the post of chief justice, and they may delay action by filibustering.

Also, it is difficult to see how there can be actual "vacancies" while both Chief Justice Warren and Associate Justice fortas continue to serve in their present posts.

The spirit of protest among Senators of both parties is growing. An example is the statement by Senator Robert P. Griffin, Republican of Michigan, who summed up the attitude of the opposition as follows:

"Positions on the Supreme Court of the United States cannot be regarded as ordinary political plums. Such deviations as may have been condoned in the past cannot serve as a guide for the present or the future. . . .

"The maneuvering to deny the people and the next president their choice in this instance is wrong in principle—and everybody knows it."

Through The Years

Mrs. Alva Foulks and daughter Eileen, Miss Helen Bibbee, Miss Mildred Bashaw, Miss Hazel Wood and Mrs. Edith Hilditch left for a motor trip to Boston.

Lisbon Area News

Mrs. Esther DeTemple 424-5965

LISBON — Ray Meehan was installed as councilor for the term until Jan. 1 when the Junior Order of United American Mechanics met Tuesday night at the Legion Hall.

Others installed were Thirl Flugan, vice councilor; Joe Wainwright, conductor; Monroe Freshly, warden; Luther Parks, outside sential; Roy James, inside sentinal, and Charles Cannon, trustee.

Hoyte Sexton, outgoing councilor, opened the meeting and John Eaholtz, a past councilor and a former deputy, was the installing officer.

Ray Meehans' group won the card tournament, which followed the business session.

Lunch was served by Tom Smith.

The next meeting will be Tuesday.

Coin Club Meets

The Lisbon Coin Club met Tuesday night at Democratic headquarters. Among the guests was Mrs. Christine Smith of California, who is visiting her family here.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Janet Douglass, Mrs. Linnie Penny, Frank Carnes, Fred Brenneman, Ely Conkle, Neal Barnes, Christine Smith, Greg Weinstock and Tony Gallo.

Brenneman served as auctioneer and Gallo was in charge of the lunch.

The next meeting will be Aug. 6.

Entertains At Luncheon

Mrs. Leslie Hanson, the former Mary Albright, of Canton entertained Lisbon school Tuesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Hotel Wick.

Present were Mrs. Leland Firestone, Mrs. Aubrey Blocksom, Mrs. Russell Hendricks, Mrs. Glen Hephner, Mrs. Lynn Riddle, Mrs. Seward Harris and Mrs. L. S. Bye, of Ft. Myers, Fla., who is visiting relatives in the area.

Holds Coverdish Dinner

The May Pritchard Group of the First Christian Church held a 6:30 coverdish dinner Tuesday.

The table featured rose place mats and bowls of roses.

Mrs. Naomi Mattix presided.

It was voted that in the future regular meetings will begin at 7:30 rather than 8 in the past.

Mrs. Roy Welsh, in charge of the worship service, used the theme "No Hands But Ours." Group singing of a hymn followed.

Mrs. Sara Morgan and Mrs. Richard Mason will be hostesses for the Aug. 6 meeting.

Pilot Claims MIGs Fired Shots At Jet

TOKYO (AP) — Held by the Russians for 55 hours after their airliner was forced down, 214 U.S. servicemen flew on to Vietnam Wednesday after a stopover in Japan.

The airliner's pilot said a Soviet MIG fired a warning burst to force their plane to land at Iturup Island in the Kurile chain north of Japan. But the servicemen and the 17-member crew of the airliner reported they were not mistreated.

When they ran out of food, the Russians brought them bread, butter and cheese. The American servicemen exchanged cigarettes and lighters with their Russian guards.

"We were not mistreated in any way," said the pilot, Capt. Joseph Tosolini of Bethany, Conn.

Tosolini denied that the plane violated Russian air space when it was forced down Monday on Iturup Island.

But he said to secure release of his passengers and the plane he signed a letter saying the plane was over Soviet territory when it was intercepted.

"I felt it was my duty to sign," he told a news conference at Yokota, 30 miles west of Tokyo, where the plane landed. "If you gentlemen had been through what I've been through for three days, I think you'd have done the same."

In Washington, a Federal Aviation Administration spokesman said in reply to a question: "We have reliable information, including radar data, that there was a violation of Soviet air space."

Food For Funds

EAST ORCHARD MESA, Colo. (AP) — Residents of this western Colorado community recently held their 41st annual ham dinner, an event held each year on a Sunday in the peach blossom season. Proceeds from the dinners have long since paid for the community building and extra equipment. New funds will be invested in added improvements.

4 Youths Report On 'Boys State'

Attending were Thomas Chambers, James Musuraca and Thomas Gooding of East Liverpool High School and Michael Lord of Beaver Local.

Paul Gill, baseball team manager, said the record to date is nine victories and one defeat.

Lunch was served by the kitchen committee to 40.

For Fiscal Year

Ohio Finance Head Says New Taxes Unnecessary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Howard L. Collier, Ohio's new finance director, said Wednesday the state can operate without new taxes and show a $3 million surplus at the end of the fiscal year next June 30.

He said the state started the new bookkeeping year Monday with an $8.6 million surplus but explained that higher welfare costs will leave a smaller balance at the end of the biennium.

Collier, who joined Gov. James A. Rhodes' cabinet after Richard L. Krabach became Cincinnati city manager, told newsmen the state expected to have income of $1.225 billion during the year and spend $1.222 billion.

"As of today we don't need an additional tax," he asserted. "We don't need anything to continue or augment programs we have. They are sufficient to meet the state's needs."

He reiterated the administration's stand against a statewide income tax as destructive to "the saleable economic climate everyone has worked to build."

"This could be a program that will take a real look at new or different financing," Collier said. "It is one that we are going to to find answers to. I'm going to be working on it most of the summer."

He said welfare costs were mounting, including Aid for Dependent Children (ADC), because federal contributions have been frozen, increasing the state load about $200,000 a month. He estimated cost of the ADC program at $122 million this fiscal year.

Thes tate has had the best management in its history, Collier asserted, but added: "We have got to improve."

Ohio's Supreme Court OK's Intoxication Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Results of tests for intoxication, including use of a Breathalyzer, can be used as evidence in court even though obtained before a motorist is advised of his constitutional rights, the Ohio Supreme Court held Wednesday.

The unanimous decision upheld the 1967 conviction of Earl R. Hinger in Piqua Municipal Court on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $250 and sentenced to three days in Miami County Jail.

An appellate court reversed but the Supreme Court, in turn, reversed and affirmed the trial court.

Arresting officers questioned Hinger in the Piqua police station and gave him a Breathalyzer and other tests which he took voluntarily. The tests included writing his name and address, picking up coins from the floor and touching his hand to his nose.

Motion pictures were made of the tests and the film was introduced as evidence over objections of defense counsel.

The Supreme Court said the only question presented on the record was whether evidence of the tests, made before Hinger was advised of his constitutional rights, were constitutionally admissible.

The high court said the tests and films "are real and physical evidence and not such communication or testimony of an accused as is protected by the constitutional privilege against self-incrimnnation."

In other decisions, the Supreme Court held that :

Donald King and five other Toledo school teachers holding annual contracts were not entitled to pay for military service between 1951-59 although a 1960 law "might well be construed to require salary credits for prior military service."

New Bomber Being Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy version of the controversial swing-wing F111 jet fighter - bomber has been all but junked by Congress in favor of a lighter, more maneuverable plane.

The House Armed Services Committee—approving a $21 billion defense procurement bill Tuesday—agreed to the Senate's cut of all current funds for the plane, the F111B. The full House is virtually certain to concur.

"Although the Air Force version of this plane (the F111A) appears to be satisfactory," said Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House committee, "it is obvious that the attempt at commonality between the Air Force and Navy versions has failed.

"We are now looking to a new lighter aircraft that will have the capability the Navy needs," Rivers said. "It is presently designated the VFX-1."

The chief complaint of Navy brass has been that the plane is too heavy for aircraft carrier use.

Former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara fought for the common basic plane, originally known as the TFX, over strong opposition from military officials. He said the common use could save $1 billion in development costs.

Lawrenceville Firemen Set Up Junior Division

The junior members will take basic training along with the firemen. Boys wishing to join may contact Chief George McDole.

Firemen also decided to improve the driveway in front of the station by installing either a brick or a slag surface. It was announced that bylaws will be distributed to all firemen and that they will be enforced. The bylaws contain rules for internal operations of the department.

Gary Carpenter was received as a new member on six months' probation. Buck McGaffic and Danny Wyke were proposed for membership. Ronnie Pugh, vice president, presided.

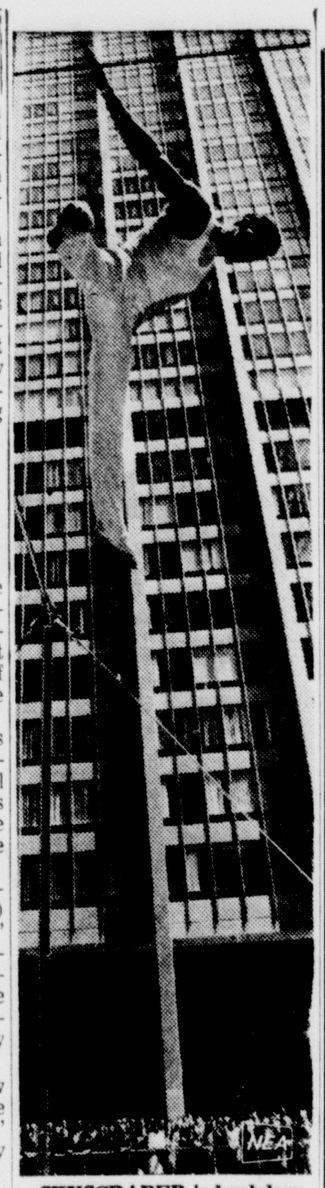

The next meetig will be Aug. 6.

Olympic Trials Set

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Olympic trials for white and nonwhite boxers are scheduled within a week of each other late in July. White selectors will grade white boxers and nonwhite judges will grade nonwhite fighters, officials said. A multiracial committee will then select the team to represent South Africa at Mexico City from the two lists.

Quite Some Change

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Veteran driver Paul Vineyard has driven horses to victory at Roosevelt Raceway that returned the highest and lowest payoffs in the history of the track. Highest payoff was $239.60 for $2 when Gilt Hanover won on July 2, 1941. Lowest payoff came on Sept. 5, 1944 when Singapore returned only $2.10 for $2.

Officer Gets Reprimand

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police Dispatcher U. C. Menke was reprimanded Wednesday for "not pursuing" a telephone conversation that might have prevented the rape-stabbing of an 18-year-old encyclopedia sales girl, Police Chief R. M. Igleburger said.

Igleburger said Menke had taken a call from a woman who called police to say she saw the girl being led from a bus stop at about 10:30 p.m. the night before. The chief said Menke had a hard time understanding the woman.

Igleburger related, "the lady said the girl had left a suitcase and purse on a bench at the bus stop," and the dispatcher interpreted the report as one of abandoned property.

Miss Jones suffered stab wounds in the neck and chest and was reported in fair condition Wednesday in Miami Valley Hospital.

Man Charged In Fatal Shooting

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police held Henry M. Wooten, 41, Dayton, in jail Wednesday in the fatal shooting of Betty Helen Carver, 21, who was killed when she thrust her head out the window of her West Side home Sunday night.

Detective Sgt. William K. Mortimer said Wooten would be charged with first-degree manslaughter and the woman's husband, Sherman, who had been held for investigation, would be cleared of further police action.

Mortimer said detectives went with a search warrant to Wooten's home Tuesday after being informed he had a gun and "was near the Carver home that night."

Wooten was not at home, but he surrendered at police headquarters Wednesday morning. He gave police a .38 caliber pistol, the type of weapon used to kill Mrs. Carver.

Visits HemisFair

Johnson Spends Holiday With Foreign Diplomats

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson came home to Texas Wednesday, bringing two score foreign diplomats for a gala Fourth of July, "a fiesta all over the place," and a sortie to El Salvador to focus on Central American economic problems.

The President sent his own jet on ahead with part of a big party of visitors from Washington and took ambassadors and their wives on a similar plane.

The main idea was to visit HemisFair, the $176-million international exposition here in a city that blends its history and cultures of the United States and the Latin nations to the South.

It was a brilliant summer day, with a strong breeze tempering the heat, and fleecy clouds drifting across the sky above Randolph Air Force Base where the first ceremony was staged.

About 5,000 whoop-it-up Texans turned out with signs of welcome, bands, flags and some official welcoming speeches, including one in which Gov. John B. Connally of Texas predicted there would be that fiesta all over the place.

Johnson stood on a platform just off the airfield apron, Mrs. Johnson by his side, and said, "I am pleased that these distinguished visitors from our neighbor nations have been able to travel down here with me, to take advantage of their invitation from HemisFair and Gov. Connally to spend an old-fashioned Fourth of July with us.

"Their presence symbolizes a confluence of civilization — the gathering together of the talents and dreams of many nations. That, of course, is the theme of HemisFair—but not of HemisFair alone. It is the living and eternal theme of the United States, a nation made great by an infusion and mingling of all the world's cultures."

The White House listed 22 ambassadors making the trip down from Washington, 13 of them from Latin American countries, and nine from other nations with exhibits at HemisFair.

There also were 14 Latin diplomats accredited to the Organization of American States, three deputy ambassadors, and various U.S. officials.

Connally invited all of them to his ranch near Floresville, 35 miles from the airport, for an informal dinner. Johnson assured everyone that he and the First Lady would join them later on after flying to their own ranch.

Thursday is given over to taking in the fair, in the heart of the city. There will be flag raising ceremonies in the morning, lunch, visits to various exhibits, a black-tie dinner-dance in the evening at the U.S. pavilion.

The ambassadors will be leaving Friday and Johnson will switch to entertaining President Rene Barrientos of Bolivia at the LBJ Ranch.

Johnson will be on the go himself Saturday, to San Salvador, capital of El Salvador, to try to lend encouragement to the five member nations of the Central American Common Market whose presidents will be on hand.

ON TARGET, soldiers demostrate Army's new light vision weapon devices which amplify dim moonlight, starlight or faint skyglow, but are impossible to detect while operating. The electronic sights, which magnify light 40,000 times, reportedly have taken the edge off Viet Cong advantages in night fighting.

Kiwanians At Lisbon Plan For Barbecue

LISBON — Kiwanians met Wednesday noon at the Masonic Temple and announced plans for their annual chicken barbecue from 11 a. m. to 7 p.m. July 17 at Willow Grove Park.

This is the club's biggest fund-raising project and is headed this year by Robert MacAleese and the finance committee.

MacAleese was program chairman for Wednesday's luncheon meeting. Don Morris, former Lisbon Kiwanian, screened a film on auto racing.

The warders of the British Yeomen of the Guard, or "Beefeaters," are chosen from retired army sergeants and warrant officers with distinguished records and, as a consequence, each of them wears a long row of medals.

City Hospital Treats 12 In Emergencies

A New Cumberland area girl hurt in a fall from a bicycle Wednesday was treated at City Hospital along with 11 others.

Jeff Mort, son of Adam Mort of East Liverpool RD 1, a slight powder burn of the left thumb when a pistol discharged as he picked it up; William Moon of 836 Phoenix Ave., Chester, an employe of Globe Refractories, a laceration of the scalp on steel.

Jerry Shepler, son of William Shepler of 424 Church Rd., Canton, a contusion of the wrist while water skiing; Kendall Roberts, son of Eugene Roberts of 801 W. 9th St., a laceration of the forehead on a pumphandle.

Johnson Wants Money To Hike Capital Police

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson called on Congress Wednesday for $11.5 million to provide increased police protection for the nation's capital and to give the district's City Council the power to enact stronger gun control laws.

The President declared the nation can rightfully expect Congress to "make Washington a showcase of safety and security for all of the people."

Crime has been increasing sharply in the District of Columbia. Johnson proposes to raise the number of policemen from 3,100 to 4,100.

The President sent letters to the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House today declaring that: "the need for strong gun control laws in the nation's capital is imperative and it is urgent."

To Train Officers

Administration Pushing For Federal Law Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is pushing plans to establish a single academy to train all federal law enforcement officials, except FBI agents, it was learned Wednesday.

The school, tentatively called the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, would be located on a 61-acre tract at Beltsville, Md., a suburb northeast of Washington. It would be on land which has been used by the sprawling Agriculture Department's experimental center.

There are about 14,000 civilian law enforcement officials—not counting about 6,600 FBI agents. The new academy would be designed to handle 1,400 trainees a year.

One official said that although it has not been determined how much it would cost to set up the school it would be "in the tens of millions," subject to congressional approval.

It is understood that the administration would be in a position to have plans ready some time this autumn which would at least enable preliminary activity to set up the school. The new facility would not be ready, however, for about three years.

In addition to handling recruits for federal law enforcement agencies the academy would operate refresher courses for present employes. Initial recruit training would consist of a three or four month course for all trainees after which individual agencies would give their own recruits specialized courses. courses.

The FBI was invited to participate but declined.

The bureau already maintains its own school at Quantico, Va., and trains not only its agents, but also operates a program for local police officers.

The agencies that would be included in the academy are those whose officers have power to arrest and carry firearms. They include:

—Treasury Department: Internal Revenue Service, Secret Service, Customs Bureau.

—Post Office Department: Postal Inspectors.

—State Department: Security officers.

Senior Citizens Plan For Picnic

Plans for a basket picnic were made during the meeting of the Senior Citizens at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

It will be held during the meeting of the Tri-State County group Wednesday in Salem City Park.

The local group will hold a picnic July 18 at Thompson Park. The bus will depart at 3 p.m. from the terminal.

Margaret Byers received the corsage.

There were 130 present.

Women were barred from the first Olympic games in ancient Greece, not only as participants but also as spectators, because the athletes competed in the nude, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

A Tradition Recalled

An early tradition of East Liverpool for observance of the Fourth of July was the reading of the Declaration of Independence, recalling the courage and united determination of the Colonial leaders to separate from the mother country.

One of the first recorded public events of this city was the "Independence Day" celebration of 1811 when William Larwell, an attorney, read the avowal of the creation of the new nation, its beliefs and the grievances which brought it to the radical break.

Despite the solemnity of the 1776 revolutionary proclamation, the awareness of the risk involved and the loss of life in the subsequent war, the "Fourth" has always been a gay and festive event, from the red-white-and-blue whisky - sparked blowouts of the 18th and early 19th Centuries, through the noisy daylong bombardments of later years, to the more casual outings of today.

The meaning of 1776 is no longer as close in time nor in simplicity of purpose to Americans of 1968 as it was when lawyer Larwell publicly read the Declaration, nor are the attitudes toward our nation's destiny quite so united nor seemingly deeply felt.

But our debts to those early times of bravery and sacrifice for individual rights and democratic ideals are not lessened, and our obligation to perpetuate them for the future generations is undiminished.

Perhaps not today — because of all the demands for hamburgers, potato chips and watermelons — but some time in the next week, it would be a good idea to look over that document which brought the nation into being, to recall again what it was Adams and Franklin and P. Henry decided to do "in the course of human events."

Rooting For Kosygin's Team

Whether or not there will be peace in the world hinges on many factors. One of these, of course, is the Soviet Union's policy toward the rest of the world and the free nations particularly.

There are indications, however, that there is a difference of opinion among top-level Russians as to what that policy should be.

IT SEEMS that Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, like Nikita Khrushchev before him, favors a policy of conducting serious diplomatic dialogue with the West while other members of the ruling Central Committee prefer to follow the Stalinist line of fostering world revolution.

Probably the most powerful proponent of the Stalinist philosophies among the Politburo members is Mikhail Suslov, whose name keeps popping up, linked to mysterious aggressive activities.

Although they are not certain, some observers in Moscow believe an article which appeared this week in the official paper of the Central Committee was authored by Suslov, the party's ideologist. The article appeared to be a direct rebuttal of arguments made earlier in a speech by Premier Kosygin.

The premier stressed that agreements have been made and can be made among countries with different social systems. He pointed specifically to the nuclear nonproliferation treaty.

THE ARTICLE believed to have originated with Suslov preached "world revolution" as the highest Soviet aim and extolled the world revolutionary forces of the "international proletariat."

In the battle between the opposing forces within the Russian hierarchy, it would seem the West clearly must support Premier Kosygin and so conduct itself as to strengthen his arguments with the Suslov Stalinists.

The Che Guevara Papers

The secret papers kept by Ernesto Che Guevara during the guerrilla operations he directed in Bolivia are soon to be published.

The papers and a diary of the revolutionist's activities clearly reveal that the guerrilla movement was under the close personal supervision of Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba.

A number of the world's publishing houses have been trying for some time to make arrangements with the Bolivian government for publication of the blue notebook and other papers found in Guevara's knapsack when he was captured.

NOW THE CUBAN government without disclosing how it was obtained, says it will publish a copy of the diary. Ramparts magazine has obtained the U.S. publication rights from Premier Castro's official government publishing house.

Indications are that the Cuban copy is authentic although not authorized. Apparently the Cubans wanted Guevara's story published by people sympathetic to their cause and hurried to get it into print before other publishers reached an agreement with the Bolivian officials.

The Guevara story is a long one which reads like a modern TV spy story. But the major point is the clear and unmistakable revelation of the man behind the attempt to communize all of South and Central America, and create another Vietnam with the United States again the battlefield enemy.

Americans who profess to see no Communist threat to the United States would do well to read Che Guevara's messages to Castro — less they, too, miscalculate.

Underwater Cops And Robbers

Not much was said about the disappearance of the nuclear attack submarine Scorpion, possibly for a good reason.

From bits of information now being pieced together, it appears the sub may have been on a secret assignment which involved two Russian hunter-killer submarines.

IT HAS BEEN REPORTED that the two Soviet subs were tracking a deep-running Polaris submarine en route to take up a station in the Mediterranean from which its nuclear missiles could strike targets deep within Russia in the event of war.

The Scorpion apparently was assigned the task of breaking up this surveillance by the Russian subs by coming between the Polaris submarine and its pursuers, and deflecting sonar and radar signals.

According to the skipper of the Polaris submarine, the Scorpion succeeded. But there is much speculation now among Navy submarine officers that the Scorpion was then destroyed by one of the Russian hunter-killers.

U.S. intelligence indicates that Russian submarines, operating from a newly built naval base in Cuba, are maintaining a full-time patrol of both coasts of the United States and in the Gulf of Mexico. They also are known to ferry espionage agents from Cuba to U.S. shores.

THE OCEANS of the world are vast, but if this secret game of underwater "cops and robbers" continues to expand, we can look for more submarines to disappear mysteriously with their crews.

It is small consolation but now perhaps we, at least, will have a better understanding of what is happening and the reason for the deaths of our valiant seamen.

Smoke Gets In Your Eyes

Students Of '76

By Art Buchwald

PARIS — Ambassador and Mrs. Sargent Shriver are holding a July 4th party for 1,000 French students between the ages of 8 and 17. They asked me, as a personal favor, if I would explain the American Fourth of July in terms the French students would understand. So I'm going to try.

Art Buchwald

On July 4, 1776, a group of American students decided to overthrow the decadent colonial system of the bourgeois British. Called the "Enragees of '76," the students had been furious for some time at the British educational system, the rules concerning dormitory hours for coeds and the insistence of the Establishment that only British tea be served in student cafeterias.

THE YEAR BEFORE, a bunch of "Enragees" had taken the law into their own hands and, dressed as Indians, they had boarded a ship in Boston and dumped all the tea into the harbor. This infuriated the tea merchants, who accused the Boston colonial police of being too permissive for not immediately shooting the looters and restoring law and order at the harbor.

The British, reacting strongly to criticism, decided to put the students in their place at Lexington and Concord. But the students were tipped off by a student anarchist named Paul Revere who rode through the New England towns on a horse warning the people that the flicks were coming.

When the British gendarmes heard about it they trumped up charges against Revere for stealing a horse, but he escaped and became a hero of the revolution.

In the meantime, the students had set up barricades at Bunker Hill and occupied the administration building and the library. The British flicks, dubbed, "Red Coats," attacked Bunker Hill and, after much brutality, drove the "Enragees", out.

This act of stupidity on the part of the police turned the working class of the Colonies against the Establishment, and they sent a petition to King George III demanding that he resign.

GEORGE III REFUSED, saying if he went there would be no one to take his place and there would be chaos and disorder in the land.

When word was received that George III wouldn't give in on any of the "Enragees'" demands, though he did promise to appoint a commission to study the violence at Bunker Hill, the Committee of Revolutionists was formed with the express purpose of breaking off from the empire.

They met in the Student Union at Philadelphia. One of the leaders there, Thomas Jefferson, known as White Tom because the hair in his wig was all white, drafted a Declaration of Independence which was printed in the underground press of the time.

This made the British government officials so mad they called up the National Guard and vowed to wipe out the treasonous elements in the Colonies.

BUT BY THIS TIME the revolution had spead to all parts of the country and, under the leadership of a wide-eyed revolutionary named George Washington, the Americans defeated the British and threw them out of the country.

And so every July 4th the Americans celebrate the anniversary of the student revolution which changed the history of the world. The British don't talk about it, although Gen. Cornwallis, who commanded the "Red Coats," did say, when he got back to England after the war, "It would have never happened if they had invented tear gas in time."

Letter To The Editor

Thoughts On The '4th'

Remember how much fun the Fourth of July used to be? The air full with happy sounds the night before the big day, shouting and explosions, firecrackers and campfires, "Glory, Glory Halleluja" mixed with folk and pop tunes.

In the morning the wind blows only for the flags which wave proudly and happily wherever we turn. We celebrate everywhere in the country; beside the sea, on the hilltops and in the valleys; on the beaches and in the woods; in the back yards and picnic areas; in the cities and villages. Regardless of age, color, or different circles of society, the nation celebrates coast to coast its freedom and independence.

But do we have nerve enough to face the fact that most of the people do not know what happened in the year of 1776?

Who remembers the ones who fled from their native country in search of freedom and independence here, and how they almost lost the precious priviledge again? Who recalls how our ancestors worshipped, worked and worried, cried, fought and died for human rights? Few among us are truly thankful when we sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," few celebrate with the same depth of feeling which stirred the colonists when they rang the Liberty Bell.

The facts of the history with their treasured meanings grow older year by year. With the increased distance in time between past and present, the feeling and the importance is lost when we do not preserve the memories of our glorious past. This is what happened around and about us. Really the masses of people do not realize that our bountiful present is based on the sacrifice of the past.

Today another "4th of July" steps down to us from the future to the present, our newest "Independence Day" to be celebrated. We are trying to do it, but without real success. The veils of mourning are floating in the air. Where are the flags? Many of them have been burned, young America burned them with their draft cards.

Where are the people to celebrate the national holiday? A part of them are not interested. They are too busy surfing, motorbiking, watching the "happenings" or gulping pills. With burning eyes the other part of the nation is standing before the newly closed graves, thinking of the missing sons, fathers and husbands who had been killed while serving at home or on the battlefield.

"Glory, Glory Halleluja", rings the beloved song just as always on Independence Day, but now "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" does not bring the proud happiness and thanksgiving. This song has become a witness to the most recent tragedy of the nation. The young martyr was the third chosen one to be killed, the third who dedicated to the nation his life with all his talents, abundance and virtues. He witnessed his belief by his death, as if to put the seal of truth upon his beloved song.

On this Independence Day we still should celebrate. We should give thanks to the Lord for the three martyrs, for the three great Sons of the nation who worked in their different way for human rights and rightousness inspired by the laws of the Bible.

Our thanksgiving shall sound because we are able to call our own these devoted men, and to claim their lives as bright leading stars to follow. These three great martyrs of the United States and thousands of others just as bright stars who are victims of the war will give us the hope that here will come again the time to sing with pride and happiness "Glory, Glory Halleluja."

We must pray as a part of our solemn celebration to be better Americans. Let us walk hand in hand in Christian Truth creating a chain of love, law and rightousness, which is the only real assurance of Freedom.

Court Vacancies

Surprising as it may seem to many people, there is actually no "vacancy" today in the office of chief justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Nor is there any "vacancy" in the office of associate justice for which Judge Homer Thornberry of Texas has been slated.

These strange paradoxes reveal the need for a clarification of the present law. When Chief Justice Earl Warren recently wrote to President Johnson, he did not actually resign from the Supreme Court. What he did write was this statement: "I hereby advise you of my intention to retire as chief justice of the United States effeclive at your pleasure."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, in his reply, used similar language which also makes clear that there is no "vacancy" today in the office of chief justice. Mr. Johnson wrote to Mr. Warren as follows:

"In deference to your wishes, I will seek a replacement to fill the vacancy in the office of chief justice that will be occasioned when you depart. With your agreement, I will accept your decision to retire effective at such time as a successor is qualified."

The Supreme Court cannot, by statute, consist of any more than nine justices. If one justice announces that he "intends" to retire this is not a termination of his service. He actually must specify a date for his retirement so that a successor will than be able to take office.

What has happened thus far is that Chief Justice Warren has merely announced his "intention" to retire. President Johnson, in stating that Mr. Warren will "retire" at a time when "a successr is qualified," is, in effect, affirming that there is today no vacancy in the office of chief justice.

The position which Abe Fortas now occupies as associate justice is also not vacant. The Senate cannot act, therefore, on the nomination of Judge Thornberry as his successor until an actual vacancy has been created through the withdrawal of Mr. Fortas from his present post.

The present retirement law for judges is full of weaknesses. It gives the President of the United States a tremendous power. For the device of retirement can be utilized "at the pleasure of the President," and it permits him to dangle nominations before Congress.

If the Senate, for instance, doesn't currently confirm the nominees for the prospective vacancies, the President can acquiesce in Mr. Warren's stay in office indefinitely and thus can assure a continuance of a particular kind of judicial philosophy. Chief Justice Warren will not be relieved of his duties until the senate has actually confirmed a successor.

Another prevalent misconception is that a chief justice or an associate justice really severs all connection with the judicial system upon retirement. An existing statute, however, provides that the chief justice, after stepping down from the Supreme Court, may be asked at any time to serve as a judge in the U.S. Court of Appeals or in the Court of Claims. He cannot, however, be called upon to sit on the Supreme Court.

Even though a new chief justice takes office, Mr. Warren continues to be paid the same salary he received while serving on the Supreme Court. This compensation continues during the remainder of a justice's lifetime.

THE PROCEDURES prescribed by present law can have a far-reaching significance. Thus, there are many members of the Senate who do not wish to confirm Associate Justice Fortas for the post of chief justice, and they may delay action by filibustering.

Also, it is difficult to see how there can be actual "vacancies" while both Chief Justice Warren and Associate Justice fortas continue to serve in their present posts.

The spirit of protest among Senators of both parties is growing. An example is the statement by Senator Robert P. Griffin, Republican of Michigan, who summed up the attitude of the opposition as follows:

"Positions on the Supreme Court of the United States cannot be regarded as ordinary political plums. Such deviations as may have been condoned in the past cannot serve as a guide for the present or the future. . . .

"The maneuvering to deny the people and the next president their choice in this instance is wrong in principle—and everybody knows it."

Through The Years

Mrs. Alva Foulks and daughter Fileen, Miss Helen Bibbee, Miss Mildred Bashaw, Miss Hazel Wood and Mrs. Edith Hilditch left for a motor trip to Boston.

TEN YEARS AGO—Robert Lloyd was sworn in as assistant fire chief at Wellsville.

Two officers to fill unexpired terms were elected at a meeting of the Newcomers Club—Mrs. Charles Shriver, president, and Mrs. Wilbert Muir, vice president.

Union Accepts Pay Offer In City Workers' Strike

few clerical workers and some miscellaneous employes.

—:—

THE FIREMEN and police returned to work in full force Thursday morning. They had absented themselves from their jobs, starting on Sunday, June 23, to force Council action on their demands for pay increases.

The $23 boosts which Council granted June 26 represented 5 per cent additional for rank-and-file firemen and police, but a little less for the more highly paid officers of the two departments.

The firemen and police also obtained a promise that Council will negotiate "in good faith" on three additional semi-annual boosts of 5 per cent, the first by next Jan. 1.

Councilmen met in special sessions Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday morning to enact the pay boosts for the firemen and police, so that the ordinance would take effect Monday. At the same time, they were wrestling with the strike of the other employes.

LAST Saturday afternoon, Council offered 5 per cent raises to most of the Local 677 members, but the offer was rejected. The vote was 29-5. It would have meant $19.36 additional for instance, for a laborer, now paid $2.14 hourly.

Council submitted a modified offer to the employes at another meeting Monday night. There was a promise of a 5 per cent boost for most of the local's members, but department heads, clerical workers and "Meter Maids" were not included.

However, Council promised to cooperate in a job study with the union on the other posts and make adjustments of up to 5 per cent, if warranted, in the pay of the other jobs.

The local turned down the proposition 22-18. That terminated the negotiations, but there was an understanding that the two groups would meet again last night at 7.

Virtually nothing new marked the work stoppage in the daylight hours Wednesday. The union continued to picket City Hall and other municipal properties.

City officials issued a series of instructions yesterday on control of rats, flies and other pests around accumulating garbage and pointed out that householders may burn waste paper and cardboard without special permission if they use approved containers.

The city water department continued to function, with members of the local manning the filtration and pumping departments under an agreement with city officials. But raw sewage continued to flow into the Ohio River, as the treatment plant was not functioning.

The Health Department posted notices Tuesday along the riverfront warning that the water is "unsafe for recreation purposes," including swimming and water skiing.

Cookies Amuse Children

A new treat for the younger set is a crunchy sweet called a popcorn cookie. Big and round, like old-fashioned sugar cookies, these treats can be topped with shredded coconut, semisweet chocolate pieces or nuts.

They are so easy to make that children can help. There are just four ingredients—popcorn, caramels with orange juice for zest and marshmallows for body. While the caramels melt with the juice and marshmallows, the corn is popped in its own foil fry-pan. Then the popped corn and melted caramels are mixed together and shaped into cookies. It's as easy as that and lots of fun.

JIFFY POPCORN COOKIES

1 (5-oz.) package popcorn in foil fry-pan
1 lb. wrapped caramels, vanilla
2 tablespoons frozen orange juice concentrate
10 marshmallows

Pop corn. Grease large kettle and put in popcorn. Put caramels in saucepan with frozen orange juice concentrate and marshmallows. Place over boiling water until caramels are melted. Mix together. Cool.

Pour over popcorn and mix. Spoon onto aluminum foil and shape into 3-inch circles about one-half-inch thick. Makes 12. Decorate with shredded coconut, semisweet chocolate pieces or nuts.

This And That

The number of domesticated animals in the U. S. is now at least three times greater than the total human population — pets currently including more than 500 million fish, about 26 million dogs, 20 million cats, 15 to 20 million birds, nearly four million riding horses, countless millions of turtles, and thousands of monkeys and other small and not-so-small animals.

The 10 "most unpleasant" words in the English vocabulary, according to the findings of one recent poll, are: "Belch, grub, slop, ground, asphalt, scratch, quack, backache, hunk and crabgrass. The fact that these words denote something the average person thinks of as unpleasant makes them sound unpleasant as well.

was identified from a bank book in his pocket as Angel Angelof. The bankbook showed a balance of $100.02.

Angelof lived in a three-room apartment on Tenth Avenue. He had worked for about $70 a week as a general helper at a Queens book and magazine outlet but walked out on the job earlier this week. The manager, Jack Eisner, said: "He left on his own. I don't know anything about him."

The Wild West drama in the sylvan setting of Central Park began shortly after 10 a.m.

Maurice Johnson, a green-uniformed park attendant, heard a noise in the women's restroom that adjoins his office. He opened a connecting door to find a man there.

Restroom Scene

Johnson told police he saw the man's gun, slammed and locked the door and then went for help.

The woman victim was identified as Lila Kissler, who lived on East 87th Street. Angelof's jacket was found in the restroom, leading police to speculate that he had been waiting for Miss Kissler, possibly with intent to rape her.

Miss Kissler had stepped inside to her death after leaving her light gray dog tethered to the fence outside.

From the apartment roof across the street, Superintendent Berl Jones had a bird's eye view of the ensuing gun battle. He said: "The police fired tear gas into the building and forced him out on the top. Then they fired a few shots into the air to scare him, but he returned the fire and then they were shooting to kill."

Tear Gas Used

The tear gas apparently flushed Angelof through a skylight leading to the roof of the restroom building. "About 1,000 people were crowded along Fifth Avenue," Jones continued, "and the guy was shooting every once in a while for about a half hour, until the police shot him."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — What can I do when the icing on one of my freshly-baked cakes hardens before I have finished coating it with coconut

A. — Try moistening your coconut with a little warm milk, then putting it on your cake.

Q. — How can I make my own good furniture polish

A. — One very good polish consists of two tablespoons of olive oil and one of vinegar added to a quart of warm water. Keep this solution warm while using it. It will wash off dirt and dust, and leave a light oil treatment on the wood. Rub dry with a clean, soft cloth.

Q. — How can I improve the appearance of my French toast, that is, insure it's being a nice brown?

A. — By beating ¼ teaspoon of sugar with each egg into which your bread slices are dipped for frying. Add a little milk also to the dipping solution.

Q. — One of my black felt hats has become rain - spotted and dull - looking. What's the remedy?

A. — Try holding the hat over the spout of a steaming teakettle, then buff the hat with a soft brush or a piece of felt to bring the nap up.

Q. — How can I remove black rubber - heel marks from floors?

A. — By wiping with kerosene, turpentine, mineral spirits or floor oil.

The May Pritchard Group of the First Christian Church held a 6:30 coverdish dinner Tuesday.

Mrs. Naomi Mattix presided.

It was voted that in the future regular meetings will begin at 7:30 rather than 8 in the past.

Mrs. Roy Welsh, in charge of the worship service, used the theme "No Hands But Ours." Group singing of a hymn followed.

Mrs. Sara Morgan and Mrs. Richard Mason will be hostesses for the Aug. 6 meeting.

Pilot Claims MIGs Fired Shots At Jet

TOKYO (AP) — Held by the Russians for 55 hours after their airliner was forced down, 214 U.S. servicemen flew on to Vietnam Wednesday after a stopover in Japan.

The airliner's pilot said a Soviet MIG fired a warning burst to force their plane to land at Iturup Island in the Kurile chain north of Japan. But the servicemen and the 17-member crew of the airliner reported they were not mistreated.

When they ran out of food, the Russians brought them bread, butter and cheese. The American servicemen exchanged cigarettes and lighters with their Russian guards.

"We were not mistreated in any way," said the pilot, Capt. Joseph Tosolini of Bethany, Conn.

Tosolini denied that the plane violated Russian air space when it was forced down Monday on Iturup Island.

But he said to secure release of his passengers and the plane he signed a letter saying the plane was over Soviet territory when it was intercepted.

"I felt it was my duty to sign," he told a news conference at Yokota, 30 miles west of Tokyo, where the plane landed. "If you gentlemen had been through what I've been through for three days, I think you'd have done the same."

In Washington, a Federal Aviation Administration spokesman said in reply to a question: "We have reliable information, including radar data, that there was a violation of Soviet air space."

For Fiscal Year

Ohio Finance Head Says New Taxes Unnecessary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Howard L. Collier, Ohio's new finance director, said Wednesday the state can operate without new taxes and show a $3 million surplus at the end of the fiscal year next June 30.

He said the state started the new bookkeeping year Monday with an $8.6 million surplus but explained that higher welfare costs will leave a smaller balance at the end of the biennium.

Collier, who joined Gov. James A. Rhodes' cabinet after Richard L. Krabach became Cincinnati city manager, told newsmen the state expected to have income of $1.225 billion during the year and spend $1.222 billion.

"As of today we don't need an additional tax," he asserted. "We don't need anything to continue or augment programs we have. They are sufficient to meet the state's needs."

He reiterated the administration's stand against a statewide income tax as destructive to "the saleable economic climate everyone has worked to build."

"This could be a program that will take a real look at new or different financing," Collier said. "It is one that we are going to to find answers to. I'm going to be working on it most of the summer."

He said welfare costs were mounting, including Aid for Dependent Children (ADC), because federal contributions have been frozen, increasing the state load about $200,000 a month. He estimated cost of the ADC program at $122 million this fiscal year.

Thes tate has had the best management in its history, Collier asserted, but added: "We have got to improve."

Ohio's Supreme Court OK's Intoxication Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Results of tests for intoxication, including use of a Breathalyzer, can be used as evidence in court even though obtained before a motorist is advised of his constitutional rights, the Ohio Supreme Court held Wednesday.

The unanimous decision upheld the 1967 conviction of Earl R. Hinger in Piqua Municipal Court on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $250 and sentenced to three days in Miami County Jail.

An appellate court reversed but the Supreme Court, in turn, reversed and affirmed the trial court.

Arresting officers questioned Hinger in the Piqua police station and gave him a Breathalyzer and other tests which he took voluntarily. The tests included writing his name and address, picking up coins from the floor and touching his hand to his nose.

Motion pictures were made of the tests and the film was introduced as evidence over objections of defense counsel.

The Supreme Court said the only question presented on the record was whether evidence of the tests, made before Hinger was advised of his constitutional rights, were constitutionally admissible.

The high court said the tests and films "are real and physical evidence and not such communication or testimony of an accused as is protected by the constitutional privilege against self-incrimnation."

In other decisions, the Supreme Court held that :

Donald King and five other Toledo school teachers holding annual contracts were not entitled to pay for military service between 1951-59 although a 1960 law "might well be construed to require salary credits for prior military service."

Terri Lynn Fone celebrated her 10th birthday at a party given Tuesday afternoon by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fone of Etruria St.

Games and contests were played, with prizes awarded.

Refreshments were served 13 at tables arranged on the lawn. The buffet table was centered with a decorated cake. Favors were mint baskets.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Lois Burdick and Mrs. Mary Curran, aunt and grandmother of Terri Lynn, and Mrs. Mary Jane Looman.

"College of Regents Chapter Night" was observed when Women of the Moose Chapter 642 met Monday night at the lodge home.

Mrs. Marie Tweed, chairman, presided for the ceremony, assisted by Mrs. Leona Swiger, junior regent; Mrs. Mary Barty, graduate regent; Mrs. Lou Polk, chaplain, and Mrs. Mildred Springer, recorder.

The presentation officer, Mrs. Mildred Springer, conducted the tassle ceremony when those on the caps of Mrs. Swiger and Mrs. Tweed were changed from green to red.

Mrs. Jean Adams, the newest member of the College of Regents, reviewed her trip to Mooseheart, Ill., where she received vestments of the office. She presented a gift to Mrs. Tweed.

During business conducted by Mrs. Pearl Langdon, senior regent, plans were made for attending the state conference Aug. 12-15 at Columbus. Mrs. Langdon and Mrs. Permelia Kilmer will serve as delegates.

Visits HemisFair

Johnson Spends Holiday With Foreign Diplomats

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson came home to Texas Wednesday, bringing two score foreign diplomats for a gala Fourth of July, "a fiesta all over the place," and a sortie to El Salvador to focus on Central American economic problems.

The President sent his own jet on ahead with part of a big party of visitors from Washington and took ambassadors and their wives on a similar plane.

The main idea was to visit HemisFair, the $176-million international exposition here in a city that blends its history and cultures of the United States and the Latin nations to the South.

It was a brilliant summer day, with a strong breeze tempering the heat, and fleecy clouds drifting across the sky above Randolph Air Force Base where the first ceremony was staged.

About 5,000 whoop-it-up Texans turned out with signs of welcome, bands, flags and some official welcoming speeches, including one in which Gov. John B. Connally of Texas predicted there would be that fiesta all over the place.

Johnson stood on a platform just off the airfield apron, Mrs. Johnson by his side, and said, "I am pleased that these distinguished visitors from our neighbor nations have been able to travel down here with me, to take advantage of their invitation from HemisFair and Gov. Connally to spend an old-fashioned Fourth of July with us.

"Their presence symbolizes a confluence of civilization — the gathering together of the talents and dreams of many nations. That, of course, is the theme of HemisFair—but not of HemisFair alone. It is the living and eternal theme of the United States, a nation made great by an infusion and mingling of all the world's cultures."

The White House listed 22 ambassadors making the trip down from Washington, 13 of them from Latin American countries, and nine from other nations with exhibits at HemisFair.

There also were 14 Latin diplomats accredited to the Organization of American States, three deputy ambassadors, and various U.S. officials.

Connally invited all of them to his ranch near Floresville, 35 miles from the airport, for an informal dinner. Johnson assured everyone that he and the First Lady would join them later on after flying to their own ranch.

Thursday is given over to taking in the fair, in the heart of the city. There will be flag raising ceremonies in the morning, lunch, visits to various exhibits, a black-tie dinner-dance in the evening at the U.S. pavilion.

The ambassadors will be leaving Friday and Johnson will switch to entertaining President Rene Barrientos of Bolivia at the LBJ Ranch.

Johnson will be on the go himself Saturday, to San Salvador, capital of El Salvador, to try to lend encouragement to the five member nations of the Central American Common Market whose presidents will be on hand.

ON TARGET, soldiers demostrate Army's new light vision weapon devices which amplify dim moonlight, starlight or faint skyglow, but are impossible to detect while operating. The electronic sights, which magnify light 40,000 times, reportedly have taken the edge off Viet Cong advantages in night fighting.

City Hospital Treats 12 In Emergencies

A New Cumberland area girl hurt in a fall from a bicycle Wednesday was treated at City Hospital along with 11 others.

Jeff Mort, son of Adam Mort of East Liverpool RD 1, a slight powder burn of the left thumb when a pistol discharged as he picked it up; William Moon of 836 Phoenix Ave., Chester, an employe of Globe Refractories, a laceration of the scalp on steel.

Jerry Shepler, son of William Shepler of 424 Church Rd., Canton, a contusion of the wrist while water skiing; Kendall Roberts, son of Eugene Roberts of 801 W. 9th St., a laceration of the forehead on a pumphandle.

Johnson Wants Money To Hike Capital Police

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson called on Congress Wednesday for $11.5 million to provide increased police protection for the nation's capital and to give the district's City Council the power to enact stronger gun control laws.

The President declared the nation can rightfully expect Congress to "make Washington a showcase of safety and security for all of the people."

Crime has been increasing sharply in the District of Columbia. Johnson proposes to raise the number of policemen from 3,100 to 4,100.

The President sent letters to the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House today declaring that: "the need for strong gun control laws in the nation's capital is imperative and it is urgent."

To Train Officers

Administration Pushing For Federal Law Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is pushing plans to establish a single academy to train all federal law enforcement officials, except FBI agents, it was learned Wednesday.

The school, tentatively called the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, would be located on a 61-acre tract at Beltsville, Md., a suburb northeast of Washington. It would be on land which has been used by the sprawling Agriculture Department's experimental center.

There are about 14,000 civilian law enforcement officials—not counting about 6,600 FBI agents. The new academy would be designed to handle 1,400 trainees a year.

One official said that although it has not been determined how much it would cost to set up the school it would be "in the tens of millions," subject to congressional approval.

It is understood that the administration would be in a position to have plans ready some time this autumn which would at least enable preliminary activity to set up the school. The new facility would not be ready, however, for about three years.

In addition to handling recruits for federal law enforcement agencies the academy would operate refresher courses for present employes. Initial recruit training would consist of a three or four month course for all trainees after which individual agencies would give their own recruits specialized courses. courses.

The FBI was invited to participate but declined.

The bureau already maintains its own school at Quantico, Va., and trains not only its agents, but also operates a program for local police officers.

The agencies that would be included in the academy are those whose officers have power to arrest and carry firearms. They include:

—Treasury Department: Internal Revenue Service, Secret Service, Customs Bureau.

—Post Office Department: Postal Inspectors.

—State Department: Security officers.

Senior Citizens Plan For Picnic

Plans for a basket picnic were made during the meeting of the Senior Citizens at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

It will be held during the meeting of the Tri-State County group Wednesday in Salem City Park.

The local group will hold a picnic July 18 at Thompson Park. The bus will depart at 3 p.m. from the terminal.

Margaret Byers received the corsage.

There were 130 present.

Women were barred from the first Olympic games in ancient Greece, not only as participants but also as spectators, because the athletes competed in the nude, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Kiwanians At Lisbon Plan For Barbecue

LISBON — Kiwanians met Wednesday noon at the Masonic Temple and announced plans for their annual chicken barbecue from 11 a. m. to 7 p.m. July 17 at Willow Grove Park.

Loretta Lee Noel Is Wed In Ceremonies At Negley

The Negley United Methodist Church was the setting June 22 for the marriage of Miss Loretta Lee Noel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Noel of Negley, and Sgt. Ronald Lee Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davidson of Negley RD 1.

The Rev. Leland Floyd officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, ferns, white flowers and candelabra. Mrs. Earl Bohlman was organist and Mrs. Don McFarland, soloist.

THE BRIDE was attired in a full-length gown of silk organza designed with an Alencon lace-detailed, fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long, tapered sleeves. The full, envelope-style skirt featured a chapel train.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a matching lace petal headpiece, adorned with pearls. She carried her Rainbow Girls Bible topped with an arrangement of white roses and ivy, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Robert Pyle, matron of honor, wore a full-length sheath of pink silk chiffon fashioned with an Empire bodice and ribbon lace sleeves. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Brickman of McComb, Ohio; Miss Sherry Shuman, Miss Sandy Pancake and Miss Helen Bohlman. They wore gowns styled identical to that of the matron of honor, but in lilac. All the attendants wore matching headpieces and carried cascade bouquets of carnations.

Laura McMillian, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She appeared in a pink dotted Swiss dress with matching headpiece. She carried a basket of roses. Brian Brennan, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

MRS. RONALD DAVIDSON
Marries Serviceman.

The mother of the bride wore a poudre blue silk dress with chiffon dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother a blue lace dress with white accessories. Both had orchid corsages.

Aides were Miss Carol Wasko and Miss Janet Wasko, cousins of the bridegroom; Miss Sandy Frankenburg, the bride's cousin, and Miss Renee Blower.

The newlyweds are 1965 graduates from East Palestine High School. The bride attended the Kent State Academic Center in East Liverpool for three years and will continue her studies at East Carolina University.

The bridegroom enlisted in the Marines in February 1966 and is stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., after serving 13 months in Vietnam.

Group Makes Plans To Attend Convention

The Rainbows End Chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association made final plans to attend the annual summer convention when it met this week at the Wellsville Boat Club.

The convention will be held July 15-18 at DuQuoin, Ill.

Newlymade vests were distributed to the members. Ott Weekley, wagonmaster, presided.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Nell Shinn and Mrs. Jerry Panzott. The next meeting will be Aug. 5.

Basketball is truly American in its origins.

New Record Set In Membership Of Reading Club

The summer reading club at Carnegie Library is the largest to date, Mrs. Hilda McEwen, children's librarian, reports. There are 1,878 members.

A baseball theme is being used in the contest, with two teams, the Red Sluggers and the Blue Blitzers, competing.

A child has each book credited as it is read. The credit counts as a run for the team to which the child belongs.

Ten books read during the school vacation earn the member a certificate; 20 books, a large gold seal; 25 books, a red ribbon, and 30, a blue ribbon. Those who read 30 or more books will attend a party in September. Certificates will be distributed during Book Week in November.

Any child residing in the tri-state area is eligible to join by signing at the library. The library hours are from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

HOOKSTOWN — Eight members of the Birthday Club attended a recent meeting with Mrs. Albert Hughes.

Winners were Mrs. Roy Allison, Mrs. Richard Campbell and Mrs. Richard Morrow.

Luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Gordon Campbell and Mrs. John McLaughlin.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Gordon Campbell.

Mrs. William Matchett is visiting her husband at the Wright-Patterson air base in Dayton.

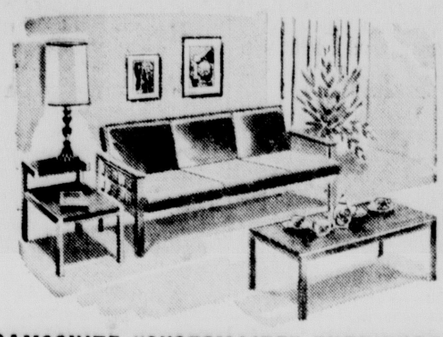

Crash Hurts Palestine Motorist Near Salem

A 28-year-old East Palestine woman was injured Wednesday afternoon when her car was struck from behind by another auto on Route 14-A, about two miles east of Salem.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Genevieve Wittnauer of 517 N. Market St. had halted along with another driver because of an obstruction in the road.

Edward Henry Radler, 54, of Salem was unable to stop in time, and his 1965 sedan struck the rear of her 1967 auto. Officers said the woman suffered an injury. There was damage to the rear of her car and the front of the car of Radler who was cited for speeding.

Union Accepts Pay Offer In City Workers' Strike

few clerical workers and some miscellaneous employes.

—:—

THE FIREMEN and police returned to work in full force Thursday morning. They had absented themselves from their jobs, starting on Sunday, June 23, to force Council action on their demands for pay increases.

The $23 boosts which Council granted June 26 represented 5 per cent additional for rank-and-file firemen and police, but a little less for the more highly paid officers of the two departments.

The firemen and police also obtained a promise that Council will negotiate "in good faith" on three additional semi-annual boosts of 5 per cent, the first by next Jan. 1.

Councilmen met in special sessions Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday morning to enact the pay boosts for the firemen and police, so that the ordinance would take effect Monday. At the same time, they were wrestling with the strike of the other employes.

LAST Saturday afternoon, Council offered 5 per cent raises to most of the Local 677 members, but the offer was rejected. The vote was 29-5. It would have meant $19.36 additional for instance, for a laborer, now paid $2.14 hourly.

Council submitted a modified offer to the employes at another meeting Monday night. There was a promise of a 5 per cent boost for most of the local's members, but department heads, clerical workers and "Meter Maids" were not included.

However, Council promised to cooperate in a job study with the union on the other posts and make adjustments of up to 5 per cent, if warranted, in the pay of the other jobs.

The local turned down the proposition 22-18. That terminated the negotiations, but there was an understanding that the two groups would meet again last night at 7.

Virtually nothing new marked the work stoppage in the daylight hours Wednesday. The union continued to picket City Hall and other municipal properties.

City officials issued a series of instructions yesterday on control of rats, flies and other pests around accumulating garbage and pointed out that householders may burn waste paper and cardboard without special permission if they use approved containers.

The city water department continued to function, with members of the local manning the filtration and pumping departments under an agreement with city officials. But raw sewage continued to flow into the Ohio River, as the treatment plant was not functioning.

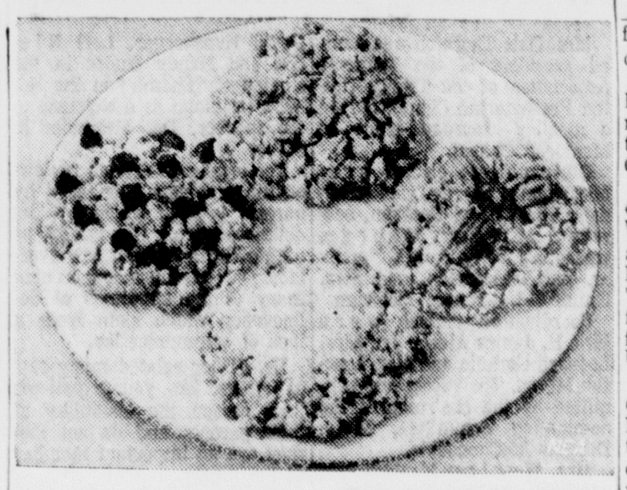

The Health Department posted notices Tuesday along the riverfront warning that the water is "unsafe for recreation purposes," including swimming and water skiing.

Cookies Amuse Children

A new treat for the younger set is a crunchy sweet called a popcorn cookie. Big and round, like old-fashioned sugar cookies, these treats can be topped with shredded coconut, semisweet chocolate pieces or nuts.

They are so easy to make that children can help. There are just four ingredients—popcorn, caramels with orange juice for zest and marshmallows for body. While the caramels melt with the juice and marshmallows, the corn is popped in its own foil fry-pan. Then the popped corn and melted caramels are mixed together and shaped into cookies. It's as easy as that and lots of fun.

JIFFY POPCORN COOKIES

1 (5-oz.) package popcorn in foil fry-pan
1 lb. wrapped caramels, vanilla
2 tablespoons frozen orange juice concentrate
10 marshmallows

Pop corn. Grease large kettle and put in popcorn. Put caramels in saucepan with frozen orange juice concentrate and marshmallows. Place over boiling water until caramels are melted. Mix together. Cool.

Pour over popcorn and mix. Spoon onto aluminum foil and shape into 3-inch circles about one-half-inch thick. Makes 12. Decorate with shredded coconut, semisweet chocolate pieces or nuts.

Gunman

was identified from a bank book in his pocket as Angel Angelof. The bankbook showed a balance of $100.02.

Angelof lived in a three-room apartment on Tenth Avenue. He had worked for about $70 a week as a general helper at a Queens book and magazine outlet but walked out on the job earlier this week. The manager, Jack Eisner, said: "He left on his own. I don't know anything about him."

The Wild West drama in the sylvan setting of Central Park began shortly after 10 a.m.

Maurice Johnson, a green-uniformed park attendant, heard a noise in the women's restroom that adjoins his office. He opened a connecting door to find a man there.

Restroom Scene

Johnson told police he saw the man's gun, slammed and locked the door and then went for help.

The woman victim was identified as Lila Kissler, who lived on East 87th Street. Angelof's jacket was found in the restroom, leading police to speculate that he had been waiting for Miss Kissler, possibly with intent to rape her.

Miss Kissler had stepped inside to her death after leaving her light gray dog tethered to the fence outside.

From the apartment roof across the street, Superintendent Berl Jones had a bird's eye view of the ensuing gun battle. He said: "The police fired tear gas into the building and forced him out on the top. Then they fired a few shots into the air to scare him, but he returned the fire and then they were shooting to kill."

Tear Gas Used

The tear gas apparently flushed Angelof through a skylight leading to the roof of the restroom building. "About 1,000 people were crowded along Fifth Avenue," Jones continued, "and the guy was shooting every once in a while for about a half hour, until the police shot him."

This And That

The number of domesticated animals in the U. S. is now at least three times greater than the total human population — pets currently including more than 500 million fish, about 26 million dogs, 20 million cats, 15 to 20 million birds, nearly four million riding horses, countless millions of turtles, and thousands of monkeys and other small and not-so-small animals.

The 10 "most unpleasant" words in the English vocabulary, according to the findings of one recent poll, are: "Belch, grub, slop, ground, asphalt, scratch, quack, backache, hunk and crabgrass. The fact that these words denote something the average person thinks of as unpleasant makes them sound unpleasant as well.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — What can I do when the icing on one of my freshly-baked cakes hardens before I have finished coating it with coconut

A. — Try moistening your coconut with a little warm milk, then putting it on your cake.

Q. — How can I make my own good furniture polish

A. — One very good polish consists of two tablespoons of olive oil and one of vinegar added to a quart of warm water. Keep this solution warm while using it. It will wash off dirt and dust, and leave a light oil treatment on the wood. Rub dry with a clean, soft cloth.

Q. — How can I improve the appearance of my French toast, that is, insure it's being a nice brown?

A. — By beating ¼ teaspoon of sugar with each egg into which your bread slices are dipped for frying. Add a little milk also to the dipping solution.

Q. — One of my black felt hats has become rain - spotted and dull - looking. What's the remedy?

A. — Try holding the hat over the spout of a steaming teakettle, then buff the hat with a soft brush or a piece of felt to bring the nap up.

Q. — How can I remove black rubber - heel marks from floors?

A. — By wiping with kerosene, turpentine, mineral spirits or floor oil.

ANN LANDERS

Long Trip For A Stork!

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Is it possible for a pregnancy to last 17 months?

Here's my story: I went with this girl for two years. One thing led to another and the next thing I knew Verna said, "We'd better get married right away." Although I wasn't exactly thrilled with the idea, I did the honorable thing and married her that weekend.

A few months later Verna began to wear maternity clothes and complained that her feet were swelling and her back ached. She is in her 17th month as I write this letter.

Verna has gained 18 pounds. She has knit nine baby sweaters, crocheted seven bonnets and five bootie sets. We even bought baby furniture and have a room ready but there's no baby.

My friends and relatives are driving me crazy with questions and I don't know what to say. What does this sound like to you?—DELAYED FATHERHOOD.

Dear Delayed: It sounds like excellent salesmanship with no product to back up the putch. But don't get the idea that you were framed, because there IS such a thing as false pregnancy. It's called pseudocyesis.

I suggest that you have a talk with her doctor at once and learn whether or not a baby is on the way. If so, it's not the same baby Verna talked about 17 months ago. No pregnancy can last 17 months. It only seems that long.

The Hang Up

Dear Ann: Whenever I'm on the phone my husband walks over to me and says, "Who is it?" Then he asks, "What does she want?" The next question is, "Why waste your time talking about that?" After a couple of minutes he says, "Get off."

It's awfully hard, in the middle of a phone conversation, to answer his questions. It's also embarrassing because the person on the line can hear him.

I decided a few weeks ago that the best solution was to ignore him. This makes him furious.

Can you offer a solution?—ULCERS SOUTHERN STYLE.

Dear Ulcers: A husband who is so childish that he cannot stand being excluded from anything — even a routine telephone conversation — should be dealt with on the 10-year-old level at which he operates.

Keep a note pad and a pencil by the telephone. When he asks, "Who is it?" write the name of the person and add, "I'll tell you all about it later, dear." This should quiet the little darling until you get off.

Costly Friendship

Dear Ann: My husband is in the service. My father-in-law travels a lot, so my mother-in-law and I play gin rummy almost every evening.

She's a lot of fun and I enjoy her company but I can't afford the losses. Last week I dropped $16. The week before, $12. I don't want to insult her or appear to be a poor loser but I'm — HURTING.

Dear H.: Tell your mother-in-law she'll have to cut the stakes or find another fish — I mean card player. This is no insult It merely shows you have better common sense than card sense. (And P.S.: Don't knock with nine after half the deck has been played, Dummy.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

105 Pre-School Youngsters Are Enrolled In 'Head Start'

LISBON — There are 105 preschool youngsters in six Columbiana County communities enrolled in "Head Start" — the Community Action Agency's kindergarten.

CAA added three communities to the summer program which began June 24 and will end Aug. 16. New in the program are Rogers, East Palestine and Leetonia, which was combined with Lisbon. That class meets at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ between the two villages. Fifteen children are enrolled at each of the seven "Head Start" centers.

The budget of $18,787 provides instructors, nurses and equipment. A field trip is planned for each center. Children receive juice and a cracker on arrival at 9 a.m. and are given a well - balanced hot lunch before they go home at 11:30.

Miss Ann Johnston, assistant principal of Westgate Junior High School in East Liverpool, is program director. The instructors are:

Anna Welch, Westgate; Maxine Skaleski, East Junior High School, East Liverpool; Matilda Madden, East North Ave. Elementary School, East Palestine; Moria Lee Lutsch, Rogers Elementary School; Doris Nelson, Garfield School, Wellsville; Mary Ann Potts, MacDonald School, Wellsville, and Charles Miller, Lisbon - Leetonia Center at St. Jacob's.

The county's first "Head Start" centers were established at East Liverpool and Wellsville in the summer of 1966. The Lisbon center was added in 1967. East Liverpool and Wellsville also have year-round "Head Start" programs.

Russian Leader Says West Land Of Police Terror

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev described the leading Western democracies today as lands of police terror and political assassination.

"The citadel of modern capitalism, the United States," Brezhnev said, "is being torn by social and racial conflicts. The state in which violence and terror have become the main principle of policy pays for this with the lives of its political leaders."

Brezhnev named the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, "who was against the war in Vietnam."

"Monopolistic America is degenerating," he said. But, he added it will inevitably be replaced by the America of "the working people."

Man, 51, Arrested In Fireworks Sale

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mayor Harold Moore of New Lebanon has been charged with illegal storeage and sale of fireworks.

Moore, 51, was arrested by Montgomery County sheriff's detectives Tuesday night as he was leaving the grocery store he operates to attend a village council meeting.

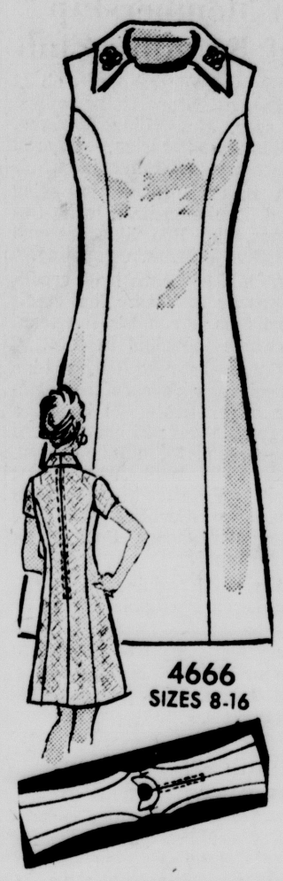

He was released on his own recognizance by County Judge Robert L. Abramson. The misdemeanor charge carries a maximum penalty of a $25 to $500 fine.

Detectives said several boxes of fireworks valued at $18 each were confiscated from the mayor's store.

Boy Killed By Car

Building Permits Drop To $15,095

New construction and remodeling estimated to cost $15,095 got under way in East Liverpool in June, a drop of $86,438 from the $101,533 in May, Chester M. Brown, housing and building inspector, reported today.

One new home was authorized in the June permits. James A. Miller obtained a permit to erect a house on Harriet St. estimated to cost $12,000. Two major projects costing $79,000 in all helped swell the May total.

The other June permits, the persons to whom they were issued, the work authorized and the estimated cost of each job:

Ralph H. McVay to repair facia and siding on property at 1036 Dresden Ave., $1,800.

Thomas Kidder, to erect a new porch on a home at 1430 Etruria St., $800.

Woodrow Price, to alter an apartment on Walnut St., $3,000.

Auto-Truck Collision Kills 2, Injures 2

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two persons were killed and two others hurt Wednesday in an automobile-truck collision on Ohio 16 west of Pataskala in Licking County.

Fur Mor Men

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — South African furrier Leslie Derber plans to market fur coats "for masculine men." "Selling the first 10 might be a bit of a battle," Derber said. "We have to overcome the taboo on men wearing fur, but after that it will snowball."

More Uniform

New Accounting System Planned For Ohio Towns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A more uniform accounting procedure for Ohio's municipal governments was in formation Wednesday with representatives of the municipalities and State Auditor Roger Cloud's office cooperating in the move.

A steering committee comprising finance offers representing a cross-section of municipalities interested in updating the accounting requirements for cities and villages met this week with key officials of the auditor's office.

It will mark the first revision of the fiscal reporting system in 42 years.

Cloud, notirg that an analysis of municipal accounting systems disclosed a "less than uniform approach in the handling of fiscal records," said:

"Non - uniformity precluded compiling fiscal information in a manner to permit proper local administrative action or proper fiscal information for legislative action. It is our goal to provide a system which will be of greatest service to the local municipal corporation."

He said the steering committee would work with his office as well as outside consultants and various municipal officials "to focus and prepare procedures which will be serviceable to all municipalities, regardless of size."

One of the major objectives, he said, is to prove the means for compiling municipal financial information quickly for the Legislature, administrative and federal reporting purposes.

2 Sessions Set By Welding Club

LISBON — The Columbiana County 4-H Welding Club will meet at United High School each Tuesday and Thursday evening during the summer.

Gordon McDonald, county extension agent for 4-H, said the new club will elect officers next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Club membership is still open, McDonald says. There will be a class for beginners and one for boys with some welding experience.

Judge Denies Motions In Spock Case

BOSTON (AP) — Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford Wednesday denied all 11 motions seeking to reverse the convictions of Dr. Benjamin Spock and three others on antidraft conspiracy charges.

Lawyers for Spock, 65, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., Harvard graduate student Michael Ferber and author Mitchell Goodman of Temple, Maine, had sought a change of the verdict by one of three means:

—Acquittal by the judge.

—A new trial.

—Or an arrest of verdict on the grounds of an imperfection in the indictment drawn up by the federal government.

The next step in the case, which the defense has vowed to appeal as high as necessary, will be sentencing of the four on July 10.

Ford, who presided over the month-long trial which resulted in the conviction of four of the five defendants by an all-male jury, will set the sentence.

The jury acquitted a former White House disarmament aide, Marcus Raskin, codirector of the institute for Police Studies in Washington.

Spock and the others face possible jail terms of up to five years, and fines of up to $10,000.

Council Session Reset

GEORGETOWN — A meeting of Council scheduled Tuesday night was postponed until July 15 because of lack of a quorum, Mrs. Myrtle Alger, secretary, has announced.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I deal with rust or copper stains on porcelain surfaces?

A.—Wash with household ammonia and water, or a solution of three tablespoons Javelle water to one quart water. If this doesn't achieve the effects you're seeking, try scrubbing with a non-abrasive cleanser.

Q. — Is there any way I can make candles burn longer and with less dripping

A. — Coat the candles, all but the wick, with soapsuds. They will last longer and burn with a minimum of smoking or dripping. Allow them to dry in their holders before lighting them. Candles also will burn more slowly and without dripping if they have been stored in the refrigerator.

A rummage sale will be held the week of Aug. 7 in New Cumberland, the place to be announced. Mrs. Ralph Ward, chairman, said donations may be left with her.

James Buracchio, director, said five students were chosen to attend a FACT meeting at Wheeling College this month. It is a government - sponsored program for students in art and music.

The next meeting will be Aug. 5 at 7:30 p. m. in the school.

France Plans Tax Boost To Aid Economy

By HARVEY HUDSON
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — The government after the widespread strikes in to shore up the French economy and tightened credit Wednesday ment announced higher taxes May and June.

The cabinet decision came after the government had decreed certain import quotas and export subsidies to protect and stimulate industries hard hit by the strikes.

Information Minister Yves Guena, speaking with newsmen after the Cabinet session, said that new taxes will be levied to raise 2.5 billion francs—$500 million. He did not give details, but said the taxes would not hit industrial production or the poorer classes of society.

The government also hiked the discount rate from 3.5 per cent to 5 per cent, the highest since August 1957, and the highest in the six-nation European Common Market. It is lower, however, than Britain's 7.5 per cent and the United States' 5.5 per cent.

The discount rate is that charged by central banks to other banks for money loaned to individuals. It has the effect of making credit more expensive.

Guena said that the discount rate increase could make it more attractive for Frenchmen to keep their money at home instead of investing it elsewhere.

Finance Minister Maurice Couve de Murville reported to the Cabinet that during June foreign currency and gold reserves fell 5.4 billion francs—$1.08 billion.

There was no hint that France is considering a devaluation of the franc.

The new taxes will help cover new government spending due largely to wage increases granted following the strikes, some of which ran for nearly six weeks.

Government-run industries such as transport, gas and electricity, were hard hit by the strikes and wage increases of 10-15 per cent were granted to get the nation back to normal.

The Cabinet approved a supplementary budget of 7.5 billion francs—$1.5 billion—to help pay the cost of wage increases, leaving a budget deficit for the year of 10 billion francs—$2 billion.

Loretta Lee Noel Is Wed In Ceremonies At Negley

The Negley United Methodist Church was the setting June 22 for the marriage of Miss Loretta Lee Noel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Noel of Negley, and Sgt. Ronald Lee Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davidson of Negley RD 1.

The Rev. Leland Floyd officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, ferns, white flowers and candelabra. Mrs. Earl Bohlman was organist and Mrs. Don McFarland, soloist.

THE BRIDE was attired in a full-length gown of silk organza designed with an Alencon lace-detailed, fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long, tapered sleeves. The full, envelope-style skirt featured a chapel train.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a matching lace petal headpiece, adorned with pearls. She carried her Rainbow Girls Bible topped with an arrangement of white roses and ivy, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Robert Pyle, matron of honor, wore a full-length sheath of pink silk chiffon fashioned with an Empire bodice and ribbon lace sleeves. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Brickman of McComb, Ohio; Miss Sherry Shuman, Miss Sandy Pancake and Miss Helen Bohlman. They wore gowns styled identical to that of the matron of honor, but in lilac. All the attendants wore matching headpieces and carried cascade bouquets of carnations.

Laura McMillian, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She appeared in a pink dotted Swiss dress with matching headpiece. She carried a basket of roses. Brian Brennan, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

MRS. RONALD DAVIDSON
Marries Serviceman.

The mother of the bride wore a poudre blue silk dress with chiffon dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother a blue lace dress with white accessories. Both had orchid corsages.

Aides were Miss Carol Wasko and Miss Janet Wasko, cousins of the bridegroom; Miss Sandy Frankenburg, the bride's cousin, and Miss Renee Blower.

The newlyweds are 1965 graduates from East Palestine High School. The bride attended the Kent State Academic Center in East Liverpool for three years and will continue her studies at East Carolina University.

The bridegroom enlisted in the Marines in February 1966 and is stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., after serving 13 months in Vietnam.

Couple Observes Anniversary On Visit To Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac L. Jones of Route 267 have returned home after a two - week vacation with their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Todd of Richardson, Tex., where they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

They were accompanied by another daughter and son-in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Snowden.

Air Patrol Squadron Maps Bivouac Plans

Plans were completed for a bivouac when Civil Air Patrol Squadron 307C met Tuesday at Bibbee's Little Roc Lake. It will be held July 26-28.

Ten cadets applied for summer encampment at the Wright-Patterson air base Aug. 17-25.

Applications are being accepted for membership in the patrol. The next meeting will be Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the lake.

Award To Be Given Lisbon Drill Squad

LISBON — The drill team of Lisbon VFW Post 411 will receive a trophy tonight from a VFW Department of Ohio official for placing second in state competition Friday and Saturday at Columbus.

The presentation will be made about 8:30 at Firestone Park, Columbiana, where the 12-member unit commanded by Sgt. Pete Temple will demonstrate maneuvers prior to accepting the award.

Group Makes Plans To Attend Convention

The Rainbows End Chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association made final plans to attend the annual summer convention when it met this week at the Wellsville Boat Club.

The convention will be held July 15-18 at DuQuoin, Ill.

Newlymade vests were distributed to the members. Ott Weekley, wagonmaster, presided.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Nell Shinn and Mrs. Jerry Panzott. The next meeting will be Aug. 5.

New Record Set In Membership Of Reading Club

The summer reading club at Carnegie Library is the largest to date, Mrs. Hilda McEwen, children's librarian, reports. There are 1,878 members.

A baseball theme is being used in the contest, with two teams, the Red Sluggers and the Blue Blitzers, competing.

A child has each book credited as it is read. The credit counts as a run for the team to which the child belongs.

Ten books read during the school vacation earn the member a certificate; 20 books, a large gold seal; 25 books, a red ribbon, and 30, a blue ribbon. Those who read 30 or more books will attend a party in September. Certificates will be distributed during Book Week in November.

Any child residing in the tri-state area is eligible to join by signing at the library. The library hours are from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

Living By The Law

TRIVANDRUM, India (AP) — A minister in the Communist-dominated coalition government of Kerala state was seen walking down the long corridors toward the office cafeteria. He was going to get himself a cup of tea after workers had prevented his office boy from fetching it for him.

Mrs. William Matchett is visiting her husband at the Wright-Patterson air base in Dayton.

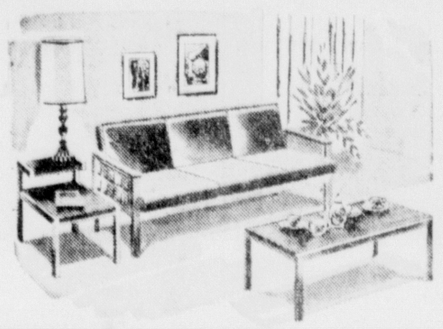

Crash Hurts Palestine Motorist Near Salem

A 28-year-old East Palestine woman was injured Wednesday afternoon when her car was struck from behind by another auto on Route 14-A, about two miles east of Salem.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Genevieve Wittnauer of 517 N. Market St. had halted along with another driver because of an obstruction in the road.

Edward Henry Radler, 54, of Salem was unable to stop in time, and his 1965 sedan struck the rear of her 1967 auto. Officers said the woman suffered an injury. There was damage to the rear of her car and the front of the car of Radler who was cited for speeding.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Child's Fractures Heal Rapidly

Fractures in children heal more quickly than those of adults and, when properly treated, the results are excellent. A common fracture in children is the broken collarbone. This fracture does not require any operation but is best treated by applying a soft figure-8 dressing to hold the shoulders back. The dressing must not be so tight as to bind in the child's armpits as this will cause the arm to swell and may even damage the nerves in that area.

Dr. Brandstadt

A KNOT DEVELOPS at the site of the break. This is a blood tumor and is necessary in the healing of the fracture. The stagnant blood is gradually replaced by solid bone. At the end of three weeks of this treatment the child can usually move his arm without pain even though healing of the break is not yet complete. The knot at the fracture site takes about a year to be completely absorbed.

Q — Would it hurt a 13-year-old to smoke one cigarette a day? One a week? Is there any brand that is safer than the others?

A — The American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association and every other prominent organization that is interested in the health of our citizens are making a united effort to keep teenagers from getting the cigarette habit. If you smoke only one cigarette a day or a week the habit cannot have become very important to you and now would be the ideal time to quit. Later, if you should have increased your smoking to the point where its harmful effects are more evident and quitting becomes necessary for reasons of health, it will be much harder to quit.

THE GREAT DANGER from smoking one cigarette a day is the habituation that is almost sure to follow. Studies have been made to determine which brand of cigarettes has the largest amount of tars and nicotine. Some slight differences are found but they vary from year to year and those with filter tips often contain more of these harmful substances than regular tips. No brand can be recommended as safe and the trend toward increased length only increases the danger.

Q — How do you feel about children sleeping with pets? My niece has slept with her dog for five years. Is this harmful?

A—Apparently not. Five years is a fairly long trial period.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Cases Increase In Common Pleas

Ninety - one new cases, including 39 divorce actions, were filed last month. The two courts disposed of 50 cases.

An analysis of the dispositions shows 21 cases tried to court, five jury trials, six cognovit and default judgments and 18 cases settled or dismissed.

The county has six cases pending before the Seventh District Court of Appeals.

Assures Senators

Officer Promises Peace At Democrat Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Chicago police official told investigating senators today the department "can and will" stop any attempt to disrupt with violence the Democratic National Convention next month in Chicago.

"If any attempt at such disorder is contemplated it will be stopped by the police department," Lt. Edward Buckney of Chicago's police Gang Intelligence Unit told the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee.

Buckney commented after Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-N.D., cited an article in the Chicago Tribune in which the Rev. John R. Fry was quoted as telling a group of Lutheran college students:

"One hundred people have signed a petition to break down the door of the (International) Amphitheater" site of the convention starting Aug. 26.

Fry, who has testified before the subcommittee in connection with his work with a southside Chicago gang, was quoted further as saying the demonstration would be in support of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"I don't think Sen. McCarthy will appreciate this and I want to absolve him from any connection," subcommittee Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said.

In earlier testimony Wednesday, another policeman told the panel Fry lied under oath when he testified he wasn't asked to turn over to Chicago police a gang arsenal stored in his church.

Chester Kiwanis To Wind Up Golf Tourney Monday

The final day of competion in a Kiwanis Club golf tournament was announced during a meeting of the Chester club Tuesday night in City Hall.

Tom Rodge, chairman, said the last day will be Monday.

All flags should be displayed today, Paul Finlay suggested.

Robert Cooley read a letter from the Rev. Donald Vogel, a former member and pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church at Chester. A birthday card was signed for him.

Eugene Seeley, secretary - treasurer, said the club has contributed $482 toward youth activities since the beginning of the year. He and his wife will hold an annual "Bean Hole Dinner" July 30 for the club.

John Boyd said Kiwanis International is campaigning nationally for an annual Family Reunion Day Aug. 11.

The mayor of each community will be requested to proclaim the day.

Robert Cooley, president, said the next meeting will be Tuesday at 6:10 p. m. in City Hall.

ANN LANDERS

Long Trip For A Stork!

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Is it possible for a pregnancy to last 17 months?

Here's my story: I went with this girl for two years. One thing led to another and the next thing I knew Verna said, "We'd better get married right away." Although I wasn't exactly thrilled with the idea, I did the honorable thing and married her that weekend.

A few months later Verna began to wear maternity clothes and complained that her feet were swelling and her back ached. She is in her 17th month as I write this letter.

Verna has gained 18 pounds. She has knit nine baby sweaters, crocheted seven bonnets and five bootie sets. We even bought baby furniture and have a room ready but there's no baby.

My friends and relatives are driving me crazy with questions and I don't know what to say. What does this sound like to you?—DELAYED FATHERHOOD.

Dear Delayed: It sounds like excellent salesmanship with no product to back up the putch. But don't get the idea that you were framed, because there IS such a thing as false pregnancy. It's called pseudocyesis.

I suggest that you have a talk with her doctor at once and learn whether or not a baby is on the way. If so, it's not the same baby Verna talked about 17 months ago. No pregnancy can last 17 months. It only seems that long.

The Hang Up

Dear Ann: Whenever I'm on the phone my husband walks over to me and says, "Who is it?" Then he asks, "What does she want?" The next question is, "Why waste your time talking about that?" After a couple of minutes he says, "Get off."

It's awfully hard, in the middle of a phone conversation, to answer his questions. It's also embarrassing because the person on the line can hear him.

I decided a few weeks ago that the best solution was to ignore him. This makes him furious.

Can you offer a solution?—ULCERS SOUTHERN STYLE.

Dear Ulcers: A husband who is so childish that he cannot stand being excluded from anything — even a routine telephone conversation — should be dealt with on the 10-year-old level at which he operates.

Keep a note pad and a pencil by the telephone. When he asks, "Who is it?" write the name of the person and add, "I'll tell you all about it later, dear." This should quiet the little darling until you get off.

Costly Friendship

Dear Ann: My husband is in the service. My father-in-law travels a lot, so my mother-in-law and I play gin rummy almost every evening.

She's a lot of fun and I enjoy her company but I can't afford the losses. Last week I dropped $16. The week before, $12. I don't want to insult her or appear to be a poor loser but I'm — HURTING.

Dear H.: Tell your mother-in-law she'll have to cut the stakes or find another fish — I mean card player. This is no insult It merely shows you have better common sense than card sense. (And P.S.: Don't knock with nine after half the deck has been played, Dummy.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

105 Pre-School Youngsters Are Enrolled In 'Head Start'

LISBON — There are 105 preschool youngsters in six Columbiana County communities enrolled in "Head Start" — the Community Action Agency's kindergarten.

CAA added three communities to the summer program which began June 24 and will end Aug. 16. New in the program are Rogers, East Palestine and Leetonia, which was combined with Lisbon. That class meets at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ between the two villages. Fifteen children are enrolled at each of the seven "Head Start" centers.

The budget of $18,787 provides instructors, nurses and equipment. A field trip is planned for each center. Children receive juice and a cracker on arrival at 9 a.m. and are given a well - balanced hot lunch before they go home at 11:30.

Miss Ann Johnston, assistant principal of Westgate Junior High School in East Liverpool, is program director. The instructors are:

Anna Welch, Westgate; Maxine Skaleski, East Junior High School, East Liverpool; Matilda Madden, East North Ave. Elementary School, East Palestine; Moria Lee Lutsch, Rogers Elementary School; Doris Nelson, Garfield School, Wellsville; Mary Ann Potts, MacDonald School, Wellsville, and Charles Miller, Lisbon - Leetonia Center at St. Jacob's.

The county's first "Head Start" centers were established at East Liverpool and Wellsville in the summer of 1966. The Lisbon center was added in 1967. East Liverpool and Wellsville also have year-round "Head Start" programs.

Russian Leader Says West Land Of Police Terror

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev described the leading Western democracies today as lands of police terror and political assassination.

"The citadel of modern capitalism, the United States," Brezhnev said, "is being torn by social and racial conflicts. The state in which violence and terror have become the main principle of policy pays for this with the lives of its political leaders."

Brezhnev named the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, "who was against the war in Vietnam."

"Monopolistic America is degenerating," he said. But, he added it will inevitably be replaced by the America of "the working people."

Man, 51, Arrested In Fireworks Sale

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mayor Harold Moore of New Lebanon has been charged with illegal storeage and sale of fireworks.

Moore, 51, was arrested by Montgomery County sheriff's detectives Tuesday night as he was leaving the grocery store he operates to attend a village council meeting.

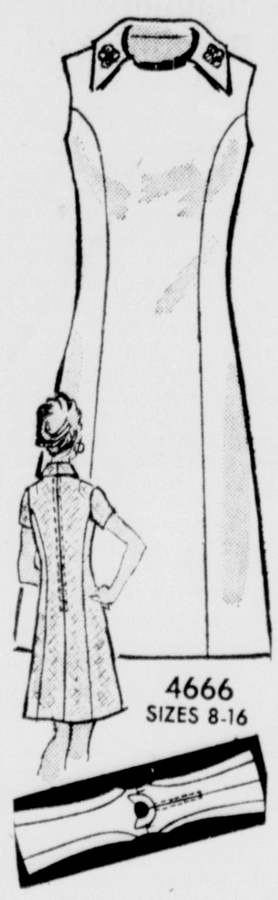

He was released on his own recognizance by County Judge Robert L. Abramson. The misdemeanor charge carries a maximum penalty of a $25 to $500 fine.

Detectives said several boxes of fireworks valued at $18 each were confiscated from the mayor's store.

Building Permits Drop To $15,095

New construction and remodeling estimated to cost $15,095 got under way in East Liverpool in June, a drop of $86,438 from the $101,533 in May, Chester M. Brown, housing and building inspector, reported today.

One new home was authorized in the June permits. James A. Miller obtained a permit to erect a house on Harriet St. estimated to cost $12,000. Two major projects costing $79,000 in all helped swell the May total.

The other June permits, the persons to whom they were issued, the work authorized and the estimated cost of each job:

Ralph H. McVay to repair facia and siding on property at 1036 Dresden Ave., $1,800.

Thomas Kidder, to erect a new porch on a home at 1430 Etruria St., $800.

Woodrow Price, to alter an apartment on Walnut St., $3,000.

Auto-Truck Collision Kills 2, Injures 2

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two persons were killed and two others hurt Wednesday in an automobile-truck collision on Ohio 16 west of Pataskala in Licking County.

Fur Mor Men

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — South African furrier Leslie Derber plans to market fur coats "for masculine men." "Selling the first 10 might be a bit of a battle," Derber said. "We have to overcome the taboo on men wearing fur, but after that it will snowball."

More Uniform

New Accounting System Planned For Ohio Towns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A more uniform accounting procedure for Ohio's municipal governments was in formation Wednesday with representatives of the municipalities and State Auditor Roger Cloud's office cooperating in the move.

A steering committee comprising finance offers representing a cross-section of municipalities interested in updating the accounting requirements for cities and villages met this week with key officials of the auditor's office.

It will mark the first revision of the fiscal reporting system in 42 years.

Cloud, noting that an analysis of municipal accounting systems disclosed a "less than uniform approach in the handling of fiscal records," said:

"Non - uniformity precluded compiling fiscal information in a manner to permit proper local administrative action or proper fiscal information for legislative action. It is our goal to provide a system which will be of greatest service to the local municipal corporation."

He said the steering committee would work with his office as well as outside consultants and various municipal officials "to focus and prepare procedures which will be serviceable to all municipalities, regardless of size."

One of the major objectives, he said, is to prove the means for compiling municipal financial information quickly for the Legislature, administrative and federal reporting purposes.

2 Sessions Set By Welding Club

LISBON — The Columbiana County 4-H Welding Club will meet at United High School each Tuesday and Thursday evening during the summer.

Gordon McDonald, county extension agent for 4-H, said the new club will elect officers next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Club membership is still open, McDonald says. There will be a class for beginners and one for boys with some welding experience.

Trade Pacts Are Delayed By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation President Johnson is seeking that would ratify trade agreements hammered out in the past two years may be dropped by the wayside as Congress plods toward adjournment.

However, chances are even less bright for a batch of bills administration-opposed to set quotas or other import restrictions for the benefit of individual U.S. industries.

The House Ways and Means Committee ended prolonged hearings Tuesday on trade policy.

Committee sources say there is no chance of a trade bill passing if Congress achieves the goal publicly announced by its leaders—to adjourn by Aug. 2.

However, if Congress comes back into session during the two weeks between the Republican and the Democratic conventions in August, there is a chance the House would pass a trade bill. If it comes back in September for a more prolonged windup session, there is a chance to get the bill through the Senate and to the President.

As for protectionist bills, the only measure given a chance for approval now by the Ways and Means Committee is one restricting textile imports. But its chances of passage on the floor are rated poor.

The legislation the administration is interested in would revive trade negotiating authority, which has now lapsed, and would bring into force a supplementary agreement on chemical tariffs.

Penalties Fixed In Traffic Cases

John C. Soriano, Niles, passing traffic in a hazardous zone, $15 and costs; Nicholas P. Coma, Toronto, failure to obey traffic signal, $10, and Barry S. James, Lisbon., speeding, and Roger E. Kelch, Lisbon RD 5, permitting load (slag) to fall on highway, $5 each.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Larry G. Jones, Smithfiel W. Va., passing traffic at hill crest, and Daniel P. Summers, Leetonia, speeding, $20 each, and John Carbone, New Castle, failure to display slow-moving-vehicle emblem, and Arnold L. Croston, Canton, and Anthony Plumneo, Louisville, both charged with failure to wear protective helmets on motorcycles, $15 each.

Hitchhiker Receives Suspended Sentence

LISBON — Cleared of a malicious entry charge by a lie detector test, Mathew Carroll, 44, of Fayetteville, Ark., pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property Tuesday before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Carroll was sentenced to 60 days (suspended) in the County Jail and the judge gave him credit for time in jail to erase the $5 court costs.

Carroll, a hitchhiker, left town immediately, got as far as Salem, then returned when he remembered he did not get his driver's license when checking out of jail.

Carroll was charged with taking a set of golf clubs June 25 from an enclosed porch at the Kenneth Morris residence, 816 N. Market St. The defendant said a youth who gave him a lift stole the clubs. Carroll did admit selling them to a local businessman. Police were unable to locate the thief.

A Slight Error

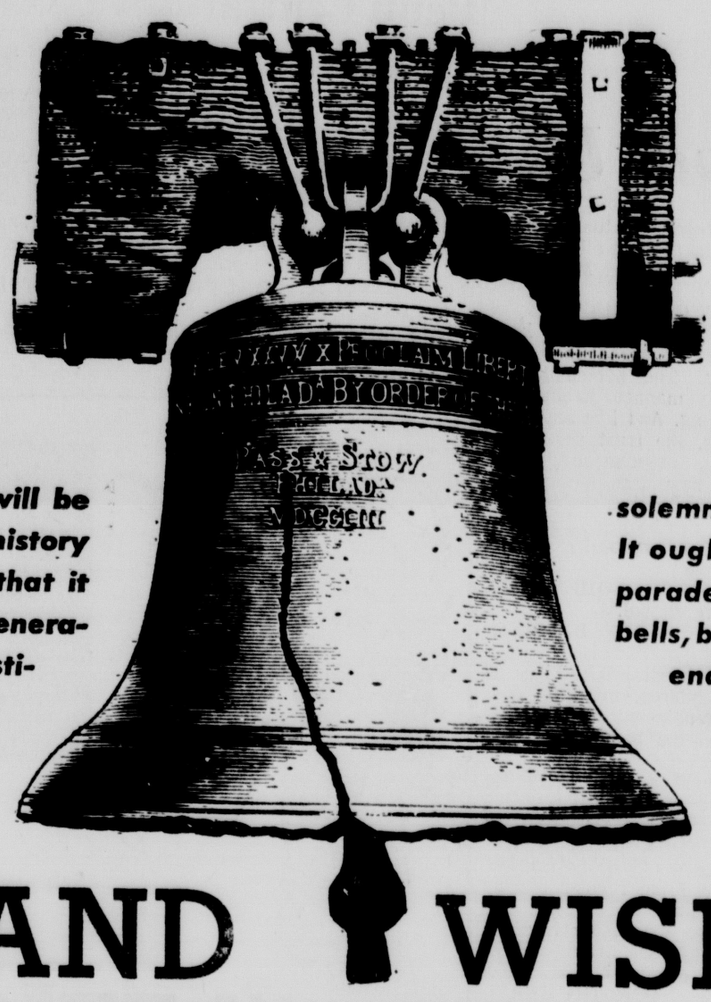

NEW DELHI (AP) — India has steadfastly maintained during its 20-year duel with Pakistan over Kashmir state that Kashmir is an "integral part" of India. Thus an embarrassed parliament, informed that the Kashmir Trade Agent in Bombay was listed in the telephone directory under foreign trade commissioners, quickly ordered the directory to be amended.

Judge Denies Motions In Spock Case

BOSTON (AP) — Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford Wednesday denied all 11 motions seeking to reverse the convictions of Dr. Benjamin Spock and three others on antidraft conspiracy charges.

Lawyers for Spock, 65, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., Harvard graduate student Michael Ferber and author Mitchell Goodman of Temple, Maine, had sought a change of the verdict by one of three means:

—Acquittal by the judge.

—A new trial.

—Or an arrest of verdict on the grounds of an imperfection in the indictment drawn up by the federal government.

The next step in the case, which the defense has vowed to appeal as high as necessary, will be sentencing of the four on July 10.

Ford, who presided over the month-long trial which resulted in the conviction of four of the five defendants by an all-male jury, will set the sentence.

The jury acquitted a former White House disarmament aide, Marcus Raskin, codirector of the institute for Police Studies in Washington.

Spock and the others face possible jail terms of up to five years, and fines of up to $10,000.

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I deal with rust or copper stains on porcelain surfaces?

A.—Wash with household ammonia and water, or a solution of three tablespoons Javelle water to one quart water. If this doesn't achieve the effects you're seeking, try scrubbing with a non-abrasive cleanser.

Q. — Is there any way I can make candles burn longer and with less dripping

A. — Coat the candles, all but the wick, with soapsuds. They will last longer and burn with a minimum of smoking or dripping. Allow them to dry in their holders before lighting them. Candles also will burn more slowly and without dripping if they have been stored in the refrigerator.

Get-Acquainted Tea Sponsored By Band Parents

A purple and pink color scheme was used for an informal tea for new members when the Oak Glen Band Parents met Monday night in the school.

Winners in the birthday calendar sales were Mrs. William Stover, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Mrs. Robert Milby. Mrs. Leo Copestick, chairman of the sale, said more calendars will be available soon.

A rummage sale will be held the week of Aug. 7 in New Cumberland, the place to be announced. Mrs. Ralph Ward, chairman, said donations may be left with her.

James Buracchio, director, said five students were chosen to attend a FACT meeting at Wheeling College this month. It is a government - sponsored program for students in art and music.

The next meeting will be Aug. 5 at 7:30 p. m. in the school.

France Plans Tax Boost To Aid Economy

By HARVEY HUDSON
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — The government after the widespread strikes in to shore up the French economy and tightened credit Wednesday ment announced higher taxes May and June.

The cabinet decision came after the government had decreed certain import quotas and export subsidies to protect and stimulate industries hard hit by the strikes.

Information Minister Yves Guena, speaking with newsmen after the Cabinet session, said that new taxes will be levied to raise 2.5 billion francs—$500 million. He did not give details, but said the taxes would not hit industrial production or the poorer classes of society.

The government also hiked the discount rate from 3.5 per cent to 5 per cent, the highest since August 1957, and the highest in the six-nation European Common Market. It is lower, however, than Britain's 7.5 per cent and the United States' 5.5 per cent.

The discount rate is that charged by central banks to other banks for money loaned to individuals. It has the effect of making credit more expensive.

Guena said that the discount rate increase could make it more attractive for Frenchmen to keep their money at home instead of investing it elsewhere.

Finance Minister Maurice Couve de Murville reported to the Cabinet that during June foreign currency and gold reserves fell 5.4 billion francs—$1.08 billion.

There was no hint that France is considering a devaluation of the franc.

The new taxes will help cover new government spending due largely to wage increases granted following the strikes, some of which ran for nearly six weeks.

Government-run industries such as transport, gas and electricity, were hard hit by the strikes and wage increases of 10-15 per cent were granted to get the nation back to normal.

The Cabinet approved a supplementary budget of 7.5 billion francs—$1.5 billion—to help pay the cost of wage increases, leaving a budget deficit for the year of 10 billion francs—$2 billion.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Scraps Put To Good Use

DEAR HELOISE: In answer to the lady's request for ideas using drapery and upholstery scraps—here goes:

Heloise

Make beautiful blouses and dresses (which are not only unusual but wear exceptionally well aprons, head scarves, tablecloths, napkins, placemats and dresser scarves — either self-fringed or trimmed with rickrack.

Also pot holders, kitchen appliance covers, throw pillows, shopping bags, patch quilts, doll clothes and lamp shade covers.

Make zippered purses, umbrella sheaths, chair pads, shoe bags, book covers and zippered pencil bags for school children, make-up and roller bags for the gals and tobacco pouches (lined in heavy plastic) for the fellas.

All these things make appreicated gifts, not only because they were made by you, but because of the unique color, pattern and durable fabric they are made from.

MRS. C. ZIELINSKI.

Thanks, hon, for telling us about the many things you made.

They make wall hangings — framed or unframed. Picture mats, vacuum bottle covers, laundry bags, glass cases, arm rests and facial tissue cases for the purse. Wastebaskets and pencil can covers, etc., etc.

So, gals, all of you that are fortunate enough to have these lovely scraps laying around — now that you know of the many things that can be done with them — get busy and sew-up-a-storm! Think how these would sell at bazaars!

And to all you dolls that were kind enough to write and help our friend, we sure are grateful. We love you!

HELOISE.

Well, my mother and I are also plagued by this space, but we use it to a decorative advantage. We display plants and various colorful glass items up there.

"NIBS".

DEAR HELOISE: Butter is messy when soft and slides off its little dish.

So if you want soft butter with no mess, just use the cover or lid of your butter dish instead of the dish itself. Of course, your cover must be flat on top so it will set steady when turned upside down.

MRS. A. T.

LETTER OF THOUGHT

DEAR HELOISE: You know managing a home is a BIG business! The homemaker is really the manager in charge of purchasing. And like any other business, she must never stop learning, experimenting and seeking new ideas.

If a homemaker really works at it, it can be just as successful as a thriving business—don't you agree?

HOMEMAKER.

I sure do, pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Like all small children, my little ones have trouble putting the towel back on the bar in the bathroom.

I bought another towel bar and had my husband attach it to the wall two feet from the floor, UNDER the regular one. So there would be no overlap, he moved the regular bar up about a foot.

We use the higher bar and the children seem to enjoy having their own mini-towel rack.

DOROTHY CRAIN.

DEAR HELOISE: A pair of old scissors is so handy to have around.

I use mine to clip beet and carrot tops, remove cucumbers, pumpkins, etc., from the vines, or to snip off greens and lettuce so they will keep on producing.

MRS. E. REEKIE.

Penn Central To Build New Freight Yard

CINCINNATI (AP) — Alfred Perlman, president of Penn Central Railroad said a $26 million freight yard which will be built near Columbus is part of the railroad's long-range plan to combat waning revenue of passenger service.

"Last year we lost over 85 million in our passenger business, and this year the deficit is running at an annual rate in excess of 100 million," he said Tuesday at a meeting here of freight shippers and captains of industry.

Essential passenger service, such as commuter operations and certain types of intercity service would continue, Perlman said. "But we are seeking to phase out long-haul trains which the public no longer needs or uses."

Construction of the freight yard is scheduled to begin in the near future and will be located near Hilliard, just west of Columbus.

Perlman and Chairman Stuart T. Saunders spoke later Tuesday before Penn Central shippers in Cleveland, saying that stock of the railroad has increased more than 50 per cent since the merger last Feb. 1.

"But railroads today are in serious financial trouble. The time has come for the government to decide whether it wants to keep the railroads in the free enterprise system," he said.

The royal or reproductive adult termites have brown or black bodies and fully developed wings. The adult worker and soldier termites are wingless and grayish white in color.

Shipyard Workers Approve 3 Year Pact

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Agreement was reached Tuesday on a new three-year contract for 20,000 West Coast shipyard workers.

The settlement was reached after nine weeks of negotiations between representatives of the AFL-CIO Pacific Coast Metal Trades District Council and the Pacific Coast Shipbuilders Association. The old contract expired at midnight June 30.

Spokesmen for both sides said details of the pact will not be released until the contract is submitted to membership approval by referendum voting in California, Oregon and Washington. Results of the referendum are expected to be announced July 15.

Union representatives said they would urge approval of the new contract.

To Fight Imports

Crucible Plans To Offer Discounts On Stainless

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Corp. confirmed reports Tuesday that it is giving discount prices on large purchases of stainless steel sheet by major distributors.

A spokesman for the specialty steel maker said, "This is evidence of Crucible's intent to combat foreign steel by price competition in volume contracts."

He said the discounts have been give distributors who agree to buy so many dollars worth of stainless sheet over a period of time.

The spokesman stressed that the deals have been made only with major distributors and only for stainless sheet.

Crucible declined to give any other details about the agreements.

Crucible said foreign steel firms now supply about 40 per cent of the stainless sheet demand in the United States. Prices vary, the spokesman said but generally foreign producers have been underselling U. S. producers by five to 10 per cent.

"In order to help distributors and retain our share of the market," the spokesman said, "we undertook the discussions with major distributors on the feasibility of passing on cost savings that can be justified by minimum purchase contracts."

He noted that the production costs are less for large volume orders, and it is these savings which can be passed on to distributors in the form of discounts.

Judge Tells Father To Whip Youth

PT. PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP) —There was no sparing of the rod in the court of Judge James Thompson here Tuesday when he ordered a father to administer 15 lashes on a son up for a probation hearing.

The whipping took place in Judge Thompson's Mason County Circuit Court where the probation hearing was being held for Otto Allen Lee, 19. The youth's father, Rolfe Lee of Gallipolis Ferry, W. Va., also was in court.

Then the judge asked the youth how he could stay out of trouble if given probation when he couldn't stay out of trouble while awaiting probation.

The judge pondered, and then told Lee he didn't know what to do with him, and that he might have to send him to the penitentiary.

The father said what his son needed "was a good whipping."

It was then the judge ordered the father to give the son 15 lashes with his belt — ordering the son to lean over a seat.

The father complied with the whipping order then sat down and cried.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Child's Fractures Heal Rapidly

Fractures in children heal more quickly than those of adults and, when properly treated, the results are excellent. A common fracture in children is the broken collarb one. This fracture does not require any operation but is best treated by applying a soft figure-8 dressing to hold the shoulders back. The dressing must not be so tight as to bind in the child's armpits as this will cause the arm to swell and may even damage the nerves in that area.

A KNOT DEVELOPS at the site of the break. This is a blood tumor and is necessary in the healing of the fracture. The stagnant blood is gradually replaced by solid bone. At the end of three weeks of this treatment the child can usually move his arm without pain even though healing of the break is not yet complete. The knot at the fracture site takes about a year to be completely absorbed.

Q — Would it hurt a 13-year-old to smoke one cigarette a day? One a week? Is there any brand that is safer than the others?

A — The American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association and every other prominent organization that is interested in the health of our citizens are making a united effort to keep teenagers from getting the cigarette habit. If you smoke only one cigarette a day or a week the habit cannot have become very important to you and now would be the ideal time to quit. Later, if you should have increased your smoking to the point where its harmful effects are more evident and quitting becomes necessary for reasons of health, it will be much harder to quit.

THE GREAT DANGER from smoking one cigarette a day is the habituation that is almost sure to follow. Studies have been made to determine which brand of cigarettes has the largest amount of tars and nicotine. Some slight differences are found but they vary from year to year and those with filter tips often contain more of these harmful substances than regular tips. No brand can be recommended as safe and the trend toward increased length only increases the danger.

Q — How do you feel about children sleeping with pets? My niece has slept with her dog for five years. Is this harmful?

A—Apparently not. Five years is a fairly long trial period.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Cases Increase In Common Pleas

Ninety - one new cases, including 39 divorce actions, were filed last month. The two courts disposed of 50 cases.

An analysis of the dispositions shows 21 cases tried to court, five jury trials, six cognovit and default judgments and 18 cases settled or dismissed.

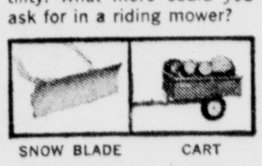

The county has six cases pending before the Seventh District Court of Appeals.

Assures Senators

Officer Promises Peace At Democrat Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Chicago police official told investigating senators today the department "can and will" stop any attempt to disrupt with violence the Democratic National Convention next month in Chicago.

"If any attempt at such disorder is contemplated it will be stopped by the police department," Lt. Edward Buckney of Chicago's police Gang Intelligence Unit told the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee.

Buckney commented after Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-N.D., cited an article in the Chicago Tribune in which the Rev. John R. Fry was quoted as telling a group of Lutheran college students:

"One hundred people have signed a petition to break down the door of the (International) Amphitheater" site of the convention starting Aug. 26.

Fry, who has testified before the subcommittee in connection with his work with a southside Chicago gang, was quoted further as saying the demonstration would be in support of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"I don't think Sen. McCarthy will appreciate this and I want to absolve him from any connection," subcommittee Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said.

In earlier testimony Wednesday, another policeman told the panel Fry lied under oath when he testified he wasn't asked to turn over to Chicago police a gang arsenal stored in his church.

Chester Kiwanis To Wind Up Golf Tourney Monday

The final day of competion in a Kiwanis Club golf tournament was announced during a meeting of the Chester club Tuesday night in City Hall.

Tom Rodge, chairman, said the last day will be Monday.

All flags should be displayed today, Paul Finlay suggested.

Robert Cooley read a letter from the Rev. Donald Vogel, a former member and pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church at Chester. A birthday card was signed for him.

Eugene Seeley, secretary - treasurer, said the club has contributed $482 toward youth activities since the beginning of the year. He and his wife will hold an annual "Bean Hole Dinner" July 30 for the club.

John Boyd said Kiwanis International is campaigning nationally for an annual Family Reunion Day Aug. 11.

The mayor of each community will be requested to proclaim the day.

Robert Cooley, president, said the next meeting will be Tuesday at 6:10 p. m. in City Hall.

Man Found Dead

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Clarence Haynes, 77, a retired city employe, was found dead by his landlord Wednesday morning after he apparently had stumbled and impaled himself on a refrigerator door handle. Coroner Robert A. Evans ruled the death accidental. Detectives said he apparently died Tuesday night. The door handle had punctured his throat.

Fine Of $150 Given Driver

Cited after a hit - skip accident June 23 on Chester Ave., Robert James Graham, 25, of 636½ Avondale St. was fined $150 and costs Wednesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated.

Graham also was given a suspended 10-day jail term on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. Police alleged his car hit a parked 1959 model sedan owned by Edith Mae Chrest of 737 Chester Ave. The court instructed Graham to pay for damages to the Chrest car, estimated at about $130.

Graham originally was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, but the count was reduced on motion of Solicitor J. Michael Kapp.

Francine Koza of Weirton paid a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts. She was cited at 3:37 this morning by Patrolman Arthur Peters. Keith A. Johnston of 1253 Croft St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of crashing a lite at 4th and Market Sts. Tuesday at 4 a. m. He failed to appear for a scheduled hearing yesterday and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

George E. Pinkerton of 1123 White St., Wellsville, was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of operating a vehicle with improper registration. The Ohio Highway Patrol, which cited him June 25, said Pinkerton was using a passenger car plate on an auto which had been converted into a pickup truck.

Warden Sets Restrictions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warden Ernest Maxwell said today Ohio Penitentiary inmates were confined to their cells in the wake of what was described as a new outbreak of unrest.

They'll stay in the cells, he said "until things simmer down."

On Tuesday about 400 to 500 inmates who have been on clean-up details since order was restored following last week's rioting and fire, went on a sit-down strike, the warden said. He added that no trouble resulted, but that the men were returned to the cells to "rest." Included in the strikers were dining hall workers.

The warden attributed the work stoppage to the fact the men "are dog tired" after laboring long periods to clear up riot damage.

"We're all tired," the warden commented.

He indicated there may have been some intimidation of the workers by men who have been confined to cells since the June 24 outbreak.

Warden Maxwell said the inmates would be confined to their cells until at least Friday, when further efforts at forming work details will be made.

Recreation Aired For Kiwanis Club

The proposed citywide recreation program for adults and youngsters was outlined for the Kiwanis Club Wednesday by Frank Moss, ex - president of the Jaycees who are sponsoring the campaign.

Moss screened a film of a similar project in Flint, Mich., in which the community developed a year - round organized program of sports and recreation.

Moss said some $1,200 has been contributed so far to a city campaign to raise $6,000 to hire a fulltime recreation director. Council has agreed to provide funds for the post in 1969 if the job can be filled this year.

Moss explained federal funds are available for such a program, but only if a full-time director is employed.

The importance of recreation and use of facilities was underscored in terms of individual health, youth development and community growth.

A cultivated plant's origin can be best ascertained by finding the place where ancestral forms still grow wild. For example, the riddle of the watermelon's origin was solved when David Livingston, the explorer, found wild watermelons growing profusely in central Africa.

Aide Begins Duty

Mark Eyerman, 21, left, new Columbiana County Community Action Agency aide, began his duties this week with a tour of various centers with Lionel Smith of Salem, CAA director.

Eyerman of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was assigned here by VISTA (Volunteers In Service To America) to conduct long-range planning in line with new CAA regulations.

The two men reported on current summer programs in the county. Some 165 youngsters are in the "Head Start" classes for pre - school children at seven sites—East Palestine, Lisbon, Rogers, and two each at East Liverpool and Wellsville.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps is providing summer employment for 60 young adults from 11 schools in the county, supplying needed services for various communities while learning job skills.

The CAA also operates neighborhood centers at East Liverpool and Salineville, providing recreational and educational opportunities for youth of the area with five staff members and 15 fulltime aides.

Court Studies 4 Guilty Pleas

LISBON — Four of the nine persons indicted June 26 by the Columbiana County grand jury pleaded guily Wednesday before Judge Joel H. Sharp in Common Pleas Court.

Admitting the charges and requesting probation were Benjamin Irvine of 21 5th St., Midland, issuing a fraudulent $54 check Jan. 21, 1967, to Jerome R. Glonek, manager, at the Thrifty City store in East Liverpool.

Cornelius Cronin III of 2101 25th St., Beaver Falls, and William Weckerly, Heather Trailer Court, New Brighton, burglary May 4 at William A. Dickey & Sons Variety Store in Negley.

Judge Sharp ordered a presentence investigation and report in each case.

Not guilty pleas also were made by Vernon Kubankin, 20, of Salem RD 1, charged with perjury May 8 in the Common Pleas Court burglary trial of Dennis D. Hunter, 18, of Salem, and Bary Lee Humphrey, 22; Ricky L. Chapman, 20, and Delbert H. Flitcraft, 18, all of Alliance, malicious entry June 8 at the Knox Township cottage of Dr. C. J. Lehwald, Salem physician.

Poor Pitching

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — It sounds like the married men against the single men at the office picnic. Denver University scored four in the ninth to beat Air Force Academy 33-29 in a baseball marathon in which the teams collected 57 hits in nearly five hours of scrambling. Denver used seven pitchers, the Cadets five.

Rockefeller Ads Hit By Ex-Official

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The man who headed this city's government during the 1964 racial rioting says Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has been "victimized by some sharp ad writer."

Porter W. Homer, now county manager of Dade County, Fla., referred to newspaper advertisements' bearing Rockefeller's facsimile signature, that claimed "the streets of Rochester were safe" soon after state police were sent into the city on the governor's order. The advertisements were part of Rockefeller's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Homer, who worked under a Democratic administration in Rochester, told the Rochester Times-Union in a telephone interview Wednesday from Miami that the ad-writer had "shaped the facts about the riot to suit his purpose."

"First of all," Homer said "it was a tremendously united effort among city, county and state police, which all seems to be forgotten by the ad-writer. Things didn't stop until the National Guard was brought in and, contrary to what the ad says, they were used."

The advertisement, published in many newspapers Monday, said that at 4:30 a.m. July 25, 1964, Rockefeller was notified from Rochester that local police had lost control.

Westmoreland Receives Oath As Chief Of Staff

WASHINGTON (AP) — Standing ramrod-straight under the approving eye of his commander in chief, Gen. William Childs Westmoreland became Army chief of staff Wednesday amid Pentagon pomp and ceremony.

President Johnson paid a surprise visit to the Defense Department to see "Westy" sworn as the Army's 25th chief, and the graying, four-star general beamed with pleasure.

When the oath had been administered and Westmoreland pledged loyalty to "the authorities above me and the troops under me," Johnson told him: "Nice going."

Then the party stepped outside where the President stood in the moist grass of a warm morning to see Westmoreland accorded full military honors.

Howitzers boomed a 19-gun salute, troops of the Army's "Old Guard" from nearby Ft. Meyer, Va., stood rigid, and Westmoreland marched by in a ceremonial inspection.

The President, dressed in a brown suit, stood with Westmoreland's wife Katherine—"Kitsy," they call her—and after it was all over he gave her a kiss.

Gen. and Mrs. Westmoreland had spent the night at the White House while their new residence, Quarters No. 1 at Ft. Meyer, was being arranged.

Mrs. Westmoreland, a brunette with streaks of silver, was at his side in a rose-linen dress as Westmoreland took the oath from Adjutant Gen. Kenneth G. Wickham over a black bible opened to the 24th pslam.

Westmoreland paid tribute to the people who supported him during his 4½-year Vietnam command, the troops as well as his predecessor, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, who retired as Chief of Staff Tuesday, and the other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

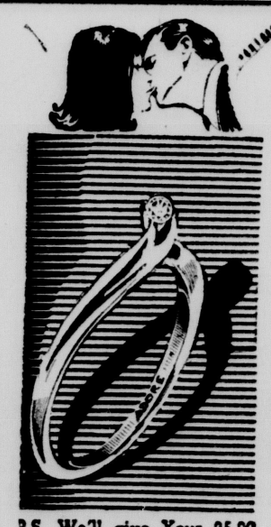

"For them I have the greatest admiration and the recognition that has been given to me today is in large measure a result of their steadfast efforts," Westmoreland said.

The ceremony took place in the office of Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor, who said Westmoreland had served with distinction "in as difficult an assignment as any American commader has had."

The nave of St. Peter's, world's largest church, stretches an eighth of a mile and 80,000 people crowd into the church for special events, such as a canonization.

Trade Pacts Are Delayed By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation President Johnson is seeking that would ratify trade agreements hammered out in the past two years may be dropped by the wayside as Congress plods toward adjournment.

However, chances are even less bright for a batch of bills administration-opposed to set quotas or other import restrictions for the benefit of individual U.S. industries.

The House Ways and Means Committee ended prolonged hearings Tuesday on trade policy.

Committee sources say there is no chance of a trade bill passing if Congress achieves the goal publicly announced by its leaders—to adjourn by Aug. 2.

However, if Congress comes back into session during the two weeks between the Republican and the Democratic conventions in August, there is a chance the House would pass a trade bill. If it comes back in September for a more prolonged windup session, there is a chance to get the bill through the Senate and to the President.

As for protectionist bills, the only measure given a chance for approval now by the Ways and Means Committee is one restricting textile imports. But its chances of passage on the floor are rated poor.

The legislation the administration is interested in would revive trade negotiating authority, which has now lapsed, and would bring into force a supplementary agreement on chemical tariffs.

Penalties Fixed In Traffic Cases

John C. Soriano, Niles, passing traffic in a hazardous zone, $15 and costs; Nicholas P. Coma, Toronto, failure to obey traffic signal, $10, and Barry S. James, Lisbon., speeding, and Roger E. Kelch, Lisbon RD 5, permitting load (slag) to fall on highway, $5 each.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Larry G. Jones, Smithfiel W. Va., passing traffic at hill crest, and Daniel P. Summers, Leetonia, speeding, $20 each, and John Carbone, New Castle, failure to display slow-moving-vehicle emblem, and Arnold L. Croston, Canton, and Anthony Plumneo, Louisville, both charged with failure to wear protective helmets on motorcycles, $15 each.

Hitchhiker Receives Suspended Sentence

LISBON — Cleared of a malicious entry charge by a lie detector test, Mathew Carroll, 44, of Fayetteville, Ark., pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property Tuesday before Judge J. L. MacDonald in Columbiana County Southwest Court.

Carroll was sentenced to 60 days (suspended) in the County Jail and the judge gave him credit for time in jail to erase the $5 court costs.

Carroll, a hitchhiker, left town immediately, got as far as Salem, then returned when he remembered he did not get his driver's license when checking out of jail.

Carroll was charged with taking a set of golf clubs June 25 from an enclosed porch at the Kenneth Morris residence, 816 N. Market St. The defendant said a youth who gave him a lift stole the clubs. Carroll did admit selling them to a local businessman. Police were unable to locate the thief.

A Slight Error

NEW DELHI (AP) — India has steadfastly maintained during its 20-year duel with Pakistan over Kashmir state that Kashmir is an "integral part" of India. Thus an embarrassed parliament, informed that the Kashmir Trade Agent in Bombay was listed in the telephone directory under foreign trade commissioners, quickly ordered the directory to be amended.

It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized by pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore."

Stargell, Clendenon Homers Pace Pirates Over Mets 8-1

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

His brother Ken, of the Dodgers, is last among NL third-basemen with the glove. Ken is hitting .329 and Clete .203, however.

RICH McKINNEY, former Ohio U. shortstop now playing for Evansville, Ind. in the Southern League, played a nine-inning game at shortstop without having a fielding chance recently.

A REAL rarity occurred at the Leffingwell Country Club in Youngstown over the weekend. A fivesome, playing a 175-yard hole, recorded scores of 1,2,3,4, and 5. Nick Goulish got the ace.

RAY SCOTT, topflight sportscaster originally from the Pittsburgh area, has switched from the Green Bay Packers to the Chicago Bears.

Ryan Routed, Blass Winner

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Stargell, who murders the New York Mets, hit a two-run homer and Donn Clendenon also homered for Pittsburgh Wednesday in an 8-1 romp behind Steve Blass.

Stargell, batting .331 against Met pitching, hammered his 14th homer during a four-run fourth inning explosion against Nolan Ryan. It was Stargell's third this season and 28th lifetime against the Mets.

The Mets struck first, scoring in the second on a walk to Ron Swoboda and successive singles by Ed Kranepool and Al Weis. Maury Wills walked, took second on an error and interference by Kranepool, moved to third on Gene Alley's single and scored when Roberto Clemente forced Alley in the fourth. Stargell followed with his homer over the right field wall and Clendenon hit his sixth of the season over the left center fence.

Ryan was chased in the sixth on Carl Taylor and Alley's two run singles.

Beaver Local Names Bryan Head Coach

Dick Bryan, who was an assistant last season, was named head football coach at Beaver Local High School yesterday.

The announcement was made by superintendent Roy Cashdollar. Bryan replaces Don Ross, who took an assistant's job at Canton South.

Bryan is a native of Chester and still resides there. He is a graduate of Chester High and Marshall University. He was an assistant coach at Chester and at East Liverpool before moving to Beaver Local two years ago.

Cashdollar said there were 10 applicants for the job.

At Columbus Next Week

Public Links Golfers Favored In State Play

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Columbus Country Club's plush 6,900-yard layout will be the scene of action next Tuesday when 212 of the state's top amateur players open first round action.

The field will be cut to the low 60 scorers and ties after 36 holes with the survivors battling 18 holes on Thursday and Friday for the coveted championship.

Seven former Amateur champs are in the star-studded field that also includes defending king Lalu Sabotin. The Warred fireman won last year's event at the Beechmont Country Club in Cleveland by one stroke over 22-year-old Bob Afton of Northfield. Sabotin had a 72-hole score of 292.

In winning, Sabotin became only the second public links golfer ever to cop the amateur. Carl Unis of Cleveland turned the trick in 1964.

A fellow fireman from Warren who holds the Ohio Public Links crown also is entered. He is Leo Zampedro, a tough competitor who once finished runnerup in the national public links event.

Sabotin and Zampedro head the list of 16 fees playing golfers in the five - day tourney, which opens Monday with a practice round.

The other titlists include Dick Flockenzier of Mansfield, the 1965 victory; Bob Bourne of Oberlin, who won in 1963; two-time champ Tony Blom of Cincinnati, who scored in 1959 and 1962, Columbus' Dan Carmichael, who triumphed in 1960; Walter Sahl of Cleveland, the 1961 winner and veteran Ed Preisler of Cleveland, who won way back in 1946.

Alou Brothers To Play

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle, two of baseball's superstars, will be members of the squads, but not starters, in Tuesday night's All-Star game at the Astrodome in Houston.

Mays, 37, was among the nine extra players picked Wednesday by Red Schoendienst, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, to round out his 25-man National League club. It was the 15th straight year for Willie.

The San Francisco centerfielder holds All-Star records with 22 hits, 19 runs and six stolen bases in 18 previous games.

Schoendienst also picked the Alou brothers, Felipe of Atlanta, and Matty of Pittsburgh as his extra outfielders, and Tom Haller of Los Angeles and Johnny Bench of Cincinnati as his back-up catchers.

The reserve National League infield, selected by Schoendienst, had Rusty Staub of Houston on first base, Julian Javier of St. Louis on second, Gene Alley of Pittsburgh at short and Tony Perez of Cincinnati at third.

Juan Marichal of San Francisco, the majors' first 15-game winner of 1968, had been named previously to the eight-man National League staff that included right-handers Don Drysdale of Los Angeles, Bob Gibson of St. Louis, Ron Reed of Atlanta and Tom Seaver of New York. Schoendienst had picked three left-handers—Jerry Koosman of New York, Steve Carlton of St. Louis and Woody Fryman of Philadelphia.

The starting line-up, exclusive of pitchers, had been named by the vote of players, coaches and managers.

National League starters will be Willie McCovey of San Francisco at first, Tommy Helms of Cincinnati at second, Don Kessinger of Chicago at short, Ron Santo of Chicago at third, Pete Rose of Cincinnati, Curt Flood of St. Louis and Hank Aaron of Atlanta in the outfield and Jerry Grote of New York catching. Helms will play on special leave from the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves, who gave him permission to miss one day of his two weeks summer training.

Dave Bristol of Cincinnati and Herman Franks of San Francisco were picked as coaches by Schoendienst.

It was the second straight year Mays had not been selected as a starter. He opened in 14 straight games from 1957 through 1966.

Mantle, 36, named to the squad by Manager Dick Williams of Boston earlier this week, probably will appear only as a pinchhitter. The New York Yankees' star was picked for the 16th year.

The American League starters will be Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota at first, Rod Carew of Minnesota at second, Jim Fregosi of California at short, Brooks Robinson of Baltimore at third, Frank Howard of Washington, Willie Horton of Detroit and Carl Yastrzemski of Boston in the outfield and Bill Freehan of Detroit catcher.

Williams has a seven-man pitching staff including two left-handers, Sam McDowell of Cleveland and Tommy John of Chicago. The righthanders are Denny McLain of Detroit, Mel Stottlemyre of New York, Jose Santiago of Boston, Blue Moon Odom of Oakland and Luis Tiant of Cleveland.

In addition to Mantle, Williams will have available as reserves Boog Powell of Baltimore at first, Dave Johnson of Baltimore at second, Bert Campaneris of Oakland at short, Don Wert of Detroit at third, Rick Monday of Oakland, Ken Harrelson of Boston and Tony Oliva of Minnesota in the outfield and Joe Azcue of Cleveland and Duane Josephson of Chicago as catchers.

Milt Pappas Blanks Giants For Braves

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Felipe Alou stroked a leadoff home run starting Milt Pappas and the Atlanta Braves to a 2-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday.

Alou belted loser Gaylord Perry's second pitch over the right field screen and Pappas made it stand up for his third straight victory since joining the Braves in a six-player trade with Cincinnati.

Pappas, 5-5 over-all, also stretched his scoreless inning streak to 21 2-3 before being lifted for a pinch-runner in the eighth. He has allowed two earned runs in 30 2-3 innings with his new club.

Perry, now 7-5, allowed Atlanta only two singles after Alou's seventh homer of the season, and was lifted for a pinch-hitter after seven innings.

Pappas opened the eighth with a single and went to third when Willie McCovey threw wildly into center field on Alou's bunt. Felix Millan ran for Pappas and scored on Henry Aaron's sacrifice fly.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceeding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answer may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesday.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was again the winner of the quiz this week, with seven right answers, including one of the two sneaky questions. He knew Pimm's Cup has nothing to do with sports, but is actually a drink. The Semple Cup is awarded to the club champion at Sewickley Heights Golf Course. Vodrey also missed on the Calder Cup and Lambert Cup. The Calder Cup is awarded to the American Hockey League champion and the Lambert Cup-not to be confused with the Lambert Trophy or Lambert Bowl, is awarded to the top eastern small college football team.

Vodrey was right on the Curtis Cup, which is competed for by U.S. and British amateur women golfers; the Ryder Cup, U.S. and British pro men golfers; the Wightman Cup, U.S. and British amateur women tennis players; the Canada Cup, two-men pro golf teams from all over the world; World Cup, best national soccer team; and the Prince of Wales Trophy, winner of the regular season NHL championship.

This week's questions:

1. Name three teams that were members of the Negro Baseball League beside the Homestead Grays.
2. Who are generally acknowledged to have been the top pitcher and batter in the league?
3. Who was known as the "Babe Ruth of Puerto Rico"?
4. Who was the first Negro pro basketball coach?
5. Name a famous touring, clowning basketball team besides the Harlem Globetrotters.
6. Who was the only Negro ever to play in the National Hockey League?
7. What former Negro Pirate player became a minor-league manager?
8. What former Steeler is now head coach at a Negro college in the South?
9. What do Edwin Roberts, Olympic athlete from Trinidad, and Richard Sligh, seven-foot defensive end for the Oakland Raiders, have in common?
10. To what college did Willie Mays recently make a large contribution?

Laver, Roche Make Finals

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Australians Rod Laver and Tony Roche saved face for the pros Wednesday by crushing United States amateurs Arthur Ashe and Clark Graebner in the singles semifinals of Wimbledon's first Open Lawn Tennis Championships.

Laver's triumph followed the victory of Roche, a 22-year-old left-hander and 15th seed, over the 24-year-old unseeded Graebner of New York, 9-7, 8-10, 6-4, 8-6.

Now Laver, the 1961 and 1962 Wimbledon champion as an amateur will face the recent pro for the title and $4,000 first prize on Friday.

This will be the eighth Australian final in 12 years.

But there was more hope for another American victory in the women's singles. Mrs. Billie Jean King, the new pro and Wimbledon queen the last two years, and Nancy Richey, the No. 1 amateur from San Angelo, Tex., reached the semifinals and appeared headed for another showdown in the final. Nancy has beaten Billie Jean in their last two meetings.

Mrs. King downed Mrs. Lesley Turner Bowrey, 6-3, 6-4, and will meet English pro Mrs. Ann Jones Thursday. Mrs. Jones routed Francoise Durr, the French pro, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Richey easily subdued Brazil's Maria Bueno, a three-time Wimbledon champion, 6-4, 6-2, sweeping six straight games in the final set. She will face Judy Tegart, conqueror of Mrs. Margaret Smith Court in an all-Aussie match, 4-6, 8-6, 6-1. Mrs. Court won Wimbledon in 1963 and 1965, then retired for a year.

The women's final is scheduled for Saturday.

Pension Plan Stalemated

Strike By NFL Players Appears Set Wednesday

CHICAGO (AP)—While opposing leaders remained ominously silent, a strike by National Football League players over a stalemate on pension appeared imminent Wednesday.

1. The NFL players' Association sent telegrams to its members urging them not to report to training camps opening for 10 of the NFL's 16 clubs next week.

2. The latest player strike vote was a favoring 563 to 39.

3. Each club player chapter was setting up a "strike headquarters."

4. Club owners may not budge from their three-point compromise offer.

One player from a midwest NFL club who declined to be identified said the players accepted two of the three concessions proffered by the owners.

The player contended the owners refused any increase.

A NFL insider, however, said the owner offered a 25 per cent yearly $900,000 for two years.

The NFL players originally asked an overall pension contribution of $5 million.

The Detroit meeting brought accord on a reported offer by the owners to nearly match a player demand for a $15,000 salary minimum and also on a pay scale for training and exhibition play.

During the training period, it was learned, the owners offered to pay the usual $10 per day to each player, with this scale for exhibition games: A two-year player would get $70 per game; a three-year man $140; a four-year man $210 and a five-year man and over $280.

Tip's Boy Pays $98 In 2nd At Waterford

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Scraps Put To Good Use

DEAR HELOISE: In answer to the lady's request for ideas using drapery and upholstery scraps—here goes:

Heloise

Make beautiful blouses and dresses (which are not only unusual but wear exceptionally well aprons, head scarves, tablecloths, napkins, placemats and dresser scarves — either self-fringed or trimmed with rickrack.

Also pot holders, kitchen appliance covers, throw pillows, shopping bags, patch quilts, doll clothes and lamp shade covers.

Make zippered purses, umbrella sheaths, chair pads, shoe bags, book covers and zippered pencil bags for school children, make-up and roller bags for the gals and tobacco pouches (lined in heavy plastic) for the fellas.

All these things make appreicated gifts, not only because they were made by you, but because of the unique color, pattern and durable fabric they are made from.

MRS. C. ZIELINSKI.

Thanks, hon, for telling us about the many things you made.

They make wall hangings — framed or unframed. Picture mats, vacuum bottle covers, laundry bags, glass cases, arm rests and facial tissue cases for the purse. Wastebaskets and pencil can covers, etc., etc.

So, gals, all of you that are fortunate enough to have these lovely scraps laying around — now that you know of the many things that can be done with them — get busy and sew-up-a-storm! Think how these would sell at bazaars!

And to all you dolls that were kind enough to write and help our friend, we sure are grateful. We love you!

HELOISE.

Well, my mother and I are also plagued by this space, but we use it to a decorative advantage. We display plants and various colorful glass items up there.

"NIBS".

DEAR HELOISE: Butter is messy when soft and slides off its little dish.

So if you want soft butter with no mess, just use the cover or lid of your butter dish instead of the dish itself. Of course, your cover must be flat on top so it will set steady when turned upside down. It's deeper than the bottom so there's no mess at all.

MRS. A. T.

LETTER OF THOUGHT

DEAR HELOISE: You know managing a home is a BIG business! The homemaker is really the manager in charge of purchasing. And like any other business, she must never stop learning, experimenting and seeking new ideas.

If a homemaker really works at it, it can be just as successful as a thriving business—don't you agree?

HOMEMAKER.

I sure do, pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Like all small children, my little ones have trouble putting the towel back on the bar in the bathroom.

I bought another towel bar and had my husband attach it to the wall two feet from the floor, UNDER the regular one. So there would be no overlap, he moved the regular bar up about a foot.

We use the higher bar and the children seem to enjoy having their own mini-towel rack.

DOROTHY CRAIN.

DEAR HELOISE: A pair of old scissors is so handy to have around.

I use mine to clip beet and carrot tops, remove cucumbers, pumpkins, etc., from the vines, or to snip off greens and lettuce so they will keep on producing.

MRS. E. REEKIE.

Penn Central To Build New Freight Yard

CINCINNATI (AP) — Alfred Perlman, president of Penn Central Railroad said a $26 million freight yard which will be built near Columbus is part of the railroad's long-range plan to combat waning revenue of passenger service.

"Last year we lost over 85 million in our passenger business, and this year the deficit is running at an annual rate in excess of 100 million," he said Tuesday at a meeting here of freight shippers and captains of industry.

Essential passenger service, such as commuter operations and certain types of intercity service would continue, Perlman said. "But we are seeking to phase out long-haul trains which the public no longer needs or uses."

Construction of the freight yard is scheduled to begin in the near future and will be located near Hilliard, just west of Columbus.

Perlman and Chairman Stuart T. Saunders spoke later Tuesday before Penn Central shippers in Cleveland, saying that stock of the railroad has increased more than 50 per cent since the merger last Feb. 1.

"But railroads today are in serious financial trouble. The time has come for the government to decide whether it wants to keep the railroads in the free enterprise system," he said.

Shipyard Workers Approve 3 Year Pact

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Agreement was reached Tuesday on a new three-year contract for 20,000 West Coast shipyard workers.

The settlement was reached after nine weeks of negotiations between representatives of the AFL-CIO Pacific Coast Metal Trades District Council and the Pacific Coast Shipbuilders Association. The old contract expired at midnight June 30.

Spokesmen for both sides said details of the pact will not be released until the contract is submitted to membership approval by referendum voting in California, Oregon and Washington. Results of the referendum are expected to be announced July 15.

Union representatives said they would urge approval of the new contract.

Crucible Plans To Offer Discounts On Stainless

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Corp. confirmed reports Tuesday that it is giving discount prices on large purchases of stainless steel sheet by major distributors.

A spokesman for the specialty steel maker said, "This is evidence of Crucible's intent to combat foreign steel by price competition in volume contracts."

He said the discounts have been give distributors who agree to buy so many dollars worth of stainless sheet over a period of time.

The spokesman stressed that the deals have been made only with major distributors and only for stainless sheet.

Crucible declined to give any other details about the agreements.

Crucible said foreign steel firms now supply about 40 per cent of the stainless sheet demand in the United States. Prices vary, the spokesman said but generally foreign producers have been underselling U. S. producers by five to 10 per cent.

"In order to help distributors and retain our share of the market," the spokesman said, "we undertook the discussions with major distributors on the feasibility of passing on cost savings that can be justified by minimum purchase contracts."

He noted that the production costs are less for large volume orders, and it is these savings which can be passed on to distributors in the form of discounts.

Judge Tells Father To Whip Youth

PT. PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP) —There was no sparing of the rod in the court of Judge James Thompson here Tuesday when he ordered a father to administer 15 lashes on a son up for a probation hearing.

The whipping took place in Judge Thompson's Mason County Circuit Court where the probation hearing was being held for Otto Allen Lee, 19. The youth's father, Rolfe Lee of Gallipolis Ferry, W. Va., also was in court.

Then the judge asked the youth how he could stay out of trouble if given probation when he couldn't stay out of trouble while awaiting probation.

The judge pondered, and then told Lee he didn't know what to do with him, and that he might have to send him to the penitentiary.

The father said what his son needed "was a good whipping."

It was then the judge ordered the father to give the son 15 lashes with his belt — ordering the son to lean over a seat.

The father complied with the whipping order then sat down and cried.

Ohio Lake Report

Early Morning, Late Evening Best Fish Time

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Early morning and late evening should be the best time for fishing in most of Ohio's lakes and streams, the Ohio Division of Wildlife said Wednesday, aiming their report at fishermen expected to take to the outdoors during the long July 4 holiday period.

The outlook by areas:

Hoover Reservoir–Normal and clear at 77 degrees – catching walleyes, crappies, and a few bass and bullheads.

Upper portions Sandusky, Huron, Blanchard, and Auglaize Rivers-somewhat high and roily with temperatures from 75 to 80 degrees – producing smallmouth bass and rock bass.

Lima and Findlay reservoirs – Normal and clear–temperatures from 75 to 78 degrees – catching walleyes and northern pike.

Lake Erie–General conditions fair after the high winds of the past week temperatures in western basin of Lake Erie averaging 70 degrees–perch fishing remains fair – freshwater drum still biting well – walleye fishing has improved with some limit catches reported – best areas for walleyes are reef areas–channel catfish are biting well along shorelines of Catawba Island and the Bay Bridge in Sandusky Bay–prospects for fishing should be fair providing we have good weather.

S. African Sprinter Runs 10.0 100-Meters

By The Associated Press

A South African who won't be able to compete in the Olympics, matched the listed world mark in the 100-meter dash—and wasn't satisfied.

And the fastest mile of the year was recorded, with four men under four minutes, as the highlights of a couple of major international track and field meets in Europe Tuesday.

Paul Nash of South Africa, fighting a mild headwind, tied the world record of 10 seconds flat in a meet at Zurich, Switzerland. Ron Jones of Britain was second in 10.4 and Hansruedi Wildmer third in 10.5.

Nash, who won't be able to compete in the Olympics because of the South African ban, has been clocked in 10 flat several times. Three Americans, Charlie Greene, Ronnie Ray Smith and Jim Hines, were timed in 9.9 seconds at Sacramento, Calif., June 21.

"The headwind did not bother me very much," Nash said. "But I wished I had stronger men running against me, perhaps some of the Americans. That might have brought a world record."

Nash also won the 200 meters in 20.1, running on a synthetic track, similar to the surface that will be used in the Olympics at Mexico City.

Vera Nikolic of Yugoslavia won the women's 800 meters in 2:02.2, the world's best time this season, while a French relay team won the men's 400-meter relay in 39 seconds flat, just four-tenths of a second off the listed record.

In Stockholm, Sweden, Bodo Tuemmler of West Germany rerecorded the fastest mile of the year, 3:54.7. He was followed by Andre de Hertoghe of Belgium, 3:56; Werner Gosewinkel of West Germany, 3:59.1; and Alberto Esteban of Spain, 3:59.2.

Among the Russian winners were Valeri Skovrtsov, high jump, 7-1½; Anatoly Kuryan, 3,000-meter steeplechase, 8:33; Janis Luis, javelin, 285-4½; and Victor Saneev, triple jump, 54-11¾.

Cardinals Get 2 Picks For Fischer

WASHINGTON (AP) — St. Louis was awarded two of Washington's future picks in the pro football draft Wednesday as compensation for veteran cornerback Pat Fischer, who signed with the Redskins after playing out his option.

Rozelle, who intervened after the two teams failed to reach agreement, gave St. Louis the Redskins' second-round draft choice for next year and their third-round pick in 1970.

Paul Brown Sells Cleveland Stock

Cubs' Rally Falls Short, Phillies Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Mike Ryan's fourth-inning single gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 victory over Chicago Wednesday as a ninth-inning Cub rally fell short.

Larry Jackson took a 3-0 lead to the ninth inning but ran into trouble and had to be rescued by Chris Short, who finally put down the Cub threat after two runs were scored.

Singles by Willie Smith and Adolfo Phillips finished Jackson with one out. Short walked pinch hitter Gene Oliver, loading the bases. After Don Kessinger struck out, Glenn Beckert singled, driving in two runs. Short then struck out Billy Williams to end it.

Waterford Has Twinbill On Holiday

Waterford Park, enjoying its best racing season in history, will present a doubleheader program today with 18 events scheduled.

There will be a 10-race program during the afternoon, and an eight race program that night. Post time for the afternoon program is 1:30, while the evening card is slated to begin at 7:15. A total of seven perfectas will be offered, plus a pair of daily doubles. One admission fee covers both programs.

Highlighting the afternoon program is the six furlong Independence Day Purse. The evening program is headed by the Firecracker Purse, also a six furlong event.

Five Moons has been named the 8-5 favorite in the Independence Day, a fair price considering that he will be ridden by leading jockey Bill Sollars. Others named for the Independence Day are Circle Eye, Kathy Gray, Cherry O., Miss Ranie J., Sayaslam, Janssen and Misty Whirl.

Sollars stands a chance of winning both feature attractions, as he is listed to ride San Martin in the Firecracker. San Martin, who was second last time out, also figures at 8-5. The Firecracker has also attracted Press Conference, Bold Tor, Fleet Tony, Spring Storm, Walnut John, Lost Lady and the entry of Duc L. and Shively.

In addition, holiday racegoers will be treated to a pair of grass races. Both turf events are listed to be run at the one mile distance, with the first going as the sixth race on the afternoon card. The second will be run as the third race on the evening card.

Damascus, Dr. Fager Battle At Aqueduct

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Damascus and Dr. Fager, the two outstanding handicap racers who are tied at 1-1 in their rivalry, will battle it out Thursday with four other entries in the $108,100 Suburban Handicap of 1¼ miles at Aqueduct.

Ycaza will try for a unique Aqueduct-Monmouth double within about an hour. The Panamanian has arranged for a helicopter to take him to the New Jersey track where he is scheduled to ride the formidable little Dark Mirage in the $50,000 Monmouth Oaks.

The stretch-running Damascus, an entry with his pace-setting rabbit, Hedevar, will carry 133 pounds to Dr. Fager's 132. Braulia Baeza will be aboard Dr. Fager, owned by William McKnight of Minneapolis. Hedevar will carry 112 pounds.

Dr. Fager, winner of his two starts this year, was made the even money favorite in the morning line. Damascus was rated at 6-5.

At the weights, In Reality, at 125, and Bold Hour, 116, have to be given a chance of upsetting the Big Two. Amerigo Lady, a 4-year-old filly, is the lightweight at 110 and a 50-1 longshot.

Fine Of $150 Given Driver

Cited after a hit - skip accident June 23 on Chester Ave., Robert James Graham, 25, of 636½ Avondale St. was fined $150 and costs Wednesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated.

Graham also was given a suspended 10-day jail term on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. Police alleged his car hit a parked 1959 model sedan owned by Edith Mae Chrest of 737 Chester Ave. The court instructed Graham to pay for damages to the Chrest car, estimated at about $130.

Graham originally was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, but the count was reduced on motion of Solicitor J. Michael Kapp.

Francine Koza of Weirton paid a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts. She was cited at 3:37 this morning by Patrolman Arthur Peters. Keith A. Johnston of 1253 Croft St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge of crashing a lite at 4th and Market Sts. Tuesday at 4 a. m. He failed to appear for a scheduled hearing yesterday and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

George E. Pinkerton of 1123 White St., Wellsville, was ordered to pay court costs on a charge of operating a vehicle with improper registration. The Ohio Highway Patrol, which cited him June 25, said Pinkerton was using a passenger car plate on an auto which had been converted into a pickup truck.

Warden Sets Restrictions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warden Ernest Maxwell said today Ohio Penitentiary inmates were confined to their cells in the wake of what was described as a new outbreak of unrest.

They'll stay in the cells, he said "until things simmer down.

On Tuesday about 400 to 500 inmates who have been on clean-up details since order was restored following last week's rioting and fire, went on a sit-down strike, the warden said. He added that no trouble resulted, but that the men were returned to the cells to "rest." Included in the strikers were dining hall workers.

The warden attributed the work stoppage to the fact the men "are dog tired" after laboring long periods to clear up riot damage.

"We're all tired," the warden commented.

He indicated there may have been some intimidation of the workers by men who have been confined to cells since the June 24 outbreak.

Warden Maxwell said the inmates would be confined to their cells until at least Friday, when further efforts at forming work details will be made.

Recreation Aired For Kiwanis Club

The proposed citywide recreation program for adults and youngsters was outlined for the Kiwanis Club Wednesday by Frank Moss, ex - president of the Jaycees who are sponsoring the campaign.

Moss screened a film of a similar project in Flint, Mich., in which the community developed a year - round organized program of sports and recreation.

Moss said some $1,200 has been contributed so far to a city campaign to raise $6,000 to hire a fulltime recreation director. Council has agreed to provide funds for the post in 1969 if the job can be filled this year.

Moss explained federal funds are available for such a program, but only if a full-time director is employed.

The importance of recreation and use of facilities was underscored in terms of individual health, youth development and community growth.

A cultivated plant's origin can be best ascertained by finding the place where ancestral forms still grow wild. For example, the riddle of the watermelon's origin was solved when David Livingston, the explorer, found wild watermelons growing profusely in central Africa.

Aide Begins Duty

Eyerman of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was assigned here by VISTA (Volunteers In Service To America) to conduct long-range planning in line with new CAA regulations.

The two men reported on current summer programs in the county. Some 165 youngsters are in the "Head Start" classes for pre - school children at seven sites—East Palestine, Lisbon, Rogers, and two each at East Liverpool and Wellsville.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps is providing summer employment for 60 young adults from 11 schools in the county, supplying needed services for various communities while learning job skills.

The CAA also operates neighborhood centers at East Liverpool and Salineville, providing recreational and educational opportunities for youth of the area with five staff members and 15 fulltime aides.

Westmoreland Receives Oath As Chief Of Staff

President Johnson paid a surprise visit to the Defense Department to see "Westy" sworn as the Army's 25th chief, and the graying, four-star general beamed with pleasure.

When the oath had been administered and Westmoreland pledged loyalty to "the authorities above me and the troops under me," Johnson told him: "Nice going."

Then the party stepped outside where the President stood in the moist grass of a warm morning to see Westmoreland accorded full military honors.

Howitzers boomed a 19-gun salute, troops of the Army's "Old Guard" from nearby Ft. Meyer, Va., stood rigid, and Westmoreland marched by in a ceremonial inspection.

The President, dressed in a brown suit, stood with Westmoreland's wife Katherine—"Kitsy," they call her—and after it was all over he gave her a kiss.

Gen. and Mrs. Westmoreland had spent the night at the White House while their new residence, Quarters No. 1 at Ft. Meyer, was being arranged.

Mrs. Westmoreland, a brunette with streaks of silver, was at his side in a rose-linen dress as Westmoreland took the oath from Adjutant Gen. Kenneth G. Wickham over a black bible opened to the 24th pslam.

Westmoreland paid tribute to the people who supported him during his 4½-year Vietnam command, the troops as well as his predecessor, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, who retired as Chief of Staff Tuesday, and the other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

"For them I have the greatest admiration and the recognition that has been given to me today is in large measure a result of their steadfast efforts," Westmoreland said.

The ceremony took place in the office of Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor, who said Westmoreland had served with distinction "in as difficult an assignment as any American commader has had."

The nave of St. Peter's, world's largest church, stretches an eighth of a mile and 80,000 people crowd into the church for special events, such as a canonization.

Court Studies 4 Guilty Pleas

LISBON — Four of the nine persons indicted June 26 by the Columbiana County grand jury pleaded guily Wednesday before Judge Joel H. Sharp in Common Pleas Court.

Admitting the charges and requesting probation were Benjamin Irvine of 21 5th St., Midland, issuing a fraudulent $54 check Jan. 21, 1967, to Jerome R. Glonek, manager, at the Thrifty City store in East Liverpool.

Cornelius Cronin III of 2101 25th St., Beaver Falls, and William Weckerly, Heather Trailer Court, New Brighton, burglary May 4 at William A. Dickey & Sons Variety Store in Negley.

Judge Sharp ordered a presentence investigation and report in each case.

Not guilty pleas also were made by Vernon Kubankin, 20, of Salem RD 1, charged with perjury May 8 in the Common Pleas Court burglary trial of Dennis D. Hunter, 18, of Salem, and Bary Lee Humphrey, 22; Ricky L. Chapman, 20, and Delbert H. Flitcraft, 18, all of Alliance, malicious entry June 8 at the Knox Township cottage of Dr. C. J. Lehwald, Salem physician.

Poor Pitching

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — It sounds like the married men against the single men at the office picnic. Denver University scored four in the ninth to beat Air Force Academy 33-29 in a baseball marathon in which the teams collected 57 hits in nearly five hours of scrambling. Denver used seven pitchers, the Cadets five.

Rockefeller Ads Hit By Ex-Official

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The man who headed this city's government during the 1964 racial rioting says Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has been "victimized by some sharp ad writer."

Porter W. Homer, now county manager of Dade County, Fla., referred to newspaper advertisements' bearing Rockefeller's facsimile signature, that claimed "the streets of Rochester were safe" soon after state police were sent into the city on the governor's order. The advertisements were part of Rockefeller's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Homer, who worked under a Democratic administration in Rochester, told the Rochester Times-Union in a telephone interview Wednesday from Miami that the ad-writer had "shaped the facts about the riot to suit his purpose."

"First of all," Homer said "it was a tremendously united effort among city, county and state police, which all seems to be forgotten by the ad-writer. Things didn't stop until the National Guard was brought in and, contrary to what the ad says, they were used."

The advertisement, published in many newspapers Monday, said that at 4:30 a.m. July 25, 1964, Rockefeller was notified from Rochester that local police had lost control.

mand said 66 enemy soldiers were killed. South Vietnamese losses were listed as 10 killed and 22 wounded.

Airwar Picks Up

The air war also picked up, U.S. planes flying 149 missions Tuesday against North Vietnam's southern panhandle—the most since 155 were flown April 22—and leaving behind a trial of destruction.

Pilots reported 56 fires lit up the countryside, indicating hits on oil and ammunition stores. In their drive to check the flow of enemy soldiers and supplies to South Vietnam, the pilots also said they wrecked 10 river barges, six trucks, four railroad cars, seven antiaircraft sites, and a surface to air missile.

Traffic Toll Predicted At 38 In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio traffic experts looked for as many as 38 traffic deaths in the long July 4 weekend -- but hoping motorists would drive more carefully and make their prediction wrong.

The highway death count extends from 6 p.m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday.

The holiday brings out thousands of motorists visiting relatives, going to picnic, on vacation and other holiday recreation-on top of the normal out-of - state motorist vacation and summer travel.

All available highway patrolmen, bolstered by local police and sheriff's deputies and other auxiliaries, will be on the roads in force attempting to reduce the traffic accident rate.

Linked up with the safety campaign is a program headed by State Treasurer John Herbert commemorating the holiday with the scheduled ringing of bells in all public places at 2 p.m. Thursday--the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The two-fold program carries the same theme as last year--"Bells for Liberty -- Bells for Safety."

The holiday traffic period follows two days in which the state's traffic death toll has been heavy--at least 15 deaths since Tuesday morning, including one accident taking four lives, another three lives and two other accidents two lives each.

Kabobs Prove Tasty Hit

BEEF, LAMB KABOBS

½ pound boned lamb (1½-inch cubes)
1 recipe Marinade
6 small tomatoes or 6 tomato wedges
6 small fresh mushrooms
2 small summer squash (zucchini or crookneck) cut into ¾-inch pieces
1 medium green pepper, cut into 1-inch squares
1 recipe Parsley Rice

Precook onions in lightly salted boiling water until almost tender. Drain and set aside. Mix meat cubes in large bowl or pan with marinade and let stand at least 15 minutes, preferably 2 to 3 hours.

Place skewers on greased, preheated grill or broiler, following manufacturer's directions. Broil, turning skewers occasionally and brushing with remaining marinade, 15 to 25 minutes or until meat is cooked to desired doneness and vegetables are tender. Serve with parsley rice. Makes 4 servings.

Marinade: Mix ½-cup corn oil and ¼-cup cider vinegar. Stir in 1½ teaspoons dry mustard, ½-teaspoon salt, ½-teaspoon each crushed basil, oregano and thyme leaves, ⅛-teaspoon pepper, 1 finely chopped medium onion and 1 finely chopped clove garlic.

RICH McKINNEY, former Ohio U. shortstop now playing for Evansville, Ind. in the Southern League, played a nine-inning game at shortstop without having a fielding chance recently.

A REAL rarity occurred at the Leffingwell Country Club in Youngstown over the weekend. A fivesome, playing a 175-yard hole, recorded scores of 1,2,3,4, and 5. Nick Goulish got the ace.

RAY SCOTT, topflight sportscaster originally from the Pittsburgh area, has switched from the Green Bay Packers to the Chicago Bears.

Ryan Routed, Blass Winner

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Stargell, who murders the New York Mets, hit a two-run homer and Donn Clendenon also homered for Pittsburgh Wednesday in an 8-1 romp behind Steve Blass.

Stargell, batting .331 against Met pitching, hammered his 14th homer during a four-run fourth inning explosion against Nolan Ryan. It was Stargell's third this season and 28th lifetime against the Mets.

The Mets struck first, scoring in the second on a walk to Ron Swoboda and successive singles by Ed Kranepool and Al Weis. Maury Wills walked, took second on an error and interference by Kranepool, moved to third on Gene Alley's single and scored when Roberto Clemente forced Alley in the fourth. Stargell followed with his homer over the right field wall and Clendenon hit his sixth of the season over the left center fence.

Ryan was chased in the sixth on Carl Taylor and Alley's two run singles.

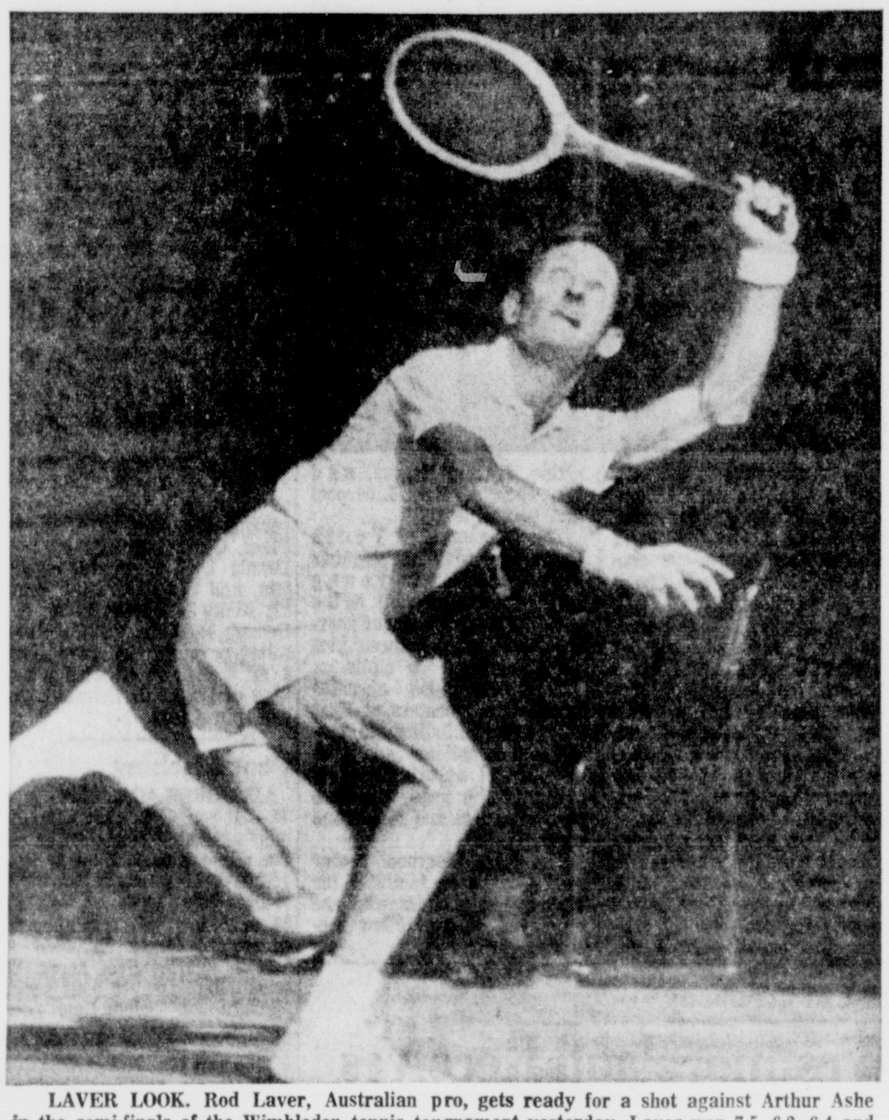

Beaver Local Names Bryan Head Coach

Dick Bryan, who was an assistant last season, was named head football coach at Beaver Local High School yesterday.

The announcement was made by superintendent Roy Cashdollar. Bryan replaces Don Ross, who took an assistant's job at Canton South.

Bryan is a native of Chester and still resides there. He is a graduate of Chester High and Marshall University. He was an assistant coach at Chester and at East Liverpool before moving to Beaver Local two years ago.

Cashdollar said there were 10 applicants for the job.

Laver, Roche Make Finals

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Australians Rod Laver and Tony Roche saved face for the pros Wednesday by crushing United States amateurs Arthur Ashe and Clark Graebner in the singles semifinals of Wimbledon's first Open Lawn Tennis Championships.

Laver's triumph followed the victory of Roche, a 22-year-old left-hander and 15th seed, over the 24-year-old unseeded Graebner of New York, 9-7, 8-10, 6-4, 8-6.

Now Laver, the 1961 and 1962 Wimbledon champion as an amateur will face the recent pro for the title and $4,000 first prize on Friday.

This will be the eighth Australian final in 12 years.

But there was more hope for another American victory in the women's singles. Mrs. Billie Jean King, the new pro and Wimbledon queen the last two years, and Nancy Richey, the No. 1 amateur from San Angelo, Tex., reached the semifinals and appeared headed for another showdown in the final. Nancy has beaten Billie Jean in their last two meetings.

Mrs. King downed Mrs. Lesley Turner Bowrey, 6-3, 6-4, and will meet English pro Mrs. Ann Jones Thursday. Mrs. Jones routed Francoise Durr, the French pro, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Richey easily subdued Brazil's Maria Bueno, a three-time Wimbledon champion, 6-4, 6-2, sweeping six straight games in the final set. She will face Judy Tegart, conqueror of Mrs. Margaret Smith Court in an all-Aussie match, 4-6, 8-6, 6-1. Mrs. Court won Wimbledon in 1963 and 1965, then retired for a year.

The women's final is scheduled for Saturday.

Alou Brothers To Play

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle, two of baseball's superstars, will be members of the squads, but not starters, in Tuesday night's All-Star game at the Astrodome in Houston.

Mays, 37, was among the nine extra players picked Wednesday by Red Schoendienst, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, to round out his 25-man National League club. It was the 15th straight year for Willie.

The San Francisco centerfielder holds All-Star records with 22 hits, 19 runs and six stolen bases in 13 previous games.

Schoendienst also picked the Alou brothers, Felipe of Atlanta, and Matty of Pittsburgh as his extra outfielders, and Tom Haller of Los Angeles and Johnny Bench of Cincinnati as his back-up catchers.

The reserve National League infield, selected by Schoendienst, had Rusty Staub of Houston on first base, Julian Javier of St. Louis on second, Gene Alley of Pittsburgh at short and Tony Perez of Cincinnati at third.

Juan Marichal of San Francisco, the majors' first 15-game winner of 1968, had been named previously to the eight-man National League staff that included right-handers Don Drysdale of Los Angeles, Bob Gibson of St. Louis, Ron Reed of Atlanta and Tom Seaver of New York. Schoendienst had picked three left-handers—Jerry Koosman of New York, Steve Carlton of St. Louis and Woody Fryman of Philadelphia.

The starting line-up, exclusive of pitchers, had been named by the vote of players, coaches and managers.

National League starters will be Willie McCovey of San Francisco at first, Tommy Helms of Cincinnati at second, Don Kessinger of Chicago at short, Ron Santo of Chicago at third, Pete Rose of Cincinnati, Curt Flood of St. Louis and Hank Aaron of Atlanta in the outfield and Jerry Grote of New York catching. Helms will play on special leave from the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves, who gave him permission to miss one day of his two weeks summer training.

Dave Bristol of Cincinnati and Herman Franks of San Francisco were picked as coaches by Schoendienst.

It was the second straight year Mays had not been selected as a starter. He opened in 14 straight games from 1957 through 1966.

Mantle, 36, named to the squad by Manager Dick Williams of Boston earlier this week, probably will appear only as a pinchhitter. The New York Yankees' star was picked for the 16th year.

The American League starters will be Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota at first, Rod Carew of Minnesota at second, Jim Fregosi of California at short, Brooks Robinson of Baltimore at third, Frank Howard of Washington, Willie Horton of Detroit and Carl Yastrzemski of Boston in the outfield and Bill Freehan of Detroit catcher.

Williams has a seven-man pitching staff including two left-handers, Sam McDowell of Cleveland and Tommy John of Chicago. The righthanders are Denny McLain of Detroit, Mel Stottlemyre of New York, Jose Santiago of Boston, Blue Moon Odom of Oakland and Luis Tiant of Cleveland.

In addition to Mantle, Williams will have available as reserves Boog Powell of Baltimore at first, Dave Johnson of Baltimore at second, Bert Campaneris of Oakland at short, Don Wert of Detroit at third, Rick Monday of Oakland, Ken Harrelson of Boston and Tony Oliva of Minnesota in the outfield and Joe Azcue of Cleveland and Duane Josephson of Chicago as catchers.

At Columbus Next Week

Public Links Golfers Favored In State Play

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Columbus Country Club's plush 6,900-yard layout will be the scene of action next Tuesday when 212 of the state's top amateur players open first round action.

The field will be cut to the low 60 scorers and ties after 36 holes with the survivors battling 18 holes on Thursday and Friday for the coveted championship.

Seven former Amateur champs are in the star-studded field that also includes defending king Lalu Sabotin. The Warred fireman won last year's event at the Beechmont Country Club in Cleveland by one stroke over 22-year-old Bob Afton of Northfield. Sabotin had a 72-hole score of 292.

In winning, Sabotin became only the second public links golfer ever to cop the amateur. Carl Unis of Cleveland turned the trick in 1964.

A fellow fireman from Warren who holds the Ohio Public Links crown also is entered. He is Leo Zampedro, a tough competitor who once finished runnerup in the national public links event.

Sabotin and Zampedro head the list of 16 fees playing golfers in the five - day tourney, which opens Monday with a practice round.

The other titlists include Dick Flockenzier of Mansfield, the 1965 victory; Bob Bourne of Oberlin, who won in 1963; two-time champ Tony Blom of Cincinnati, who scored in 1959 and 1962, Columbus' Dan Carmichael, who triumphed in 1960; Walter Sahl of Cleveland, the 1961 winner and veteran Ed Preisler of Cleveland, who won way back in 1946.

Milt Pappas Blanks Giants For Braves

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Felipe Alou stroked a leadoff home run starting Milt Pappas and the Atlanta Braves to a 2-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday.

Alou belted loser Gaylord Perry's second pitch over the right field screen and Pappas made it stand up for his third straight victory since joining the Braves in a six-player trade with Cincinnati.

Pappas, 5-5 over-all, also stretched his scoreless inning streak to 21 2-3 before being lifted for a pinch-runner in the eighth. He has allowed two earned runs in 30 2-3 innings with his new club.

Perry, now 7-5, allowed Atlanta only two singles after Alou's seventh homer of the season, and was lifted for a pinch-hitter after seven innings.

Pappas opened the eighth with a single and went to third when Willie McCovey threw wildly into center field on Alou's bunt. Felix Millan ran for Pappas and scored on Henry Aaron's sacrifice fly.

Pension Plan Stalemated

Strike By NFL Players Appears Set Wednesday

CHICAGO (AP)—While opposing leaders remained ominously silent, a strike by National Football League players over a stalemate on pension appeared imminent Wednesday.

1. The NFL players' Association sent telegrams to its members urging them not to report to training camps opening for 10 of the NFL's 16 clubs next week.

2. The latest player strike vote was a favoring 563 to 39.

3. Each club player chapter was setting up a "strike headquarters."

4. Club owners may not budge from their three-point compromise offer.

One player from a midwest NFL club who declined to be identified said the players accepted two of the three concessions proffered by the owners.

The player contended the owners refused any increase.

A NFL insider, however, said the owner offered a 25 per cent yearly $900,000 for two years.

The NFL players originally asked an overall pension contribution of $5 million.

The Detroit meeting brought accord on a reported offer by the owners to nearly match a player demand for a $15,000 salary minimum and also on a pay scale for training and exhibition play.

During the training period, it was learned, the owners offered to pay the usual $10 per day to each player, with this scale for exhibition games: A two-year player would get $70 per game; a three-year man $140; a four-year man $210 and a five-year man and over $280.

Tip's Boy Pays $93 In 2nd At Waterford

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceeding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answer may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesday.

Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was again the winner of the quiz this week, with seven right answers, including one of the two sneaky questions. He knew Pimm's Cup has nothing to do with sports, but is actually a drink. The Semple Cup is awarded to the club champion at Sewickley Heights Golf Course. Vodrey also missed on the Calder Cup and Lambert Cup. The Calder Cup is awarded to the American Hockey League champion and the Lambert Cup-not to be confused with the Lambert Trophy or Lambert Bowl, is awarded to the top eastern small college football team.

Vodrey was right on the Curtis Cup, which is competed for by U.S. and British amateur women golfers; the Ryder Cup, U.S. and British pro men golfers; the Wightman Cup, U.S. and British amateur women tennis players; the Canada Cup, two-men pro golf teams from all over the world; World Cup, best national soccer team; and the Prince of Wales Trophy, winner of the regular season NHL championship.

This week's questions:

1. Name three teams that were members of the Negro Baseball League beside the Homestead Grays.
2. Who are generally acknowledged to have been the top pitcher and batter in the league?
3. Who was known as the "Babe Ruth of Puerto Rico"?
4. Who was the first Negro pro basketball coach?
5. Name a famous touring, clowning basketball team besides the Harlem Globetrotters.
6. Who was the only Negro ever to play in the National Hockey League?
7. What former Negro Pirate player became a minor-league manager?
8. What former Steeler is now head coach at a Negro college in the South?
9. What do Edwin Roberts, Olympic athlete from Trinidad, and Richard Sligh, seven-foot defensive end for the Oakland Raiders, have in common?
10. To what college did Willie Mays recently make a large contribution?

Ohio Lake Report

Early Morning, Late Evening Best Fish Time

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Early morning and late evening should be the best time for fishing in most of Ohio's lakes and streams, the Ohio Division of Wildlife said Wednesday, aiming their report at fishermen expected to take to the outdoors during the long July 4 holiday period.

The outlook by areas:

Hoover Reservoir—Normal and clear at 77 degrees — catching walleyes, crappies, and a few bass and bullheads.

Upper portions Sandusky, Huron, Blanchard, and Auglaize Rivers-somewhat high and roily with temperatures from 75 to 80 degrees — producing smallmouth bass and rock bass.

Lima and Findlay reservoirs — Normal and clear—temperatures from 75 to 78 degrees — catching walleyes and northern pike.

Lake Erie—General conditions fair after the high winds of the past week temperatures in western basin of Lake Erie averaging 70 degrees—perch fishing remains fair — freshwater drum still biting well — walleye fishing has improved with some limit catches reported — best areas for walleyes are reef areas—channel catfish are biting well along shorelines of Catawba Island and the Bay Bridge in Sandusky Bay—prospects for fishing should be fair providing we have good weather.

S. African Sprinter Runs 10.0 100-Meters

By The Associated Press

A South African who won't be able to compete in the Olympics, matched the listed world mark in the 100-meter dash—and wasn't satisfied.

And the fastest mile of the year was recorded, with four men under four minutes, as the highlights of a couple of major international track and field meets in Europe Tuesday.

Paul Nash of South Africa, fighting a mild headwind, tied the world record of 10 seconds flat in a meet at Zurich, Switzerland. Ron Jones of Britain was second in 10.4 and Hansruedi Wildmer third in 10.5.

Nash, who won't be able to compete in the Olympics because of the South African ban, has been clocked in 10 flat several times. Three Americans, Charlie Greene, Ronnie Ray Smith and Jim Hines, were timed in 9.9 seconds at Sacramento, Calif., June 21.

"The headwind did not bother me very much," Nash said. "But I wished I had stronger men running against me, perhaps some of the Americans. That might have brought a world record."

Nash also won the 200 meters in 20.1, running on a synthetic track, similar to the surface that will be used in the Olympics at Mexico City.

Vera Nikolic of Yugoslavia won the women's 800 meters in 2:02.2, the world's best time this season, while a French relay team won the men's 400-meter relay in 39 seconds flat, just four-tenths of a second off the listed record.

In Stockholm, Sweden, Bodo Tuemmler of West Germany rerecorded the fastest mile of the year, 3:54.7. He was followed by Andre de Hertoghe of Belgium, 3:56; Werner Gosewinkel of West Germany, 3:59.1; and Alberto Esteban of Spain, 3:59.2.

Wilson Kiprsgut of Kenya won the 1,000 meters in 2:21.6, but Russians dominated the rest of the meet.

Among the Russian winners were Valeri Skovrtsov, high jump, 7-1½; Anatoly Kuryan, 3,000-meter steeplechase, 8:33; Janis Luis, javelin, 285-4½; and Victor Saneev, triple jump, 54-11¾.

Cardinals Get 2 Picks For Fischer

WASHINGTON (AP) — St. Louis was awarded two of Washington's future picks in the pro football draft Wednesday as compensation for veteran cornerback Pat Fischer, who signed with the Redskins after playing out his option.

The settlement by football commissioner Pete Rozelle fell short of what the Cardinals were asking.

Rozelle, who intervened after the two teams failed to reach agreement, gave St. Louis the Redskins' second-round draft choice for next year and their third-round pick in 1970.

Paul Brown Sells Cleveland Stock

The stock was sold to Gordon S. Macklin Jr., Charles J. Kilroy and Joseph H. Thomas, all of Cleveland, and Frederick W. Uhlman, Bowling Green. The four are partners in McDonald and Co., Cleveland-based member of the New York stock exchange.

Cubs' Rally Falls Short, Phillies Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Mike Ryan's fourth-inning single gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 victory over Chicago Wednesday as a ninth-inning Cub rally fell short.

Larry Jackson took a 3-0 lead to the ninth inning but ran into trouble and had to be rescued by Chris Short, who finally put down the Cub threat after two runs were scored.

Singles by Willie Smith and Adolfo Phillips finished Jackson with one out. Short walked pinch hitter Gene Oliver, loading the bases. After Don Kessinger struck out, Glenn Beckert singled, driving in two runs. Short then struck out Billy Williams to end it.

Tom Stepien Shoots 64

Tom Stepien of East Liverpool fired a 34-30 at Highland Golf Course in Glenmoor Sunday for the best score of the season at the course.

Stepien holds the course record for 18 holes with a 63 and for nine holes with a 29. He missed both marks by one stroke Sunday. He had six birdies and no bogies.

Waterford Has Twinbill On Holiday

Waterford Park, enjoying its best racing season in history, will present a doubleheader program today with 18 events scheduled.

There will be a 10-race program during the afternoon, and an eight race program that night. Post time for the afternoon program is 1:30, while the evening card is slated to begin at 7:15. A total of seven perfectas will be offered, plus a pair of daily doubles. One admission fee covers both programs.

Highlighting the afternoon program is the six furlong Independence Day Purse. The evening program is headed by the Firecracker Purse, also a six furlong event.

Five Moons has been named the 8-5 favorite in the Independence Day, a fair price considering that he will be ridden by leading jockey Bill Sollars. Others named for the Independence Day are Circle Eye, Kathy Gray, Cherry O., Miss Ranie J., Sayaslam, Janssen and Misty Whirl.

Sollars stands a chance of winning both feature attractions, as he is listed to ride San Martin in the Firecracker. San Martin, who was second last time out, also figures at 8-5. The Firecracker has also attracted Press Conference, Bold Tor, Fleet Tony, Spring Storm, Walnut John, Lost Lady and the entry of Duc L. and Shively.

In addition, holiday racegoers will be treated to a pair of grass races. Both turf events are listed to be run at the one mile distance, with the first going as the sixth race on the afternoon card. The second will be run as the third race on the evening card.

Nick Pietrosante Retires From NFL

Pietrosante was the No. 1 draft choice for the Detroit Lions in 1959 and played seven seasons before he was released in 1966 and picked up by Cleveland.

Damascus, Dr. Fager Battle At Aqueduct

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Damascus and Dr. Fager, the two outstanding handicap racers who are tied at 1-1 in their rivalry, will battle it out Thursday with four other entries in the $108,100 Suburban Handicap of 1¼ miles at Aqueduct.

Ycaza will try for a unique Aqueduct-Monmouth double within about an hour. The Panamanian has arranged for a helicopter to take him to the New Jersey track where he is scheduled to ride the formidable little Dark Mirage in the $50,000 Monmouth Oaks.

Dark Mirage, a 715-pound filly who has swept New York's Triple Crown for fillies, will be trying for her seventh straight victory in the Oaks.

Ycaza can earn over $10,000 with a double win if everything works out.

The stretch-running Damascus, an entry with his pace-setting rabbit, Hedevar, will carry 133 pounds to Dr. Fager's 132. Braulia Baeza will be aboard Dr. Fager, owned by William McKnight of Minneapolis. Hedevar will carry 112 pounds.

Dr. Fager, winner of his two starts this year, was made the even money favorite in the morning line. Damascus was rated at 6-5.

At the weights, In Reality, at 125, and Bold Hour, 116, have to be given a chance of upsetting the Big Two. Amerigo Lady, a 4-year-old filly, is the lightweight at 110 and a 50-1 longshot.

Damascus has earned $932,606. Dr. Fager, no poverty case either, has won $706,622.

for the Mansfield Board of Education.

Before moving to Mansfield, he was a teacher and coach at Massillon and Steubenville high schools. He received his bachelor of science degree from Muskingum College, his master of education degree from Kent and is presently working toward his doctor of education degree at Ohio State University.

King is a member of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Richland County Unit of the American Cancer Society, a deacon in the First United Presbyterian Church, secretary of the Richland County Foundation Board and president of the Richland County Foundation Board.

Urchek was named director of the East Liverpool Branch last fall after serving in various administrative posts at Kent since 1948. He also is an assistant professor of business administration.

Positions he held previously included assistant to the vice president for business and finance, director of non - academic personnel and graduate manager of athletics.

He and his wife, Marjorie, and five children live in Ravenna.

Deaths Funerals

Clifford Jacobs

NEW CUMBERLAND — Clifford Jacobs of New Cumberland died late Wednesday afternoon at Ohio Valley General Hospital in Wheeling.

Funeral arrangements are pending. The body was removed to the Turley Funeral Home.

Joseph Bulger

Requiem mass will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Immaculate Conception Church at Wellsville for Joseph E. Bulger of 340 Lisbon St., Wellsville, who died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at City Hospital, where he had been admitted earlier.

Fr. James A. Cavanaugh will officiate. He also will conduct a prayer service at the MacLean Funeral Home Friday at 8 p.m.

Burial will be in Spring Hill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and night and Friday afternoon and night.

mand said 66 enemy soldiers were killed. South Vietnamese losses were listed as 10 killed and 22 wounded.

Airwar Picks Up

The air war also picked up, U.S. planes flying 149 missions Tuesday against North Vietnam's southern panhandle—the most since 155 were flown April 22—and leaving behind a trial of destruction.

Pilots reported 56 fires lit up the countryside, indicating hits on oil and ammunition stores. In their drive to check the flow of enemy soldiers and supplies to South Vietnam, the pilots also said they wrecked 10 river barges, six trucks, four railroad cars, seven antiaircraft sites, and a surface to air missile.

earlier that a hearing on his application for citizenship was called off on the day Kennedy was shot, last June 5. He said it had been set for June 7, but an FBI man and an immigration service man came to his house and told him not to appear. He was told it would be rescheduled, but so far no date has been set, he said.

An immigration department spokesman in Los Angeles said the matter is in abeyance pending disposition of the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan case.

Traffic Toll Predicted At 38 In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio traffic experts looked for as many as 38 traffic deaths in the long July 4 weekend -- but hoping motorists would drive more carefully and make their prediction wrong.

The highway death count extends from 6 p.m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday.

The holiday brings out thousands of motorists visiting relatives, going to picnic, on vacation and other holiday recreation-on top of the normal out-of - state motorist vacation and summer travel.

All available highway patrolmen, bolstered by local police and sheriff's deputies and other auxiliaries, will be on the roads in force attempting to reduce the traffic accident rate.

Linked up with the safety campaign is a program headed by State Treasurer John Herbert commemorating the holiday with the scheduled ringing of bells in all public places at 2 p.m. Thursday--the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The two-fold program carries the same theme as last year--"Bells for Liberty -- Belts for Safety."

The holiday traffic period follows two days in which the state's traffic death toll has been heavy--at least 15 deaths since Tuesday morning, including one accident taking four lives, another three lives and two other accidents two lives each.

Kabobs Prove Tasty Hit

One from each of our states, 50 college girls competed in several events in the 14th annual College Queen Pageant.

For the Best Foods Cook-In, the test was the preparation of a main dish and decorating a cake.

BEEF, LAMB KABOBS
6 small white onions, peeled
½ pound boned beef (1½-inch cubes)
½ pound boned lamb (1½-inch cubes)
1 recipe Marinade
6 small tomatoes or 6 tomato wedges
6 small fresh mushrooms
2 small summer squash (zucchini or crookneck) cut into ¾-inch pieces
1 medium green pepper, cut into 1-inch squares
1 recipe Parsley Rice

Precook onions in lightly salted boiling water until almost tender. Drain and set aside. Mix meat cubes in large bowl or pan with marinade and let stand at least 15 minutes, preferably 2 to 3 hours.

Drain meat, reserving marinade for basting. Arrange meat cubes, onions, tomatoes, mushrooms, squash and green pepper alternately on skewers. Brush vegetables with marinade.

Place skewers on greased, preheated grill or broiler, following manufacturer's directions. Broil, turning skewers occasionally and brushing with remaining marinade, 15 to 25 minutes or until meat is cooked to desired doneness and vegetables are tender. Serve with parsley rice. Makes 4 servings.

Marinade: Mix ½-cup corn oil and ¼-cup cider vinegar. Stir in 1½ teaspoons dry mustard, ½-teaspoon salt, ½-teaspoon each crushed basil, oregano and thyme leaves, ⅛-teaspoon pepper, 1 finely chopped medium onion and 1 finely chopped clove garlic.

A Junior Editors Quiz About GRAPEFRUIT

QUESTION: How did grapefruit get its name?

* * * *

ANSWER: The answer to this question is related to the fine bunch of grapes hanging in a heavy cluster at the upper left above. Although the grapefruit does not belong to the grape family (it grows on a tree, not a vine), the fruits do bunch into clusters. It is this resemblance which gave the grapefruit its name. These fruits are thought to have originated in the 18th century in the West Indies and to have then been taken to Florida, where at first they had only a local popularity. Northern people coming to Florida in increasing numbers discovered the tangy taste of this large member of the citrus fruit family, and then wished for it in their homes. With demand, supply usually appears. Large grapefuit trees began to be planted in ever increasing number. Soon these fruits appeared on fruit stands all over America. The lemon, like the grapefruit, also belongs to the citrus group; so do the tangerine and orange, and the tart little lime, shown at lower left.

(Janet Engstrand of Bovey, Minn. wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, July 4, Independence Day, the 186th day of 1968. There are 180 days left in the year.

On this date in 1776, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia adopted the Declaration of Independence.

On this date:

In 1802, the U.S. Military Academy opened at West Point, N.Y.

In 1826, the second and third American presidents, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, died.

In 1872, the 30th U.S. president, Calvin Coolidge, was born in Plymouth, Vt.

In 1959, the 49th star was added to the flag as Alaska was admitted to the Union.

Ten years ago: President Dwight D. Eisenhower was visiting Canada to try to improve U.S.-Canadian relations.

The city of Mobile, Ala., is sometimes called the "City of Six Flags." The city has been owned by the French, British and Spanish, and has flown the flags of the American colonies, the Confederate States and the United States.

NO "MAVERICK" PARTS AT TEMPLE MOTOR CO.!

On the range a maverick is an unbranded stray — doesn't belong to anyone. A "maverick" part is a stray, too—unbranded merchandise with no trademark to tell you who made it. You won't find any "maverick" parts in our shop. When a Ford needs parts, we use only FoMoCo Genuine or Rotunda Parts — built to Ford's original equipment standards of quality. We keep your Ford all Ford. And your service work is done by our trained service technicians using factory-approved special tools and equipment. The next time your Ford needs service, bring it to us for the best!

A Junior Editors Quiz About GRAPEFRUIT

QUESTION: How did grapefruit get its name?

* * * *

ANSWER: The answer to this question is related to the fine bunch of grapes hanging in a heavy cluster at the upper left above. Although the grapefruit does not belong to the grape family (it grows on a tree, not a vine), the fruits do bunch into clusters. It is this resemblance which gave the grapefruit its name. These fruits are thought to have originated in the 18th century in the West Indies and to have then been taken to Florida, where at first they had only a local popularity. Northern people coming to Florida in increasing numbers discovered the tangy taste of this large member of the citrus fruit family, and then wished for it in their homes. With demand, supply usually appears. Large grapefuit trees began to be planted in ever increasing number. Soon these fruits appeared on fruit stands all over America. The lemon, like the grapefruit, also belongs to the citrus group; so do the tangerine and orange, and the tart little lime, shown at lower left.

(Janet Engstrand of Bovey, Minn. wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1776, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia adopted the Declaration of Independence.

In 1802, the U.S. Military Academy opened at West Point, N.Y.

In 1826, the second and third American presidents, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, died.

In 1959, the 49th star was added to the flag as Alaska was admitted to the Union.

In 1960, Hawaii became the 50th state.

Ten years ago: President Dwight D. Eisenhower was visiting Canada to try to improve U.S.-Canadian relations.

The city of Mobile, Ala., is sometimes called the "City of Six Flags." The city has been owned by the French, British and Spanish, and has flown the flags of the American colonies, the Confederate States and the United States.
